LEFT TO DIE UNDER WHEELS OF FAST TRAIN

DUNN—Bound to the Atlantic Coast Line railroad tracks by chains around his neck and legs Rev. Will McNeil, 27-year-old preacher was left by a band of masked assailants Tuesday night to be ground to pieces by a speeding train. The man's loud wails and cries for mercy caused someone to telephone police who rescued McNeil two hours before a fast passenger train was scheduled to pass the spot where he had been chained.

Brought to the jail here McNeil told police that he was kidnapped while walking on the street by several colored men who jumped from an automobile. A blanket was thrown over his head after he heard one of his abductors exclaim: "That's him, let's get him!" He was carried to the deserted spot on the railroad tracks and chained. Rev. McNeil, judging by voices, estimated that there were 3 or more men in the kidnapping party. The preacher could advance no possible motive the men would have for taking his life. Police however, have learned that McNeil was not very popular among his people in his community particularly the men. Among the suspects seized for questioning was Allison Fuller identified by McNeil as one of his kidnappers. Fuller denied any part in the plot to have the clergyman crushed by a train.

AFFIRM DECISION

Jackson, Mo. (AP)—With a court announcement that the presentations made by lawyers for Jas. Sandige, convicted of murder, were obviously without merit as to not require specific response, the state Supreme Court Tuesday affirmed the death sentence for Sandige and set the date of execution for July 7. Sandige was convicted of shooting to death Beade Richardson, white, and a child.

At the same time the court ordered a new trial for Willie Bivens, convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of Johnnie Montgomery, ticket taker at a dance.

had been flourished and heated debate had taken place. The story is told that because Hoard became lost on a copper-colored mountain side at the edge of dazzling Royal Gorge, there is a new stream of glittering gold and silver wealth flowing out of South Western Colorado.

For forty seven years Robert Hoard scratched out of the mountains a scant living for himself and wife and their children. A few weeks ago, 'Old Bob', now 61 years old, left his family in Canon City and started toward Westcliffe, hoping to get a grubstake as he'd been doing for years.

He took through the mountains a short cut which led into unfamiliar surroundings. The surface formations of the region caught the prospector's eye, and the more he picked around in the rocks the surer he was that he had found real "pay dirt" at last.

Ignoring hunger, he had brought along only meager provisions, Hoard stayed three days, digging. Satisfied he gathered up bag of ore sample and, half-starved, hurried back to Canon City.

His "find" was verified. "Old Bob" had hit rich gold. His samples assayd $80 a ton or more.

When his discovery became known, the trails to Copper Gulch swarmed with miners, and every foot of ground within several miles of Bob's "hole" was soon staked out. Overnight the gulch became a young Klondike. Miners are camped almost as thick as the pines in the canyon, most of them living in tents, a few crude "lean tos." All day long they drive their shafts, slow and tedious work with only picks bars and sledges to break the ore and bucket windlasses to hoist it to the surface.

There are no roads up the gulch, but Fremont County officials have started to build a wagon road. There is no railroad closer than Parkdale, where the Denver and Rio Grande Western enters the Royal Gorge. To this thirty-mile distant place the miners will truck their ore when the wagon road is finished.

BUSINESS ON UPWARD TREND SAYS KERNS

J. Harvey Kerns, Executive Secretary of the Omaha Urban League, after a recent trip to the east which included, Chicago, Milwaukee, Toledo, and Cleveland, said, "From observations and conferences with heads of organizations, business is on the upward trend." In contrasting eastern cities with Omaha, he said, "Omaha holds an enviable position and persons have little to gain seeking better conditions elsewhere."

"REVEALING" YOUR PAST PRESENT FUTURE by Abbe' Wallace "YOUNGEST MENTALIST ON THE AMERICAN STAGE"

W. M. W.—I have a husband and he is nice to me and he has trust in me but now he don't want to trust me and have not seen nothing of me. Tell me what is the trouble?

Ans: Someone, is giving you away to far with this other fellow. Just remember this sister, that you had your fun all day long they drive their shafts, slow and tedious work with only picks bars and sledges to break the ore and bucket windlasses to hoist it to the surface.

H. P. L.—I would like for you to tell me my lucky days and lucky numbers?

Ans: Your lucky days are Tuesdays and Saturdays and your lucky numbers are 9, 7 and 10. These are your compliment numbers. Your vital number is 4. You will have more success with this combination.

F. L. A.—Who took my leather bag from my car?

Ans: A party by the initials of H. J. He is not the pal that you think him to be. The bag is over at his mother's home at this time. You will get the bag but lose a friend that was not worth having anyway.

X. X.—Does the boy at the store where I work do all the things he says does? Will I visit the fair this year?

Ans: It would take a better man than him to do all the things he claims he does. He is fifty percent facts and fifty percent hot air. You will take a trip this summer but I do not think it will be to Chicago.

G. C. M.—I have been told that I would get a better job in less than another month. Is that true?

Ans: It is. One of your intimate friends will be the means of you securing this job.

X. Y. Z.—Please tell me whether I will get a new boy friend soon and do either C. B. or R. A. love me? Please tell me is there anything to this shivery business.

Ans: Neither boy loves you. One or two new boy friends will enter your life this summer. There is quite bit to this shivery business. You have a lot to learn.

Curly: I want to know if the boy I am going with really wants to marry me?

MOTION PICTURE EXHIBITORS SURPRISED TUESDAY IN COUNCIL CHAMBER

On Tuesday when the Motion Picture Operators Amended Ordinance came up for a vote which was recommended Monday by a committee of the whole unanimously, the exhibitors and parties concerned in the amended Ordinance were quite surprised by the vote of Commissioners John Hopkins, Roy N. Towl, and Harry Trustin. It was said by one exhibitor, "we expected to see Mr. Hopkins vote against our amended Ordinance, for we felt he was somewhat inclined to favor the Union Operators," but the biggest surprise of the vote taken was the vote cast in the negative by Commissioner Roy N. Towl and Commissioner Harry Trustin, both of whom the exhibitors felt would at least stay by the recommendations made by the Committee of the whole Monday July 10. There was some doubt expressed by one exhibitor about Commissioner Trustin voting against the Amended Ordinance, and said that he thought there must have been a mistake in the Clerk's counting the votes for they were positive that Mr. Trustin voted in the affirmative. However the records of the roll call in the city Clerk's office show the following Commissioners Myers, Knudsen, Frost, Hopkins, Butler for the affirmative Mayor or Towl, and Harry Trustin in the negative, thereby leaving the votes standing 5 in the affirmative and 2 in the negative.

On Monday the City Council received and adopted 7 in the affirmative and none in the negative the report from the following Committee Commissioners. Dan Butler, John Hopkins, and Frank Frost, which was appointed by Mayor Towl to hear the grievances from the Motion Picture Operator's Union and their representatives and the Exhibitors and their representatives. This report was recommended to the Council for consideration in its regular meeting Tuesday the report was read and accepted by the City Commissioners, 5 in the affirmative 2 in the Negative. At this same meeting the amended Ordinance was read for the final reading and passage and the roll call showed 5 in the affirmative, one in the negative and one absent, thereby the act of this vote amended Ordinance will become a Law in 15 days.

This Amended Ordinance provides for an examining board of 3 appointed by the City Commissioners, thereby eliminating the former Union Operator, who was president of the examining board, the president of the operators Union, and also the Exhibitor. The new board will be made up as follows: the city electrician, the city engineer, and one fire inspector. We believe this is a move in the right direction for fair play for the applicants in their examination. This law will become effective within 15 days from July 12.

At this time the 2 Negro youths who appealed to the Appeal Board of the City Council following the decision of the Motion Picture Operators Board will carry out a mandate issued by the appeal Board when they appeared before them. They will take the third examination from the new board, and if they are successful in passing the examination they will immediately apply for membership in the Motion Picture Operators' local Union, which they have always expressed a willingness to do. They will not under any circumstances become a scab on Union Labor. For if the local Union refuses them membership they will apply directly to the American Federation of Labor, general of office. This they hope will not be necessary as Omaha is their home. They were born, reared and educated here and feel they will be given a full citizen's consideration by all in this affair.

GERMANY WILL PAY ONLY HALF OF HER DEBTS Economic Crisis Forcing Hitler Govt To Bankruptcy

Berlin, July—Germany will only pay half of her debts to foreign creditors, Hjalmar Schacht, head of the German Reichsbank announced today. Germany will pay foreign capitalists creditors $350,000,000 marks in foreign currency and will keep in her own vaults the other $50,000,000 owing to the foreign capitalist creditors.

This step, which is indicative of the growing financial bankruptcy of the Hitler government, is evidence of the further deepening of the crisis in the world markets. Schacht explained that "If German exports do not obtain freer markets than heretofore, payment of Germany's private debts will become wholly impossible.

But Germany's creditors want to sell to Germany, not to buy her goods. This means that the German financial crisis will undoubtedly get worse, and that the complete non-payment of all German debts will soon become a distinct possibility.

It has been estimated that 50 per cent of Germany's private debts are held by bankers in the United States.

SOVIET PRESS GROWS

Before the war Russia had 850 papers with a circulation of 2,700,000. By 1932 there were 6,700 papers in 83 languages. Many nationalities that hadn't a written language before now have their own press. Last year there were also 1,400 magazines, issued in 390,000,000 copies annually. A third of these were published in the languages of 38 national minorities. Since the revolution 400,000 titles have been published, compared with 250,000 in the whole preceding century under tsarism, and during the past 15 years 5 billion copies of books have been sold.

Capital investments in the printing industry during the First Five Year Plan were $5,800,000 rubles $44,187,000, over 26 per cent above the quota originally set in the plan.

The GAS Refrigerators that were first installed in Omaha homes, years ago, are still delivering low cost refrigeration, day in and day out. Their owners expect them to be working just as well, many years from now.

There's nothing to wear out on a GAS Refrigerator, nothing to replace—no service required except an occasional free inspection by the gas man. That's the secret of its long life.

Naturally, that brings down the cost, for depreciation is counted out.

A lifetime of service—a low operating cost (less than 4¢ a day)—these are the reasons why the GAS Refrigerator is Omaha's cheapest refrigerator.
