Maxie Miller Writes (For The Literary Service Bureau) Husband Smokes Pipe—Wife Is Exasperated—Hobby Is Unjust—Sad Case But Nothing Can Be Done but Reason—Let All Smoking Husbands Consider

MAXIE MILLER: My husband has taken to smoking a pipe. I didn't mind cigarettes and I could make out with cigars, but a pipe is my cup. My husband scents up the whole house with his old pipe. He smokes it in the bathroom and the scent remains there, all the day.

My husband has taken to smoking a pipe. I didn't mind cigarettes and I could make out with cigars, but a pipe is my cup. My husband scents up the whole house with his old pipe. He smokes it in the bathroom and the scent remains there, all the day.

Catherine: You have my sympathy for I too hate a pipe. Once I admired a man who smoked a pipe and yet I refused to associate with him on that account. My advice would be to sit down and quietly but frankly tell your husband how you feel and urge him to give up the pipe.

Young Folks' Town Talk...

We see there is a "New Girl" in town. Some say she is visiting here from K. C. We welcome you to our fair city, and would like to know you better with the permission of Miss Madeline Brown.

You know the one thing that can break a boy around this town is "frosting". Some girls stand for it and some girls don't. Not even from boys that have had a year or two at some too hot "U". Just a word to the wise.

The Cole Sisters went to a Cabaret the other night and took Mrs. Cole with them. An enjoyable time was reported by all present. We don't know whether to say "look out Cole Sisters" or well, what's the use.

What we want to know is, how many boys does it take to take Miss Edrose Willis to and from. We only counted three the other night. We see you are doing well by yourself Edrose.

Remember the little girl that went to Fisk; and do you know the little boy that plays the Piano? Well, they tell me they are that way about each other. The sad part of the whole story is, the little girl is going back to Fisk next month; and the little boy is going to stay here and go to Omaha "U". Now ain't that just to bad.

Hey, everybody! Do you know there is nothing in the whole wide world quite so nice as friendship? Especially when a certain young man goes down to a certain Garage and spend his evenings with another certain young man. Helps him work and everything. Now that is Town Talk.

When Helen Wilks gives a party, Helen Wilks gives a party. So very much so that the Dad finds dead soldiers in the front yard the next morning. Poor Helen, we do hope you can give another sometime tho. Honest we do.

It has been reported that Norman Chandler has departed for points East. Where he will remain for about a month. Most of his time, however, will be spent in Chicago. We wonder why. Cel Smith wouldn't make any difference would she?

I should think it would be a wonderful feeling to sit in the Ross Drug Store and sip Sodas every Sunday morning. Especially when you have the security of knowing they are on the house. This has nothing to do with Tommy however.
