

TO MEET IN LINCOLN IAMS' STALLIONS

Uncle Sam's Nebraska Postmasters Will Hold Their Association Convention on June 13 and 14

Every postmaster in Nebraska is expected in Lincoln June 13-14. Postmaster General Cortelyou has recognized the Nebraska association of postmasters in the following "order:"

"Postmasters in the state of Nebraska are hereby granted leave of absence for as many days, not exceeding four, as may be necessary to enable them to attend the convention of the Nebraska Association of Postmasters to be held at Lincoln on June 13 and 14, 1905.

"GEO. B. CORTELYOU,
"Postmaster General."

The indications are that every post-office in the state will be represented by the postmaster or some one next in authority. This is the first instance in the history of the postal service of this country that a state association has been recognized by the department in this manner. In addition to the above, Postmaster General Cortelyou will send a personal representative from Washington, as will also each of the assistant postmasters general, to be present two days to represent their divisions of the service.

Will Use University Chapel

Nebraska can well feel proud of this special recognition. The railway postal service and the division of inspection will each be represented. The delegation from Nebraska to Washington, including both United States senators and most of the congressmen, will be present and address the convention.

The convention will meet in the United States court room, which will not be large enough to accommodate those in attendance, but Chancellor Andrews has come to the rescue and tendered the use of the university chapel for the occasion.

The executive committee, consisting of Postmasters O. L. Bantz of Humboldt, W. S. Raker of Gretna, Donald McLeod of Schuyler, John A. Anderson of Wahoo, J. H. Tower of Sutton and J. M. Errickson of Dannebrog, are given great credit for the arrangements perfected for this annual meeting of the postmasters of the state.

An open rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip to Lincoln and return has been granted by all railroads from every station in Nebraska. Tickets on sale June 12 to 15, inclusive, good to return leaving Lincoln to and including June 17, thus giving a rate to every citizen of the state, whether in the government employ or not, good for a week, with no certificate plan or other bothersome red tape connected with the rate.

Governor Mickey Interested

This means much to the business interests of the city, as well as to the public generally, and every facility will be tendered to Postmaster Sizer, upon whom the duty of entertainment devolves entirely. Most of the postmasters will bring their ladies with them for a week's outing in the capital city.

Chancellor Andrews, Governor Mickey and Mayor Brown have tendered everything in their power and all of the state institutions and the public library will be open to the visiting postmasters. Theatre and concert parties and trolley and automobile rides are being planned, with special entertainment for the ladies in attendance. Every postmaster and postmistress in Lancaster county will be on hand as a reception committee and a special committee of postoffice employes and their ladies will see that everything possible for the welfare of the visiting Nasby's is done.

Prominent Speakers

The speakers are all prominent, the program will be both pleasing and instructive, and the public is invited to be present at all meetings of the association. The officers of the association and the several committees in charge of arrangement of details of the convention will meet with Postmaster Sizer Monday next, June 12, at 8 p. m., to complete arrangements for the convention, which will open on Tuesday, June 13, at 2 p. m., and be in session all day Wednesday, June 14, and until the business of the session is complete.

Every citizen of Lincoln is invited to join in making these dates red letter days for the postmasters of Nebraska, who will cut loose from the query, "Is there any mail for me?" for a few days, and come to the city for a genuine good time.
