

Town Talk

Is it true that Frank Jackson has a "Crush on Irene Heard? And is it true that Irene makes her way up to Tech every evening after the once said Frank Jackson? And is it—Oh! a lot of things?

Since when did the lovely little Catherine G. go literary on us? They tell us that she is writing Poetry to a certain young man about town. Now just who has Catherine been running around with anyway?

Now we just heard that Christine D. and Leonard H. were making Hay in the moon-shine the other night in front of Zion Baptist church. Why did Leonard stop and start to dancing after the sixth one. Did things get to torrid for you Leonard or can't you take it?

Why should Maxine B. stay away from a party just because she and her heartache were on the outs. What did he do to do with the party anyway? You'll have to learn better than that Maxine.

So Ernie Campbell has gone absolutely "Juvenile at last. Did Nadine do him up as badly as that? Or has his sweet young thing actually got personal charm?

You know kids, we have actually got a "Navarro" among us and didn't know it. Edward A. has so many women he doesn't know what to do with them all or at least he didn't the other night down at the Center. Edward you messed up completely. But of course it wasn't your fault?

Who is the little frail person that lives on Charles St. between 24, 25 Street (near 24th Street) that has such a way with men? You know the type that has all of the men feeling brotherly toward her. Look out sister, you might make some brothers girl-friend angry and that wouldn't be so healthy for someone.

When the Jacques throw a party the Jacques throw a party. You should have been on hand the other evening at the Masonic Hall. Lights, women, and wine. And what an evening! What men; what a club!

Where could have John Elliott been coming from the other evening? And decides to go to a party about twelve o'clock. Refuses to explain his actions too. Is local boy breaking loose? Look out girls he'll be right on you.

Brother Whimpy had a young married lady cornered off at the great Scottsboro meeting the other night. Where was friend husband? Or maybe Whimpy is a friend of the family.

oster Scott was also among those present at the meeting. Why did he leave just at the time he did. It could not have been because the man started to take up collection could it Foster?

It looks like Mary Allen D., has knocked little Helen S., out for the mighty Walter R. Stay right in there Helen and drink plenty of ice water. We're banking on you. She can't win.

Whose afraid of the Big bad Wolf? That's what all of the boys are saying about a certain young girls father and the answer is "I am" ask Clemist, he'll tell you. That's the reason he is minus a hat.

When new girls come in town all the boys are right on them. Eugene S., is an exception. She is a lovely little thing Skinner. We don't blame you.

And how little Dorothy Bell did get off with Guilford at the party Wednesday night. And Ethel wasn't there either. Or would it have made any difference? We wonder?

The Quartette that graced the party given by the Jacques the other evening was a wow. Believe us when we say so. Girls if you weren't there you missed something.

- THINGS WE WOULD DO WITHOUT
1. Emmet James showing the party how hot he is.
2. Junior Love and his everlasting bottle.
3. Clair H., and her alluring gestures.
4. Juanita Y., and her Baby talk.
5. Little Richard telling every girl he sees: "You shore are cute."

PLAY A GAME CORNER

By Junior High School Club Woodson Center We told you a few good games last week, and here are a few more. Apples are hung on rubber strings in a doorway. The rubber strings are not the worst of it. The apples have been given a thin coat of molasses to add zest to this game! Each contestant, with his hands tied behind him, tries to bite one of the apples. As soon as he has been able to get just one bite out of an apple, it is taken down and given to him. He deserves it!

There are never more than 3 or 4 apples hung up. Neither the contestants nor the other guests could stand any more.

Here is another game called "Pin the Apple." Apples are placed in a pan or a tub of water, and contestants spear them with common pins. That is, they try to.
