

Where to Go to Church.....

Mt. Moriah Baptist Church
24th and Ohio Sts.
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor,
Res. 2422 Ohio St.,
Tel. HA. 3546.

Although the weather was very hot, we had a splendid service all day Sunday. The pastor, Rev. Jones, returned from St. Louis, Missouri, where he had been in attendance at the Missouri State Baptist Convention, of which he was treasurer. He reported a very great meeting and a very pleasant stay.

Rev. J. C. Mosley, delivered a very logical and interesting sermon at eleven o'clock, with the pastor closing the day at night, with a very timely sermon, subject being "What are we living for?" In part he said, "It is our duty as Christians, to strive every day to do something for our fellow man, and not all for ourselves. Our Saviour said, 'as you have done unto the least of these my little ones, you have done unto me' and those who fail to do good to those who need our help, fail to show the true spirit of Christ."

On Monday night our church was crowded to capacity, to hear Rev. Dr. J. E. East, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the Executive Secretary of our Foreign Mission Board. Dr. East has been engaged in mission work for thirty-two years, eleven years in Africa, nine years on the Gulf before going to Africa and twelve years since his return as Executive Secretary of the National Foreign Mission Board. Everyone present enjoyed his wonderful discourse, which was illustrated with moving pictures, showing the natural conditions as they are in that dark land. An appeal was made for donations and a very large amount was raised and turned over to him to help to carry on the much needed work among our brothers across the waters. In all, it was the biggest day in the history of our church, both in attendance and from a point of interest. Each Sunday is a big day with us for each Sunday is filled with spiritual interest, and Christian men and women are made to rejoice in the God of their salvation. Come, and we will make you glad. Everybody welcome. Sunday School, 9:30. Morning Sermon 11 a. m.; BYPU. 6:45 p. m. Mid-week Prayer meeting, Wednesday night.

MUSIC

Hillside Music Festival Great Success

Sunday, July 10th, marked the third Anniversary of the Pastorate of the Rev. John S. Williams, Pastor of the Hillside Presbyterian Church. In the morning, at eleven o'clock, the sermon was preached by the Bishop W. Washington of the Christ Temple Church (Holiness) of California. The guest soloist was Mrs. Dolores Blackwell, student of Miss Mary Munchhoff prominent vocal teacher of the city. In the afternoon, music lovers and patrons of Hillside witnessed one of the greatest musicals that had been held this season. Those taking part on the program were: Mrs. George Vodka, dramatic soprano from the Wheeler Memorial Presbyterian Church of South Omaha; Miss Anna Speese a six month voice pupil of the Rev. J. S. Williams. The orchestra from the Lowe Ave. Presbyterian Church; the Imperial Choir from the Zion Baptist Church; the Choir from the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church; the Omaha "Community Chorus"; and Master Avoca Mason, a year old piano pupil of the Rev. John S. Williams. Two numbers were played by the orchestra. Miss Speese sang, "It was for me" by Blount. The "Community Chorus" together with the Mt. Moriah Choir sang, "Yes He Did" by Rodeheaver. The Mt. Moriah choir sang one number, the Imperial choir, two numbers, "God of Our Father's" and "Couldn't hear No body Pray." Master Mason played "Minuet in G" by Beethoven. Mrs. G. Vodka sang "Spirit of God" by Nielinger and "My Task" as her concluding number. The "Hallelujah chorus" was sung by the "Community Chorus" as a finale.

The Rev. J. R. Young, pastor of Zion Baptist Church gave an excellent address. The invocation was offered by the Rev. J. C. Bell and the Benediction by Rev. O. J. Burckhardt.

CIVIC

Mr. Harry Leland, State Oil Inspector, speaking before the Nebraska Negro Democratic Club, of which he is President, at its meeting Wednesday night, said, "if the Negro owed any debts to the Republican party, it has been paid long ago with interest."

OLD FOLKS' HOME

The N. W. C. A. met at the home 933 N. 25th St., July 6. A surprise was in store. As the members gathered for the meeting, they were ushered into the beautifully new screened porch that provided comfort and joy for all. The porch chairs, swings, tables, potted plants and ferns, lent an air of refinement and contentment that will always be found at the Colored Old Folks' Home. This piece of work was sponsored by the entertainment committee under the chairman, Mrs. LeRoy Porter. The many friends of the home helped to make it a success. The committee realized nearly $40.00 from the penny a day plan suggested by the president, Mrs. Martha Smith. A small balance is due on the labor for the porch and the association hopes the many friends who did not contribute to this effort will do so now. The old folks at home will get a great comfort out of the screened porch. The following committees reported: Mrs. Wade, chairman of the Housing committee, reported the vegetable dinner a success. Mrs. Porter, chairman of the Entertainment committee, reported the expense of screening the porch with a small balance. Mrs. Wilson, matron, reported the old folks enjoying the porch. Mrs. Duncan, Corresponding Secretary, made the financial report for June. The annual picnic will be held at Elmwood Park, Wednesday, August 3rd. Mrs. Martha Taylor Smith, Pres., Mrs. Mary Duncan, Secretary.

MAXIE MILLER WRITES
(Note: for advice, write Maxie Miller, care of Literary Service Bureau, 516 Minnesota Avenue, Kansas City, Kans. For personal reply send self-addressed, stamped envelope.)
(The Literary Service Bureau)

Maxie Miller: Here is my case. I am 16 years old and I've been raised by my auntie. She is good to me but her husband makes love to me and wants me to run away and marry him. He always wants to pet me. He slips in my room at night. I am afraid to tell auntie anything 'cause she might blame me. Now what must I do? Sometimes I think I'll run away from home.—Ella B.

Ella B. Tell this man you do not want anything to do with him, and that you will tell your aunt if he continues to molest you. If he will not hear you, then tell her all, and perhaps she will arrange for you to live elsewhere. If you do not clear yourself, sometime this aunt will get wise and she will blame you, and you'll have to find a new hiding place. Of course, you never consider this wicked proposition of taking your auntie's husband.
—Maxie Miller.

BOND SIGNED BY TOM DENNISON'S DAUGHTER

Mrs. Frances Regan of California was called to the bedside of her father, Tom Dennison, political leader who is suffering from the fourth paralytic stroke. He is confined to his bed with a private nurse. Deputy Marshall Henry Myers and United States Commissioner Mary Mullen, federal officials with Judge Ben Baker and Thomas Murphy went to the Dennison Estate and arranged a new bond for Mr. Dennison who was indicted by the Federal grand jury of the Liquor Conspiracy. The old $10,000 bond of the Hartford Accident and Indemnity was released and a new bond was signed by Mr. Dennison and his daughter.

Dad's Playmate is feeling fine again—Thanks to the Telephone!

An actual incident told to us by one of our customers, showing how one telephone call may be worth more than telephone service costs in a lifetime.

TEN o'clock on a cold winter night—a baby choking. Alone but for his mother—and a telephone.

It is a simple story this mother tells . . . how her frantic cry for help over the telephone brought a doctor in time to save "Baby's" life. But there is a world of feeling back of the words that makes you realize something of what the telephone was worth in this moment of need.

You may think of your telephone as a way to save time and expense . . . It also provides the quickest way to get help in an emergency—it gives you peace of mind.
