LINCOLN NEWS

Loretta Swannigan, Reporter
2410 Holdredge

After one of the most active months of the year for entertaining, Lincoln society has settled down for a brief rest as September ushers in the time for school season; and the many popular visitors that have been in the city vacationing are leaving for their respective homes. August, the best month of the year will long be remembered by all.

Miss Anita Miller, popular school teacher of Phoenix, Arizona, who has been spending her summer vacation with her mother, Mrs. P. Miller, has returned to her school.

Miss Belva Spicer, another popular school teacher who has been spending her summer with her mother in the city returned to her school at Kansas City, Kansas.

Miss Frieda Cooley, who has been the summer guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. Copeland, has returned to her home and school at Kansas City, Missouri. Mrs. Doris Young, a very charming visitor from Pottsburg, Mo., who was the guest of her sister-in-law Mrs. Guy Wiley, has also returned home. Mr. Millard Woods, and Brother Delmar, who have been in Minnesota all summer have arrived home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dean, after a ten day visit in Minnesota, the guest of their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Arms, have returned, accompanied by little Miss Patsy Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dean.

Entertaining at a series of attractive parties for the many summer visitors, Mrs. Richard Houston gave a foursome one afternoon followed by a beautiful afternoon tea, and later on assisted by Mrs. Mayme Todd; one of the most brilliant evening parties of the season when she acted as hostess to sixteen ladies; Poor men! hobbles had to stay at home. Progressive Bridge was played. Mrs. Edna Page winning the first prize, and Ada Holmes, the second.

Mrs. Houston's house was beautifully decorated throughout with beautiful flowers and the hostess served a most appetizing luncheon to her guests Society will long remember Mrs. Houston's party. Out of town guests to the foursome were Miss Belva Spicer, of Kansas City, Kansas.

Guests of the afternoon tea, were Mrs. Doris Young, of Plattsburg, Mo.; Mrs. Florence Blooh, of Memphis, Tenn.; Miss Anita Miller, of Phoenix, Arizona, and for her evening party, the out of town guests list included Mrs. Blooh, Miss Spicer, Miss Miller and Miss Cooley.

Mrs. Woods and Johnson's Luncheon Honoring their house guest, Miss Catherine Moore, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, Mrs. William Woods and her sister Mrs. Cicero Johnson, entertained at one of the most elaborate luncheons ever given in Lincoln at the beautiful residence of Mrs. Cicero Johnson. After lunch bridge was played; Mrs. Frank Swannigan, winning first prize, and Mrs. Page second. The Johnson home was beautifully decorated with garden flowers and some very beautiful gowns were worn by milady. Mrs. Raymond Holcomb, was beautiful in red georgette; Mrs. Young wore black chiffon velvet; Miss Belva Spicer was very beautiful in flowered chiffon; Miss Cooley was charming in yellow crepe; Miss Miller wore a beautiful black velvet; Mrs. Catherine Moore, was lovely indeed in the new fall brown crepe with matching accessories.

Mrs. Millard Woods' gown of flowered silk chiffon only added to her loveliness. Mrs. Blooh was very dainty in white lace. Mrs. Copeland who is called the best dressed woman in Lincoln was very charming in a black and white creation, as was also Mrs. Walterette Young. Mrs. Page wore a beautiful white satin gown with a red jacket, and Mrs. Swannigan wore pale blue satin with matching accessories. Out of town guests were Miss Miller; Miss Spicer; Mrs. Doris Young; Mrs. Catherine Moore; Mrs. Cooley and Mrs. Blooh.

Mrs. John Galbreath entertained at a series of parties for the out of town visitors at her beautiful home, including a dinner for Miss Cooley; an afternoon party and a lovely bridge breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Williams had as dinner guests Mr. Harry Hill, formerly of Lincoln, but who makes his home in Denver, Colorado now, Mr. and Mrs. T. James and Mrs. Preston, of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swannigan, had as their guests for dinner Mrs. Walter Seals, of Omaha, Miss Eloise Grant, and Miss Shrup; popular school teacher of Kansas City; also Mr. Percy Holmes of Omaha. Mrs. Swannigan took her guests on a sight seeing trip including a visit to the State capitol; State Hospital; Reformatory; and the Penitentiary.

Mr. and Mrs. Copeland Entertains
One of the largest parties ever given in Lincoln and one of the most beautiful this reporter ever had the pleasure of attending, was given by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Copeland in honor of their house guest, Miss Frieda Cooley, popular school teacher of Kansas City, Mo. Serving at small tables, each centered with individual roses and beautiful in its dazzling glassware of rose green, orchid and blue, Mrs. Copeland served one of the most elaborate luncheons ever witnessed. Progressive bridge was played with the highest honor going to Mrs. A. L. Hawkins of Omaha and the lowest to Miss Belva Spicer of Kansas City, Kansas. Miss Cooley was given the guest prize. Out of town guests were Mrs. Florence Blooh; Miss Anita Miller; Mrs. Doris Young; Miss Cooley; Mr. Harry Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Millard Woods; Miss Belva Spicer. The honored guests were Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Hawkins; and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis, of Omaha. Mrs. Hawkins was queenly in a lovely black lace gown; and Mrs. Lewis was her own self in a beautiful white lace gown.

Mrs. Copeland's parties are very much sought after for one always knows they are grand.

To bring the finish to a glorious month of entertaining, Mrs. James Dean in that charming way of which no one else can imitate entertained at a beautiful arranged bridge luncheon at her home on Rose Ave. Mrs. Dean's home is the show place of Lincoln. The guests were seated at small tables after luncheon bridge was played, Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Johnson and Mrs. Moore motored to Omaha last Sunday. The Naughty Twelve a distinctive social club composed of the leaders of the Lincoln social set will give a Haloween dance.

"Maxie Miller Writes"

PUPPY LOVE—THE WAY OF A MAID WITH A MAN.

(For advice, write to Maxie Miller, care of Literary Service Bureau, 516 Minnesota, Kansas City, Kansas. For personal reply, send self-addressed, stamped envelope.)
(The Literary Service Bureau)

Dear Maxie Miller: I want you to publish this letter and your reply, please. I am a girl of 19, I am going to school and will graduate next May 1933. I am in love with one of my schoolmates. He has asked me several times could he visit his home, and I refused to give it to him, he asked me to give him, my house number, I refused to do so. I am trying to keep him from knowing that I care for him. All while we are in class he just watches me and one day I was talking with another boy he called me away from him. Maxie, he is very handsome but he doesn't think he is a sheik. He always acts quiet and is very polite. He does not act like other boys who have his splendid opportunity. If he should ask me to marry him do you think I should accept his offer? Must I give him my house number so he can call to see me? Or must I try to forget him? Please advise me.—Baby Eyed Baby D.

Brown Eyed Baby D: You are a and want him but refuse to accept any regular little baby if you love this boy of his moves toward friendliness. Since he is such a nice young man, I would certainly give my house number and permission to call the very next time he asked me. I would treat him kindly, just the same as I did the other boys, but would certainly stop "picking" on him. Why accept the favor of the gods as such a nice young man must certainly be a gift from above. Let the marriage question rest a while, do not cross your bridges before you come to them.—Maxie Miller.

THOSE HUSBANDS OF OURS

By "Madam X"
Company Without Warning
(Next week: "Some Wives and Others" by "Mr. X").
(The Literary Service Bureau)

Not long ago a woman told of one of her husband's antics. Under the influence of drink, he attended a religious gathering and invited the entire body to take breakfast with him, the next morning. He was sleeping off his jag, the next morning, and his wife had the embarrassment of trying to supply breakfast for forty persons, tho she knew nothing of it until the guests began to arrive.

Of course this was an extreme case, but there are husbands who often meet friends and say "Come go home and have dinner with me." It might be the proverbial "wash day," or the wife may have a special engagement. But whatever the circumstances a man does injustice to and works a hardship on his wife when he does such a thoughtless thing. I am sure all my sisters will agree with me.
