

AT THE BREAKFAST TABLE

What The Dyspeptic Saw in His Morning Paper as He Grumbled Over His Health Food.

Friday Morning, June 5.—Millers' national federation in session at Detroit adopt resolutions demanding reciprocity, especially with Canada; recognizing right of laborers to organize but denying right of labor organizations to compel individuals to join or that only union men shall be employed. S. T. Ballard of Louisville, Ky., made a bitter attack on labor unions and urged employers' associations in every town. Millers claim they are not prosperous.

Dispatch from Monaster, European Turkey, gives details of slaughter of inhabitants of Smerdash village, south of Lake Presba, May 21, by Bashi-Bazouks (Turks). Three hundred houses burned and 200 persons killed—mostly women and children.

Novoe Vremya, leading Russian paper, in signed leading article headed "Russia and America" resents American criticisms of the Kischineff horror. Says the Americans are "carried away by the successes of their ne imperialistic policy" and refers to "Secretary Hay's stubborn anglophilism." The editor of the Syromiatnikoff suggests that the Russian foreign office should publish in English a sketch of Russo-American relations since the time of Catherine and send the book to 3,000 American newspapers for review, averring that American school histories contain nothing to show Russia's uniform friendship for the United States in every time of need.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Lord Spencer, Lord Ripon, Lord Tweedmouth and other liberal leaders are out with letters denouncing Joey Chamberlain's imperial zollverein proposals as merely veiled protection. The London Daily News says Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Mr. Goschen, Duke of Devonshire, Chancellor Ritchie, Lord Landsdowne and Lord Selborne are all against Chamberlain's scheme.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture Moore is taking steps to enforce the pure food law against foreign importers.

At Argentine, Kas., 4,500 people are homeless and in need of food and clothing. Supplies should be sent to the mayor, Dr. C. E. Clopper.

Ohio republican convention alleged to be a "love feast" with Mark Hanna as Cupid. Myron Herrick gets his reward for carrying a lot of past due paper. The ticket is as follows: Governor, Myron T. Herrick; lieutenant gov., Warren G. Harding; auditor, W. D. Guilbert; treasurer, W. S. McKinnon; attorney general, Wade H. Ellis; judge of supreme court, A. N. Summers; school commissioner, E. A. Jones; member of board of public works, George H. Watkins. Guilbert is the only "third-termer." The platform, aside from "taffy" for Roosevelt, Hanna, Foraker, et al., asks for removal of the double liability of stockholders; improvement of the Ohio river; extension of labor laws; better roads; a bigger navy; favors "stimulating local bank circulation" and lauds "protection."

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company was held Thursday at Chicago. The annual statement submitted to the stockholders showed gross earnings for the year of $50,041,118 with operating expenses, taxes, interest, etc., amounting to $45,246,314. The surplus for the year over all charges (land incomes not included) was $519,502. Prior to the meeting of stockholders there was a meeting of the directors at which a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent on the preferred stock and a half yearly dividend of 3 1-2 per cent on the common stock payable July 1 to stockholders of record June 10.

The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha bridge over the Missouri river at Sioux City has been advertised for sale at public auction June 10 at South Sioux City, Neb. The action is result of refusal of the road to pay taxes. It is expected that the railroad will secure an injunction to prevent the sale. And this, after the
