"Maxie Miller Writes"

Girl Seventeen, Wants To Marry— Wants To Escape Unpleasant Conditions At Home

(For advice, write to Maxie Miller, care of Literary Service Bureau, 516 Minnesota, Kansas City, Kansas. For personal reply send self-addressed, stamped envelope.)

(The Literary Service Bureau)
Maxie Miller: I am in love with a man 22 and I am 17. He wants me to marry him and says that he will take care of me. He says he loves me and I love him. I do not have the privilege of accepting any boy's company whatever, no more than away from home. I have been to high school only two years and there seems to be no chance whatever for me to go to high school any more. I think I shall marry him. What would you do?—Wondering Gertrude.
Wondering Gertrude: Yours is indeed a very serious case for a mistake might ruin your life. Are you sure that it is absolutely impossible for you to go to school any longer? It would be wise for you to work a year or so, save your money and then finish your high school education. That is a necessity in this age, not a luxury as it was once considered. Are you certain you love the young man? Are you positive that he is not a convenience, a way of escape from the unpleasant condition at home? Upon your answers to these questions depends the solution of your problem. If you cannot finish school, if you love the boy, then marriage would be the answer. But do not marry just for the convenience and protection it affords, be sure that real, true, honest-goodness love is present.—Maxie Miller.

DOG IN MANGER

She Doesn't Want Husband But Will Make It Hot For Anyone That Does.

(For advice, write to Maxie Miller, care of Literary Service Bureau, 516 Minnesota, Kansas City, Kansas. For personal reply send self-addressed, stamped envelope.)

(The Literary Service Bureau)
Maxie Miller: I am not a flapper, but I need advice. I am a woman well up in years. I have lost interest in and desire for association with my husband, in the intimate way—you understand. He is older than I am, but he has not reached that state in life where he has lost interest, as I have. He will not insist; and he is not unkind; but, he insists that, under the circumstances I have no right to complain if he should seek association elsewhere. I tell him he is wrong, and that I'll make it mighty hot for any woman who has anything to do with him. Now, who is right?—Unfortunate Wife.
Unfortunate Wife: You are unfortunate in more ways than one. Your "condition" is nothing unusual; it is the natural way; nature is asserting herself in a helpful way; but you seem rebellious. You should make effort to meet certain demands and explain to your husband fully.

Of course, it would be wrong for your husband, or any other husband to be intimate with another woman than his wife. There is no way to make it right. But, under the circumstances, if you refuse to make any effort, you should reconcile yourself to the inevitable and not seek to humiliate and disgrace him if you suspect some other woman is attracting him. If I were not afraid of being misunderstood I'd say, don't play "dog in the manger".—Maxie Miller.

Youthful Strength

Dr. Magnus Hirschfeld, the world-known authority on Sexology and Director of the Institute for Sexual Science of Berlin, Germany, created to help the millions of men and women who have lost or are losing their vital physical power. In his 35 years of practice and research, however, he realized that the weakening of man's glands was also responsible for other troubles: High blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, physical exhaustion after work or exercise, dizziness, depression, neurasthenia, etc.

All these troubles can be removed with Titus-Pearls. Numerous cases were treated by Dr. Hirschfeld in his Berlin Institute. L. S. (State Official; 60 years old, married) complained of physical exhaustion, dizziness and tremors. Was easily tired. Mental power dull and slow moving. Physical powers had been incomplete for previous 5 years. Blood pressure too high. Given 2 Titus-Pearls 3 times a day. 2 weeks later the medical report on this man was:— general health better, more vigor; dizziness much less and returning of power. Treatment continued and 2 weeks later L. S. reported again, this time to say that all weariness and exhaustion had gone; he felt fresh and buoyant. His blood pressure had fallen, and at 60 years of age he had regained the physical power and virility that he had known in the prime of his life.
Start regaining your youthfulness now! To-day! In 2 weeks time you will be aware of the new, virile force within you. Send $5.00 (cash registered or money-order) for 2 weeks treatment. C. O. D. Orders accepted. Write for Booklet.
