WHAT MAKES A MAN?

by R. A. Adams
(The Literary Service Bureau)

'Tis not the clothes a man may wear,
'Tis not the texture of his hair,
Nor yet the color of his skin,
By which he eminence may win;
Not one nor all of these e'er can
Decide the worthiness of a man.

'Tis not by rank nor high estate
A man should be accounted great,
Nor can his worth be fully known,
By wisdom's measurement, alone;
For, spite of honor these may bring,
True worth must boast a higher thing.

To be a man, in word and deed,
To meet the world's supremest need,
Exalted soul one must possess,
As measure of true worthiness;
For this alone is, verily,
The standard of nobility.

High School Principal Loves Pupil and Wants to Marry Her—Dangerous Experiment—Seldom Ever Ends Well, but Love May Stand the Test

(for advice, write to Maxie Miller, care of The Literary Service Bureau, 516 Minnesota Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas. For personal reply, send self-addressed, stamped envelope.)
(The Literary Service Bureau)

MAXIE MILLER: I am 18 years old and a senior in high school. The principal of the school is in love with me and wants me to marry him. I am afraid because I am not his equal, and he might get to be ashamed of me and tired of me. We have a college here and he says I may go through college and he will help me, but he just doesn't want to wait till then to get married. I love him, and I'd like to beat the other girls, too. My father will not object, but he says it is a dangerous experiment, and that such cases never end well. What do you think? I hate to miss this good chance.—Betty Jane.

BETTY JANE: Your father is right. It is a dangerous experiment. You'll be unequally yoked." The dangers you mention are real, but love may stand the test. As to school motherhood may interfere, but if you are courageous and patient it can be done. Talk the matter over with your principal. Have him discuss it with your father. Go over the matter from various angles. If you are convinced that he is sincere, marry him and make yourself fit, by the means he suggests.—Maxie Miller.

SOUTHERN PAPER CLAIMS CHESTNUT AS N. CAROLINIAN

New York City, (CNS)—The Raleigh (N. C.) News and Observer, Joseph Daniels, newspaper, makes editorial comment on the death of Charles W. Chestnut, a Northern born Negro author as follows:

"Charles W. Chestnut, the Negro novelist who died in Cleveland on was one of the first North Carolinians of either race to make a National name for himself in the field of letters.

"Few North Carolinians remember him today. Indeed, his fame as a writer had diminished in the latter years of his life for the good reason that since 1905 he had not produced a book, although his best-known novel, 'The Conjure Woman' was reprinted in 1929.

"Chestnut was born in Ohio but he may properly be classed as a North Carolina writer since the formative years of his youth and young manhood were spent in this State. He came to North Carolina as a boy of eight. He grew to maturity here and was for nine years a teacher in the Negro State Normal School at Fayetteville when he was 23 years old.

"Most of his novels were written after he left the State, but the scene of several of them, including 'The Conjure Woman' and 'The House Behind the Cedars,' was laid in North Carolina. Chestnut's work holds important place in the Meagre literature of North Carolina."

Youthful Strength
Dr. Magnus Hirschfeld, the world-known authority on Sexology and Director of the Institute for Sexual Science of Berlin, Germany, created to help the millions of men and women who have lost or are losing their vital physical power. In his 35 years of practice and research, however, he realized that the weakening of man's glands was also responsible for other troubles: High blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, physical exhaustion after work or exercise, dizziness, depression, neurasthenia, etc.
TITUS-PEARLS
All these troubles can be removed with Titus-Pearls. Numerous cases were treated by Dr. Hirschfeld in his Berlin Institute. L. S. (State Official); 60 years old, married) complained of physical exhaustion, dizziness and tremors. Was easily tired. Mental power dull and slow moving. Physical powers had been incomplete for previous 5 years. Blood pressure too high. Given 2 Titus-Pearls 3 times a day, 2 weeks later the medical report on this man was:— general health better, more vigor; dizziness much less and returning of power. Treatment continued and 2 weeks later L. S. reported again, this time to say that all weariness and exhaustion had gone; he felt fresh and buoyant. His blood pressure had fallen, and at 60 years of age he had regained the physical power and virility that he had known in the prime of his life.
Start regaining your youthfulness now! To-day! In 2 weeks time you will be aware of the new, virile force within you. Send $5.00 (cash registered or money-order) for 2 weeks treatment. C. O. D. Orders accepted. Write for Booklet.
