usually taken off of the irons than is the pain.
When baby is fretful from no apparent cause, have you tried giving it a drink of water? All children require water, but many a wee mite is given soothing syrup and other "heavenly concoctions," when a little water is all that is needed.

Have you tried using a crochet hook to take up the dropped stitches in hose? By the way, here's where "a stitch in time saves forty-nine."

To protect the hands while hanging out clothes in cold weather, have you tried white cloth mittens or knit gloves? As important as this protection is, the thorough drying of the hands is necessary before going out. Wet hands will freeze much more quickly than dry ones.
