

Nerve Fag.

If You Waste Your Nerve Energy, After Awhile You Will Suffer For It.

You can waste nerve force by excess, over-work, worry, anxiety, etc.

You can weaken yourself by not eating proper food or securing sufficient rest to renew the nerve energy you use up.

The proper treatment, in addition to good phosphatic food, such as whole meal bread, prepared cereals, etc., is Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

This is as truly a brain and nerve food as any food you could eat, and besides, furnishes strength and tone of its own, which goes to the weakened nerve system, and sets it to rights.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is a refreshing, revitalizing tonic food-medicine for the brain and nerves. It reconstructs worn-out nerve tissue, and fills your languid brain with new life and vigor.

Dr. Miles' Nervine has made so many marvelous cures, of people so sick the doctors thought they were incurable, that it is today the standard medicine in many thousands of American homes.

The first bottle is guaranteed to help you, or druggist returns your money.

"The extreme heat, close confinement and intense mental strain incident to the banking business, has caused me to suffer with nervousness and insomnia.

It gives me pleasure to say that I have used Dr. Miles' Nervine with very satisfactory results in the treatment of these affections. I am now on my fifth bottle, and eat and sleep well, in fact have almost forgotten that I possess nerves."—R. L. DALBY, Asst. Cashier, State Bank, Texarcana, Ark.

A Vote in Rhyme

Dr. A. L. Bixby, collector of "Driftwood" for the Lincoln State Journal, is trying his level best to sneak back into the ranks of the Old Guard of Populism, where his ideals really place him, although "economic determinism" in the form of a Journal Company pay-check dominates and perverts his "egoism" and keeps him doing yeoman service for the Hananites. In Tuesday's "Daily Drift" he vows that "there is something pathetic in the efforts of The Independent to bring the old guard of populism back into the middle of the road for the purpose of making a showing in the coming presidential campaign." And avers that "if we might be permitted to select from the bunch named (in the preferential ballot), E. Gerry Brown would be our first and second choice."

Then the amiable doctor puts the spurs into Pegasus with the following woeful result:

I know not what results may be
In this new deal we read about;
The pops, I fear, will not agree
To stand alone and fight it out.

Perhaps a handful, tried and true,
Will strive to keep the ranks intact,
But when they find themselves so few
Can party fervor counteract

The impulse to desert the ship
And join the crew where men abound?
Will not the ranks disband and skip
As roll the summer months around?

Could I go forth from town to town,
Exultant, on my own accord,
And battle for E. Gerry Brown
Without the prospect of reward?

If any man could call me out
To die if need be for the state,
E. Gerry Brown, beyond a doubt,
Is he—the righteous incarnate.

For him this day I cast my vote;
First choice is he—make note of that—
For him I want to shed my coat,
My vest, my shirt, my boots, my hat!

For him I lift my heavy voice
As high as I can boost the same;
If he is not the people's choice
Who is? Will some one speak his name?

Don't waste any tears, dear doctor, over the pathetic features of "this new deal." "The handful, tried and true," have had so many hard knocks they rather enjoy the sensation. And right at the present time, wisdom would counsel no hasty disarrangement of your raiment, even though your first and second choice is worthy of the highest consideration.

W. E. Gregory, Alleene, Ark., sends in $2.50 to be placed to the credit of Little River county in the coming contest.

Joseph Burr, Leoti, Kas.: "I claim to be one of the Old Guard, as I left the republican party in 1890 and am sorry I did not leave it sooner."

D. M. McConnell, Walnut Hill, Ga.: "I have decided to wait no longer to enroll as one of the Old Guard, and as you are giving opportunity for referendum vote for president, I enclose my vote, hoping for the best choice possible through the Old Guard. I see that the enrollment from Georgia up to date is very small, but I wish to say to the boys through The Independent that the Empire State is all O. K. If T. E. Watson is nominated he will not only carry the populist vote, but a strong democratic vote in the south. I think, Mr. Editor, one reason why, and so far as I know the only reason why, the southern populists are not more active at this time is that they are waiting to see what will develop. The rank and file of southern populists are opposed to fusion, and, since fusion is a thing of the past, let us all as reformers unite against the enemies of free and independent government."

Thos. B. Parks, Collin, Ala.: "I have not received any of your blanks but am desirous to have my name enrolled as one of the Old Guard of Populism. I will be 72 years of age in a few days. Am a regular reader of the Missouri World. The work of the Denver conference has inspired me in the cause of the party. I could give you many names that would be proud to go on the Old Guard roll, but have not consulted them on the subject." (Have counted you and sent blanks.—De France.)

B. S. Almond, Laneburg, Ark.: "I am an old greenback populist and voted that ticket till I found that under present election laws, with either democratic or republican officials officials in control, that it is useless to hope for fairness in elections. Since then I declined to vote at all."

J. W. Banning, Guernsey, Ia.: "Enclosed find vote. I have selected for my first choice Allen. Who could we get any better? A man of more integrity could not be found, while no doubt all on the list are good men. I have been a reader of The Independent since 1890 and have to rely upon it for the truth, as one cannot get it out of the old party papers."

B. F. Arnold, Nashville, Ark.: "In a few days, yes, as soon as the much looked for republican prosperity gets here, will send you some money to defray expenses. This is absolutely necessary, and I think that the boys in the trenches understand the gravity of the situation and will come to your rescue. It takes money as well as brains and energy to run a newspaper and to gather up at the same time the fragments of a political party. I sincerely hope the boys will get out of the trenches long enough to send you money to assist in carrying on this work. We not only need howling and loud-mouthed populists, but paying populists as well. Ain't that the truth?" (I have always believed in the small contribution idea, instead of requiring a few to stand all the expense. Scarcely any man is so poor that he cannot afford to contribute a dime, a quarter or half dollar. A thousand dimes, too, from a thousand different persons, from a party standpoint, is preferable to a hundred dollars from one man. The ideal future organization for the people's party, as I see it, is a dues-paying one, where every member who participates in the party referendums must be "in good standing," as the lodges have it. The dues should be light, of course, so as not to be a burden to any member, however poor. The Old Guard enrollment is now reaching the self-supporting stage, as far as concerns the things for which cash must be expended—postage stamps and printing.—Associate Editor.)

Jackson Wright, Harrisburg, Ill.: "I have been faithful to our cause since Peter Cooper. Am now 83 and can't donate much, as the rich have got $4,000 that I worked for, but you will find 30c enclosed to help pay expenses."

Samuel W. Williams, Vincennes, Ind.: "I note your plan of taking a straw vote and approve it. It is educational and will aid the work of enrollment by adding to the interest in the work. I see that contributions to your expense account are not as liberal as they should be and I send you an additional dollar."

O. A. Oswald, Holbrook, Neb.: "I enclose your sample ballot. I have been an independent since 1889 or 1890; and only enactment of our principles into law, and the failure of such laws to benefit the people as we expect they would, will change my opinion. So keep right on, and go straight ahead; but seek to avoid bad names for our opponents, as bad names will educate no one."

F. M. Whitticar, Butte, Neb.: "Enclosed find my vote. My sentiments are, 'Nothing but populism—fusion don't go with me—Bryanism is a thing of the past and should be forgotten.' I am one of the Old Guard and stand pat."

J. A. Sullivan, Alberta, La.: "Please enroll my name as one of the Old Guards of Populism, for I have been one ever since the party was organized. I hope to see populism prevail in 1904."

Try the New Majestic Tomato

This grand variety we claim to be the largest and most productive kind in existence. It yielded 1160 bushels per acre on our place last season, grown under ordinary conditions, and will, we believe, double it by special culture. The fruit is not coarse and rough like other large sorts but of fine shape and unsurpassed quality. The seed is scarce this year and sells at 40 cents per packet of 100 seeds. We desire, however, to place our catalogue in the hands of every one who has a garden and have decided to send a trial packet of seeds FREE if you mention paper in which you saw this advertisement.

$100 in Cash Prizes
$30 for largest tomato grown, $10 for largest yield from one plant, $20 for best photograph of a plant. Prizes to be won by the worth of seed, a chance to win a valuable cash prize and the seeds seed catalogue published. Our new seeds are unsurpassed.
