E. B. GRAY WRITES ON THE COMING CAMPAIGN

WHAT IS IN STORE FOR THE COLORED MAN IN THE COMING CAMPAIGN

Never in the history of this country has he thought so seriously about dividing his votes between the two National parties. Seventy years is a long look into the past, but in another way the time is short. In that day the colored man looked to the Republican party for every good he hoped to attain, but today the Democratic party is making a bid for the colored man's vote, and in some measure is getting it. This is a sober thought of great moment in the lives of our people. Never has this challenging of votes reached the importance that it has today. Each party is being questioned and just now when we are in the very center of a national and local campaign, we find ourselves trying to sum up some of the important issues.

TENN. LILY WHITES WITHDRAW

Memphis, (CNS) The lily white contestants for places upon the Republican State Committee withdrew the names of their four candidates Friday leaving the way clear for the members of the regular organization to complete the naming of the State executive committee from its membership.

No reason was given for this withdrawal by the lily whites headed by Mrs. C. Arthur Bruce, save that they felt they could not get a square deal under the present conditions. It was intimated that they would try other methods of breaking the hold on the "black and tan" organization in Tennessee.

While the candidates for the executive committee representing the Church faction have not been named it is generally understood that R. R. Church, Memphis leader, and Mrs. Arthur Brodie, national committee woman will be members of the committee, with other posts allotted to either C. H. King, present State committee man, or Joe Marks, chairman of the Shelby County executive committee.

Stray Bullet Strikes Child

Two Holdups in Rapid Succession in Kansas City, Kansas

Kansas City, Kans.—Little five year old Harold Stephenson, 910 Walker avenue, Kansas City, Kansas, was struck by the bullet fired from the revolver of a bandit, Saturday night at the corner of Fifth street and Minnesota avenue, as he stood with his mother, Mrs. Carrie Stephenson, waiting for a street car. The bandit had just robbed the Wyandotte Cigar store, 500 Minnesota.

Gets Cash and Flees

About 8:30 o'clock the bandit, a white man, walked into the cigar store and pulled a 45 calibre automatic on the proprietor, Sam Karas, 1517 Minnesota avenue and obtained $100 and fled. As the bandit departed, Karas grasped his revolver and pursued. He hesitated to shoot, he said, because of the large crowd near the intersection. He did shoot however, and the bandit fell or threw himself prone on the street. After Karas' second shot, the bandit fired four or five times in return, from Fifth street, one of the bullets striking little Harold.

Boy Sent To Hospital The child was rushed to the Douglass hospital in a police ambulance. His wound, however was reported not serious. He was the only one struck.

The bandit ran to State avenue and made his escape in a car. It is said that the police were able to get a description of the car and the license number.

Second Hold-up

The second hold-up of the night occurred at the Glen Holm Grocery store, 1106 North Seventh street, shortly after the one on Minnesota avenue. Two Negroes entered the store armed with revolvers and announced they intended to stage a hold up. One of the bandits "covered" the people in the store, while the other made an unsuccessful attempt to open the cash drawer. He also overlooked a bag with the day's receipts that was lying near the register. They both backed out of the store without taking anything.

Leaves Wounded Man on Sidewalk Escapes in Taxi; Both Shot In Altercation

Kansas City Mo.,—Howard Whitworth, 38, 2322 Brooklyn, a chauffeur for R. A. Roberts, 5433 Missouri Drive, was shot and fatally wounded last Thursday evening by his former common-law wife, Sarah Toran, who is also known as Sarah Whitworth, in front of 2210 E. 25th St.

Whitworth was visiting at the Twenty-fifth street address and his car, a new Chevrolet, was parked outside.

Waits in Man's Car

Evidently the woman saw the empty car and decided to wait for him. There were no witnesses, however it is thought that the couple engaged in an argument.

Whitworth made a deathbed statement saying that when he walked up to the car the woman said that she was going to kill him and drew a 38 calibre Colt automatic. He attempted to wrest the pistol from her and was shot in the left leg and left side, the shot piercing his intestines. The woman was also wounded.

Leaves Victim on Sidewalk

Whitworth fell to the sidewalk after he was wounded and the woman hailed a passing Taxi and went to 1226 Paseo to the home of Mrs. Williams. She was found later and carried to the hospital in order that her wounds might be treated. She is still there under the care of the doctor. Her wounds are said to be slight and she will recover.

People in the vicinity attracted by the sounds of the shots rushed to the scene to find the man writhing in agony on the street. He was rushed to the hospital where he died the next day.

Couple Lived Together

It is said that Whitworth's real name is Elmer Williams and was changed because of some trouble he had been in some time ago. He and the Toran woman had lived together for about ten years. They separated January of 1931. He stated before he died that he had not seen her for over two months. It is said that the only reason that could be given for her attack upon him was jealousy, as she had accused him of leaving her for another woman.
