

SENTENCE SERMONS
Whether one should whistle or not depends somewhat on whether some one wants to hear him or not.

That reason does not govern love is an assumption eagerly made by those who want to be foolish.

SENTENCE SERMONS
Starving one's self to be graceful makes the face haggard and homely.

People who are rather proud of their sensitized feelings, don't seem to realize that they are imposing on others with their touchiness. Another form of selfishness.

"THE FALL OF EVE"
by Arthur H. Crain
(Christopher Publishing House, 1140 Columbus Avenue, Boston, Mass.)

Perhaps I can best express my thoughts on this little book by describing a true story in connection therewith. A few evenings ago I was mentally and physically tired. During the day everything seemed to have gone wrong. Solace could not be found in reading the papers for everything seemed tragic—wars, rumors of war; murders; attempt to murder; slander and libel; crime in all its varieties; greed; lust; and envy. All these things, and more, the papers were full of. No, solace could not be found by reading the papers.

For six months, "The Fall of Eve" had been on my bookshelf, unread. The title intrigued me and wanting my thoughts diverted I eagerly picked it up and read it through.

Between the covers of this little book the author has described all evil temptation, all misery, and their antithesis—goodness, faith, love and happiness—from the time that the serpent tempted Eve in the garden of Eden, on down through the ages of troubled existence.

You, too, will find solace in this little book. Your troubles will seem to vanish as you read of the riddle of life, and faith and love lead the way, bringing happiness to you and yours.

"REVEALING" YOUR PAST PRESENT FUTURE

by Abbe' Wallace
"YOUNGEST MENTALIST ON THE AMERICAN STAGE"

J. F. R.—Will my husband stop his drinking and realize he has got to die? Why don't he want to go to Church?
Ans: I believe your husband is a confirmed Atheist. I am afraid he will never return to his church. He doesn't believe in it and I am sorry to say that he never will. He is too fond of his liquor to stop now.

L. W.—How long will I be in this condition and will I make the trip this summer?
Ans: You will be in your present condition from two to five months. Just as you have been told, I suggest that you be very careful and take no chances. You will visit in the north some time this year.

A. L. G.—Will you please tell me where is my stocking. I can't find it nowhere.
Ans: Another lady has your stocking. I don't believe you will ever get it back. She is wearing it everyday.

H. D. G.—Is it safe to insure my mother in this certain insurance company?
Ans: I believe you can find a better insurance company right here in your own town to do business with. I don't believe it is good policy to put much faith in this other insurance. Do your business in your own home town.

S. L.—There is three men say they love me. One age 63, one 51, and one 39. Please tell me if I will marry either one of them?
Ans: Youth will win. I am afraid the old timers will lose out. It is just as well because you wouldn't be satisfied with any of these boys as you will marry a young man of your own age.

G. J.—I am connecting my wife with a dark skinned man not very tall weighing about 145 or 150 pounds.

Has anything existed between these two, now or any time previous?
Ans: This time you are right. If you will come next Friday afternoon about 2:30 p. m. you will see a very interesting sight. Don't try any rough stuff for this boy is a tough customer.

W. W. F.—I am in love with a woman who has other admirers. I want to know whether or not I am her preference?
Ans: The man that your lady friend is in love with is a professional man. He has won her heart.

M. E. L.—Where is it that my husband goes all the time? Why is it I don't seem to attract any other men's attentions?
Ans: Don't worry about your husband, he is alright. He don't fool around with other women. You are attractive to other men but at the same time they respect you too much to make any advances.

F. P. D.—How long before I go back to Chicago?
Ans: You will be in "Chi" this year.

A. M. C.—Can you tell me where my eye glasses are?
Ans: They are in your grey suit, that you let your brother-in-law take. He has them over at his house now. Go by and get them.

B. B. W.—Mr. Abbe, Oh, please tell me what this ailment is in my neck?
Ans: It seems to me that you are suffering from a goiter. An operation will be necessary before you regain complete health.

"A SURVEY OF NEGRO NEWS PAPERS IN THE UNITED STATES"
by George James Fleming

Unlike the many other books I have been commenting upon for the last two and a half years, "A Survey of Negro Newspapers in the United States" is not yet in print. So far as I know there are but two manuscripts in existence. The copy loaned to me, for perusal, contains 108 neatly type-written pages; side-stitched; cloth back with board sides. The original copy is on file in the Library of the University of Wisconsin, being a thesis submitted by G. J. Fleming, in 1931, for his degree of Bachelor of Arts in Journalism.

I started compiling data on Mr. Fleming during his school days and at that time expressed a desire to study his completed thesis. A little later on it seemed probable that James A. Jackson (U. S. Dept. of Com.) would undertake the distribution of this thesis for the Negro Newspapers but this plan fell through, so I was informed by Mr. Jackson of curtailment of expenses in his department.

Mr. Fleming very aptly, and analytically, describes the history of Negro journalism, with many bibliographical references, and compares the progress of individual papers, publishers and editors from the year 1827 up to and including 1931. In Mr. Fleming's study it was unfortunate that only a third of the newspapers filled in the questionnaires he sent to them thus preventing him from making a "complete" survey of all Negro newspapers. With a couple of supplementary chapters bringing the survey up to date, Mr. Fleming's survey of Negro Newspapers should be immediately published in book form and distributed by the newspapers, with subsequent yearly supplements, as a subscription premium to readers, and a source of information to advertisers.

Youthful Strength

Dr. Magnus Hirschfeld, the world-known authority on Sexology and Director of the Institute for Sexual Science of Berlin, Germany, created to help the millions of men and women who have lost or are losing their vital physical power. In his 35 years of practice and research, however, he realized that the weakening of man's glands was also responsible for other troubles: High blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, physical exhaustion after work or exercise, dizziness, depression, neurasthenia, etc.

All these troubles can be removed with Titus-Pearls. Numerous cases were treated by Dr. Hirschfeld in his Berlin Institute.

L. S. (State Official; 80 years old, married) complained of physical exhaustion, dizziness and tremors. Was easily tired. Mental power dull and slow moving. Physical powers had been incomplete for previous 5 years. Blood pressure too high. Given 2 Titus-Pearls 3 times a day. 2 weeks later the medical report on this man was:—general health better, more vigor; dizziness much less and returning of power. Treatment continued and 2 weeks later L. S. reported again, this time to say that all weariness and exhaustion had gone; he felt fresh and buoyant. His blood pressure had fallen, and at 80 years of age he had regained the physical power and virility that he had known in the prime of his life.

Start regaining your youthfulness now! To-day! In 2 weeks time you will be aware of the new, virile force within you. Send $5.00 (cash registered or money order) for 2 weeks treatment. C. O. D. Orders accepted. Write for Booklet.
