Literary Note

At the urgent solicitation of the Woman's Home Companion, Mr. Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three Most Beautiful Roses," and the painting is without doubt one of the masterpieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its original grandeur on the cover of the Woman's Home Companion for June.

The Merchants' Trust company of New York City has been closed by order of the state superintendent of banks because it made loans amounting to about $1,250,000 upon which it has not been able to realize a sufficient sum to pay depositors and save the capital of the company from impairment. Upon application of the state's attorney general, Douglas Robinson, a brother-in-law of President Roosevelt, was appointed one of the receivers of the company. The trust company owes depositors about $2,200,000 and according to the state bank examiner has available assets other than in the Hudson Railway company and the Rutland companies of nearly $1,300,000, so that it will be necessary to realize $950,000 to pay depositors. The stockholders are liable to the extent of $500,000. With that amount the state bank examiner said that a sufficient sum should certainly be realized to pay depositors in full.
