RIGGS The Drug Cutter

1321 O Street, Lincoln, Neb.

I. H. Hatfield, Attorney

NOTICE

To John Charles Jones, Lilla Parsons Wilson, Anne Parker, Fhebe Maud Ryalt, Robert Mitchell, Andrew Vore, Albert Barber, Albert Bush, Sarah Sheldon, Emily Owen, Jane Say, Benjamin Bailey, Thomas Sheldon, Mrs. Henry Crocker, Griffiths, first name unknown, Henry Horwood, Richard Lethbridge, Litley Parsons, George Parker, Margaret Bigler, non-resident defendants: You and each of you are hereby notified that on April 13th 1904, Thomas S. Chambers as plaintiff began an action against you in the District court of Lancaster County, Nebraska, to reform a certain deed from James E. Jones to Carlos C. Burr, dated May 27, 1891, recorded in book 69 of deeds, at page 479, in the register of deeds office of Lancaster county, Nebraska, and to quiet the title in the plaintiff to the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter, and the south third of the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 14, Town 9, Range 6, in said county and state. The plaintiff prays that said deed be reformed, that the title to said real estate be quieted in him, and for general relief. You are required to answer plaintiff's petition on or before May 23, 1904. THOMAS S. CHAMBER, Plaintiff.

By I. H. Hatfield, Attorney.

Editor Independent: Enclosed find blanks filled out to the best of my ability, a thing that I was very glad to do. Also find P. O. order for $1 to pay postage. The secretary of our county committee has moved to Knoxville, Tenn. All the populists (or nearly all) in Meadville have voted the socialist ticket the last two years. So also in Titusville and Coneautville, this county, because the populist organization went fusion with democratic office-seekers and was swallowed soul and body.

I do not know of one farmer in this county that voted the socialist ticket; the majority of them stayed at home on election day.

Socialism is only a class or "snap" man's party, and never can be more than that. The platform stands for some untried things which it is impossible to understand or accomplish. Please put my name on the list of the Old Guard. C. H. BLYSTONE.

D. M. McConnell, Franklin county, Ga.: "I think Mr. De Hart misrepresents Mr. Watson on tariff for revenue. If I understand Mr. Watson, he repudiates all tariffs and wants a graduated income tax on franchises obtained through lobbying, bribery and other class legislation. Mr. Watson has had more opposition than any other man in the south, but he has shown himself to be the ablest exponent of true democracy since the days of Thomas Jefferson. Forward with the noble work you have in hand and may God reign and rule in the hearts of men."

Custer County, Neb.

Editor Independent: I am on the list of the Old Guard and I herewith forward my ballot showing the choice for president of the United States. I have sent you a small amount to help defray postage, etc., and soon as convenient I will send you a little more.

I prefer populism to any new party that could be launched. Populism has made and can make a great and better record than the Wayland or Kangaroo socialism has made or ever will make. Kangaroo or Wayland socialism as a party contains all the freaks and fakirs as leaders of the movement who are after office and who played traitors to socialism by trying to break it up in the same manner as D. Clem Deaver tried to sell out and break up populism.

If I ever become a socialist I will join a genuine S. L. P. socialist movement. Since that seems to be a too radical a movement for the farm and small business element of the west at present, I intend to remain a populist while there is any show for reform through the populist movement.

V. J. STEDRY.

E. W. Robbins, Waldo county, Me.: "Populism in Maine dead and buried. As for myself, I was a republican; joined greenback party, was sold out; went into labor union party, was sold out again; joined populist party, was sold out again; and was urged to cast my vote for the democratic nominee, but I have not as yet voted since. Populism is dead in Maine and cannot be resurrected. I have spent a great deal of time and considerable money for the cause of populism, but am done. Am 75 years old, and never expect to see a change from old party ideas. Socialism is taking deep root in Maine and most of my old populist comrades will vote it this fall. I do not know a single old populist in my vicinity, where we had a club of 75, that could be induced to vote for it. Therefore I decline to take any part in politics."

Platte County, Nebraska

Editor Independent: Please find enclosed draft for $1 to help along in this good work. I am pleased with the Denver meeting and hope that we will continue in this line; for if we do, I think we will meet with great success. I read over the columns of your paper and see so many good men all over our union of states that are looking into our government affairs. It would seem we cannot help but meet with success.

Go on, gentlemen, with your good work and you will find friends that will stay with you. I will enclose 12 names that I think will join our great army, and hope that we will soon be able to march to the front. WILLIAM H. JOY.

Wm. M. Rhode, Warren county, Ind.: "Enclosed please find my enrollment. In the list of names for president you will see that I have given Hon. Marion Butler as second choice. I consider Mr. Butler as one of our ablest men and one that has done the hardest fighting for our principles in the senate. I have some of his speeches that I believe would make interesting reading if published in our papers of today. I also enclose a list of names of men who have been good populists heretofore and I think possibly some and possibly all of them will fall in line when our party is once more organized and in working order. Enclosed please find P. O. money order for $1 to help pay expenses."

Valley County, Nebraska

Editor Independent: Enclosed please find application blank properly filled.

I presume I am entitled to be enrolled in the Old Guard also, although I am only 42 years old. I have been supporting populist principles since I have been old enough to vote.

You are at liberty to call on me for at least 30 days in the campaign and $10 a little later on. I have avoided a good deal of time and money to the cause in the past and am willing to continue in the cause the rest of my life, provided we pursue a straight forward course. No more waiting to see what other parties may or may not do. No more trafficking with either of the two old frauds for me. J. H. CRONK.

This is the way Brice McCoy, of Cass county, Mo., wings up his Old Guard enrollment blank: "I have helped to fight populist battles and tried to carry the banner to victory, but never held any office—never wanted any office—hadn't lost any office—and, therefore, never hunted for any office. Have stumped our county several times; made the first public greenback speech ever made in the county. Have been with the party ever since 1876—am there yet and expect to stay there. Have lots of good fight in my old hide yet and can get it out when called for."

Iosco County, Mich.

Editor Independent: If the Cleveland and Hill democrats capture the next democratic convention, my vote and my support will be with the populist party. I am a Bryan democrat and have taken The Commoner and the Nebraska Independent since '36. Was a republican until the St. Louis convention, '96.

It's to be hoped for the good of the Bryan democrats and populists that the reorganizers of the democratic party capture the next democratic convention. Then the reform element of the republican and democratic parties will look for justice under the banner of the Old Guard. If W. J. Bryan respects the policy he advocates, he will be found there if the Clevelandites are successful.

I have great respect for Bryan, but I would have greater respect if he would gather his flock under the banner of the Old Guard.

J. A. CORNER.

G. W. Wolf, Cass county, Neb.: "I herewith send you papers for my enrollment with the Old Guard, feeling that it is better to be numbered with those that do good unto the resurrection of life, than with those that do evil unto the resurrection of condemnation. I am now 75 years old and feel the decline of life, but do all I can for the good of those that come after me. Please find herewith $2, $1 to renew my subscription to The Independent to May 1, 1904, and $1 for your postal expense."

Kearney Co., Neb.

Editor Independent: I send you herewith application for membership in Old Guard of Populism; also one dollar to help the cause.

I have been a regular subscriber to your paper since the first number, and could not keep house without it. Missing two numbers lately, in my mail, I supposed that my time was out and renewed through the New Era-Standard; but afterward found that I had more credit. So, if not too much trouble, add the amount to the time already to my credit. And for the success of The Independent and the right I will ever pray. E. O. SMEAD.

S. M. Sutton, Bienville Parish, La.: "Here's come to be counted. I wish ten thousand could hear me say that I am an Old Guard. The people's party is united and all thinking people know it. I would say to Bro. W. H. Mills of Missouri that mud-slinging should be a thing of the past. Quit that, brother; we must build up our party. I am a mid-roader myself, but we have laid some past differences long ago. Oh, it does me good to see the names of Old Guards being enrolled."

B. S. Bennett, Custer county, Neb.: "I enclose 50 cents. Please enroll my name as one of the Old Guard of Populism."

Hail Insurance

The United Mutual Hail Insurance Association is the oldest, is the strongest, is the best; has paid $159,000 more for losses than the combined payments of all other companies. Paid $53,596.10 in 1903. Has paid $200,911.80 for losses since its organization. Wants good representatives in every precinct. Address Home Office, 116 So. 10th St., Lincoln, Neb.

CALIFORNIA

Elsinore, Riverside County.

12 acres Eureka lemons nine years old; five-room modern house; insurance, $700; water piped to house and barn; barn 30x22, two stories; carriage room, carriage and carpenter shop; assorted fruit of all kinds; located one block from Lake Elsinore; good well connected with good pumping plant; cost of water, 25 cents per day; should produce $3,000 per year; price, $10,000; mortgage $3,750 at 7 per cent; will assume equal amount on good eastern farm. WEBER & FARRIS, 1328 O St.

We still want buyers for the Dexter, Mo., farms.

Pa'd Immediately

Mr. Carl Carlson, an employe of the B. L. Paine Clothing House, who died last week, held a policy in the Security Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Lincoln. The company has told his brother, who is the beneficiary, that the policy will be paid as soon as the proofs of death are made out.

This is one of the great advantages in having a policy with a home company. Settlements are much quicker and easier made than with foreign companies.

Mr. Carlson was a young man in the prime of life and had no thought that he would die. He had his policy only a year and a half. He had no family of his own, but took the policy for the benefit of a young brother in the event of his death.
