IN CAP AND BELLS

A ten cent stamp is a "big stick."

Patience is the fisherman's best bait.

As the days lengthen, so too do the fish stories.

Prejudice is often a sincere purpose gone astray.

The greatest deficit the world knows is in the conscience fund.

All people who have houses to let are in favor of race-suicide.

The Indiana cigarette law seems to be going up in smoke rapidly.

The market for Russian securities is extremely bearish just now.

There has been an Enquest at Manila and the corpse has been interred.

If all parties would nominate high-grade candidates, there would be no low-grade officials.

The question now is, will Minnesota's storling assert the independence of that state.

It is an open secret that Paul Morton turned down an offer of Norway's crown, preferring to become king of the Equitable.

The czar could endure the submarines and shimose shells, but "the illustrious virtue" of the mikado proved too much for him.

The market reports are deploring "the dullness in steel," but unfortunately this does not refer to the pocket knives manufactured nowadays.

If the railroads spent as much money and energy in getting business as they spend in trying to escape taxation their earnings would be much greater.

It would have been cheaper and less bloody for the Japanese to have sent the "illustrious virtue" of the mikado out alone to do battle with the Russians.

Grafting is not confined to the United States, but here, thanks to our inventive genius, we have more varieties than are to be found elsewhere on the globe.

A New York correspondent of a London paper states that while on a hunting trip recently he discovered bosses among animals. He must have traced the Tammany tiger to its lair.

A Russian savant has discovered that General Kuropatkin was defeated because he was afflicted with a peculiar variety of "intellectual microbes." That is probably the Russian for "bughouse."

Mr. W. A. Graham, chairman of the county board of Dodge County, brought in a load of butcher weight hogs raised at the county farm that sold for $5.22½, top price of the day. This is the fourth year in succession that hogs shipped from the farm have topped the market on day of shipment. Nye & Buchanan Co., handled all of their shipments.

A New Book

By William J. Bryan, Entitled

Under Other Flags

Travels, Speeches, Lectures.

SINCE Mr. Bryan's European tour a year ago he has been besieged by requests for copies of letters describing his travels abroad. These letters together with a number of his lectures and other public addresses, have been gathered together and published in book form. The European letters contain Mr. Bryan's account of what he saw and learned while in Europe, and present interesting views of Ireland, England, Scotland, France, Switzerland, Germany, Russia, Holland, Belgium, and the Netherlands, together with a description of his visits with Count Tolstoy and Pope Leo. In this volume Mr. Bryan writes entertainingly of the "Birth of the Cuban Republic." He also included his lectures on "A Conquering Nation," and "The Value of an Ideal."

Other articles in the volume are "The attraction of Farming," written for the Saturday Evening Post; "Peace," the address delivered at the Holland Society dinner in 1904; "Naboth's Vineyard," the address at the grave of Philip Sherman Bennett; Democracy's Appeal to Culture, address before the Alumni Association of Syracuse University; and an account of his recent trip to the Grand Canyon entitled "Wonders of the West." The book is illustrated, well printed on good paper and substantially bound.

One of the features of "Under Other Flags" is the "Notes on Europe," written after his return from abroad, and giving in brief form a resume of the many interesting things he saw.

The sale of Under Other Flags has been very gratifying to the author. Although the first edition appeared in December the fifth edition is now on the press. The volume of sales increases from day to day. Agents find the book an easy seller and order them in lots of from 25 to 100.
