"O, TEMPORA! O, MORES!"

by R. A. ADAMS (For the Literary Service Bureau) As we view the thoughtless world, Drunken, reckless, dizzy, gay, Amid pleasure's madd'ning whirl, Rushing on its heedless way, Pleasure's cup intent to drain, Even to its very lees, Difficult 'tis to restrain, "O, tempora! O, mores!"

Looking at the surging throng, Playing in life's checkered game, Profit-seeking, rush along, With no sense of guilt, nor shame, As they destiny defy, Thoughtless of dire penalties, Fearful, we're inclined to cry, "O, tempora! O, mores!"

Noting this, behooveth all, Artful measures to contrive, Ere shall come our tragic fall, And with zeal unflinching, strive, Reformation to complete, Let justice the sceptre seize; Then 'twere useless to repeat, "O, tempora! O, mores!"

LOOKING BACK A HOUSE DIVIDED

by Videtta Ish (For the Literary Service Bureau) Bringing up children is a task, It has always been so and will always be so. It is the task of both parents. And it will require the united efforts of parents. Perhaps the most detrimental thing in this work of rearing children is what has been termed "divided family government." My parents were a unit. What one said the other said. There was no appeal from the one to the other. They faced their problems with closed ranks, and the children understood that, too.

THE HAPPY HOUR BRIDGE CLUB

The Happy Hour Bridge Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dorsey, 2843 Binney St., Thursday May 25th. Business transactions were very brief.

Bridge was the main event of the evening. Mrs. N. Jackson and Mr. J. C. Brown receiving prizes for the highest scores.

But the best and most interesting things was the eats, oh boy! Good old fashioned barbecue and all that goes with it.

THE PRIMROSE CLUB

Mrs. Mayberry was hostess to the Primrose Club at her home, 2815 Miami St., Wednesday, May 23rd. An enjoyable time was had. The weekly feature of progressive whist being the main event.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Bradley, 2863 Corby and Mr. Mayberry of Miami.

There will be a picnic at Elmwood next week. P. S. C., reporter.

THE JOYEUX BRIDGE CLUB

With Mr. W. Williams as host, The Joyeux Bridge Club held their last meeting of the season at the residence of his mother, 1121 North 21st St. Plans to entertain the members wives and friends constituted the business program.

The Play Well "Chuck" Southard made a splendid showing for the three quarters, but in the last lap "Blooie Louie" Artison nosed him out of first place. Southard, second, "Doc" Seals, third, Banks, Macey, Hanger, Williams and Scott also ran. The pathetic part of the meeting was when one of our members, who does not eat to live, but lives to eat, sat don't matter what Dad may say Ma will let me do it when he's gone." Sometimes the mother would remark, "Poor children, their father is too strict; they must have some pleasures.

"REVEALING" YOUR PAST PRESENT FUTURE

by Abbe' Wallace
"YOUNGEST MENTALIST ON THE AMERICAN STAGE"

W. E. R.—I am in a quandary and you seem to know why. Under the circumstances what shall I do?

Ans: I suggest that you make your will to your estate. I believe that your family physician would make a good executor.

E. H. R.—I am in trouble. I had rather be dead than to live. Am I bad, I want to be good. It seems as if everyone is against me. I am just down hearted in everything.

Ans: You will benefit most by taking a vacation for a few months. Your present surroundings and environment is enough to drive anyone crazy. I advise a complete rest.

S. P.—Please tell me when I will hear from my baby?

Ans: Your baby is well and healthy. He is in school and the people he is with are good to him. You will hear from him before very long.

E. A.—Will my girl friend make me a good wife? Is I alright on my job?

Ans: I think so, you have lived with her long enough to find out whether you love her enough to marry her. She will make you a god wife. Your job is safe.

D. N.—Will this gentleman which I am planning on going to see help me and give me a break?

Ans: He won't be much help. He is

The boy became a criminal and the girl made serious moral departures. Yes, a divided family government means defeat—and destruction.

the kind of fellow that expects a real stiff price for any favors that he grants. Be careful in your dealings with him.

H. P.—I am in a terrible predicament Mr. Wallace, will you please tell me who took my ring?

Ans: I should say you are in a jam. The fellow whom you were out with last night took the ring and gave it to his sweetheart. You will have a tough time explaining the loss of your wedding band to your husband.

P.—Will I be successful and make money this summer?

Ans: Somewhat, but don't invest too much money in this business that you are planning on entering. Take it easy.

A. E. D.—He thinks more of you now than he will when he finds out about "you know what I mean." I contact him leaving town.

One leaves home in the evening to be diverted—and he is.

Book Review

"DARKWATER"
by W. E. B. DuBois
(Editor, The Crisis, 69 Fifth Avenue New York)

Fortunate indeed was I to purchase this volume last fall when the Crisis was putting on a bargain sale of miscellaneous books for only a dollar apiece.

Recently the learned Dr. W. E. B. DuBois has been much in the limelight. We have been following his speeches in the southern cities, and on one occasion noticed the heckling he received. We also noticed the praises and acclamations from many southern students.

His organization (the NAACP) has also been in the limelight, favorably and unfavorably. His magazine, the Crisis, of which he is editor, has been having considerable controversy over its personnel.

With all these publicized differences es I sought a hearing with the learned Doctor to refresh my mind on his thoughts and his views on pertinent subjects and so, for the second time, I read his "Darkwater". My compliment to the book is that if it is still in print copies should be purchased and donated to the thinking and reading class of whites and I venture to predict that such a donation will do more real good, though subtly and quietly, than a similar amount spent on propagandized publicity efforts; marches; and mental brass bands.

Youthful Strength

Dr. Magnus Hirschfeld, the world-known authority on Sexology and Director of the Institute for Sexual Science of Berlin, Germany, created to help the millions of men and women who have lost or are losing their vital physical power. In his 35 years of practice and research, however, he realized that the weakening of man's glands was also responsible for other troubles: High blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, physical exhaustion after work or exercise, dizziness, depression, neurasthenia, etc.

All these troubles can be removed with Titus-Pearls. Numerous cases were treated by Dr. Hirschfeld in his Berlin Institute.

L. S. (State Official; 60 years old, married) complained of physical exhaustion, dizziness and tremors. Was easily tired. Mental power dull and slow moving. Physical powers had been incomplete for previous 5 years. Blood pressure too high. Given 2 Titus-Pearls 3 times a day 2 weeks later the medical report on this man was:— general health better, more vigor; dizziness much less and returning of power. Treatment continued and 2 weeks later L. S. reported again, this time to say that all weariness and exhaustion had gone; he felt fresh and buoyant. His blood pressure had fallen, and at 60 years of age he had regained the physical power and virility that he had known in the prime of his life.

Start regaining your youthfulness now! To-day! In 2 weeks time you will be aware of the new, virile force within you. Send $5.00 (cash registered or money order) for 2 weeks treatment. C. O. D. Orders accepted. Write for Booklet.
