SUBMITTING THE PROOF:

In my release that appeared last week concerning the advisability of waging a campaign to place a Negro paper in every home in America, I mentioned, indirectly, the benefits that I had personally secured by sending, with my compliments, Negro publications to influential members of the white race who, otherwise, were not in the habit of following our press each week.

Since I wrote and mailed the release referred to I have received a letter from one of the many persons whom I had in mind, on paragraph of which I shall quote:

"A man who has been confined in prison for the number of years you have and who takes advantage of the situation in the spirit you have accepted your confinement, and in that time keeps clean and devotes the time to regaining one's own self-respect and the respect of others, deserves recognition from those outside and only a kinder feeling."

Many years ago the man whom I have quoted was the business manager of a department that employed thousands of men, of whom I was one. Unfortunately, I did not make the best of my opportunities and I rapidly slid down hill. Eventually, I was at the bottom of the social scale, in prison, and the man, Frank D. Fitzgerald, became secretary of state in Michigan, the office he now holds and for which he is seeking re-election (November 8th) on the republican ticket.

I felt too ashamed to contact those who personally knew my many weaknesses but when I attempted my "come-back" through the Negro press I did want my former acquaintances to follow me and to realize that I was sincere and conscientious in my efforts. Therefore, I had Negro publications, to which I contributed, sent to these influential persons, at my own expense, with the result that the very persons who had the most reason to despise me are among my greatest boosters and the good-will value of this contact is priceless.

The circumstances in this particular case of Mr. Fitzgerald are cited purely as a clincher to my argument of last week, coming as it does within just a few days after the release was written, and convincingly proving the personal benefits that I have gained merely by having our papers read by responsible members of the other race.

This should leave no doubt then of the unlimited gain that can be achieved by the entire race if the right sort of campaign is waged to place a Negro paper in every home in America. And if I were free to accept it, I would want no better job, on a commission basis, than the one of contacting and interesting white readers in our own race publications. The opportunity is there for others, however, and should be wisely acted upon.

Again, I repeat: "A Negro Paper in Every Home in America."

GOVERNMENT STAR WITNESS IN LIQUOR CONSPIRACY

Judge Ben Baker and Tom Crawford under the instruction of my political enemies may have started the act of framing me, pitiful to say but true, a number of my own people were the largest actors on the scenes of persecuting me, for the stand I have taken in Omaha since the Court House Riot. Purposely this warrant was instructed to be procured Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, but no attempt was made by the officers for my arrest until all the judges were off the bench, and the City Hall and Court House closed.

Strange but true, the two Negro police officers that had the warrant, searched every Church and every home Saturday, Sunday and Sunday night, for the sole purpose of humiliating me by putting me in jail on a charge these police officers knew were false. But true to Mr. Dennison's old saying these police officers were picked for persecuting people who desired to live right in the community; and not apprehend criminals and they couldn't track an elephant in 2 feet of snow. Without hiding or dodging, I was in Omaha from Saturday until Monday morning at 10 o'clock and saw the officers several times in their search for me. Many of my friends said to me "Galloway the truth will never be known, and you will always be condemned." God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform. On Monday morning following the issue of the warrant, Mr. Wead and I, walked into the County Attorney's office. On entering the office, Mr. Wead said "Galloway, I'll go your bond if it's $50,000." He then said to County Attorney Beal, "What's Galloway's bond?" Beal said "His bond is $2,000." Mr. Wead said "Why don't you cut that bond?" You know Galloway won't run away." Mr. Beal re-

Omaha Guide Starts Route Delivery Nov. 5th

CIRCULATION DEPARTMENT ENLARGED

10 Newsboys Employed
Are you a subscriber to the Omaha Guide? If not you may become by subscribing to our 5c week plan, delivered to your door every Saturday morning. This change is being made in order to give more employment to our own group, increase circulation, prompt delivery and to give many a chance, who are desirous, to read the paper, subscribe under the present plan. We have now four young women in the district to take your subscription on 5c week basis. Miss Cuma Watson, Alice Jones, Inez Battles and Vera Chandler. These young women are all High School and College graduates who have been unable to find employment. The Omaha Guide hopes to enlarge the circulation department so these young women and others may be given steady and dignified employment. Beginning Nov. 5, we have employed 10 newsboys who will deliver your paper every Saturday morning. These boys will be given a district and you will have the same boy each week. Your newsboy will be glad to take your news item for the paper. We want all the news of the community. We want to put the Omaha Guide in the home of every Negro in Omaha. We want to make jobs for our boys and girls. You can help by giving your subscription on the 5c week plan to these young ladies as they call to your home.

Ladies Auxiliary of U. M. M. C. Gives Halloween Party

One of the most brilliant parties of the fall season will be given Halloween night, Oct. 31, at 2213 Lake St., headquarters of the Unemployed Married Men's Council by the Ladies Auxiliary of which Mrs. Evelyn Handy is Chairman. Great preparations are being made for your entertainment all for 10c. This party is given under the auspices of the Ladies Sewing department. The best Halloween "Eats" will be cooked and served from their own kitchen. Come out and help the Unemployed Married Men's Council, Local B, take care of their needy this winter and have a "Spooky" time.

L. J. Coleman was held in jail 4 days on an investigation charge. Coleman was found not guilty.

Wichita, Kansas, (LSB)—"A mighty shaking; almost an earthquake" would not be too strong an expression to use in describing the culmination of the work of the Kansas-Nebraska Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, which conference just closed its 57th session, at Wichita, Kansas.

Reading the result of the assignment of ministers, a superstitious person might see indications of juggling; one might be inclined to think there had been a process of tossing pennies and saying "heads or tails;" another might see in the results some thing like "grab bag" operation. But the whole thing is a part of a well designed plan on the part of Bishop John A. Gregg to follow the line of ministerial itinerancy one of the most helpful processes of Methodism.

VIRGINIA RACE FINANCIAL INSTITUTION MAKES REMARK'BLE SHOWING IN SPITE OF "DEPRESSION"

Richmond, Va., (CNS) According to the condensed statement of the financial condition of the Consolidated Bank and Trust Company of this city one of the several Negro financial institutions in the State, the institution has made a remarkable showing in spite of the "depression." The statement was released as of close of business on September 30, 1932, and at that time the institution had cash on hand and due from other banks amounting to more than $42,000. The total deposits figured at that time above the $500,000 mark. The statement also showed that there was on reserve for taxes, accrued interest on deposits, and contingencies more than $5,000. The total resources of the institution are over $700,000.

Mr. Emmett C. Burke, cashier of the Consolidated Institution, has been managing the affairs of the bank ever since the three banks, the Second Street Savings Bank, St. Luke's Savings and th Farmers' and Merchants Bank, consolidated several years ago.

To the Colored People of Omaha

(by John Benjamin Horton)

We call attention to the fact that Judge W. G. Hastings, having shown impartiality in his dealings with cases affecting the colored people, as well as all people, is now up for re-election and we all should give our undivided support to him. I call attention to his record herewith from Who's Who in America:

Graduate of University of Chicago, LL.D. Admitted to bar, served in Nebraska Senate, prosecuting attorney in Saline County, Nebraska, District Judge 7th Judicial District, Supreme Court Commissioner, Dean of University of Nebraska Law School (Resigned in 1920); Acting Chancellor of University of Nebraska in 1918; Judge 4th Judicial District, Omaha, re-elected in 1924; Member from Nebraska on Uniform State Laws; member American Bar Association, Nebraska State Bar Association, Author of the Development of Law as Illustrated by the Decisions upon Police Power; was awarded American Philosophical Society prize of $2,000, for a prize essay; translator from the Russian of Korkunov's General Theory of Law; resides at 1116 North 41st St., Omaha.

Judging from Judge Hastings' most wonderful record of achievement in these various lines of civic and legal accomplishments he should be given your whole-hearted support. LET'S RE-ELECT JUDGE HASTINGS!

"Greatest Negro Political Revolt" Predicted by N. A. A. C. P.

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 17.—"The greatest political revolt among Negroes that has ever been known in a national election" was predicted for November by Walter White, Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People who Sunday afternoon addressed the Association's Indiana State Conference here.

Making it clear that the "intelligent Negro voter has but little hope in the Democratic party," Mr. White assailed the Hoover Administration's indifference and hostility to Negroes in America as evidenced by the nomination of Parker to the U. S. Supreme Court; the jimmie-crowding of Negro Gold Star mothers on the pilgrimage to European battlefields; the catering to lily-white elements in the South; the peonage and slavery conditions prevailing under government contracts on the Mississippi Flood control project and the apparent determination of the War Department to "whitewash" the charges made; and the "apparent unwillingness" of the government to prevent color discrimination on federal relief projects.

"The Negro as a minority group," said Mr. White, "feels that his only hope under the present form of government is in the prevention of a monopoly upon elections by any one party—Republican, Democratic or any other."
