THE JACQUES CLUB

The Jacques club kicked it out again, this time at the home of Frank A. Jackson, Saturday night. Our host served chicken salad, and ice cream and cake. Everyone had a good time, as they always do at the "Jacques" social affairs. The next social meeting will be held at the home of Wm. King. See you later.

Clementine, Reporter. Walt Rhodes, President

The Jacques recently sent Mrs. Turner, a member's mother, a basket of fruit, expressing their regret and sympathy for her illness. Mrs. Turner, we are glad to learn that you are getting better, and we sincerely hope for a speedy recovery.

BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Ina Bennett entertained her Bridge Club Thursday evening, Nov. 24, at her home, 2880 Maple. All regular members were present. The regular members are Mrs. Mollie Carr, President; Mrs. Sarah Bradley, Treasurer; Mrs. Doreen Holiday, Mrs. Ella Mathews, Mrs. Ina Mayeta Dawson and Mrs. Lucille Hamilton, Reporter. First prize was won by the hostess, Mrs. Pannett. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Sarah Bradley, 2863 Corby.

EUREKA BRIDGE CLUB

The Eureka Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. W. Penn, 30th and Pinkney St. A short business meeting was held, after which a delicious repast was served by our hostesses. The rest of the evening was devoted to bridge. First prize was won by Mrs. Penn, Mr. Atkins, booby, Mrs. M. Payton, Mr. J. Davis. A good time was had by all, everything was lovely. Mrs. J. Davis, President. Mrs. M. Payton, Reporter

CUPID CLUB

The Cupid Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, at 2624 Charles, Thursday night, November 22, 1933. All members were present. A social evening was spent, everyone enjoying themselves. The hostess served a two-course luncheon, which was enjoyed by all. Our next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Watt, at 2412 Decaur. Lloyd Gray, President. Agnes Hawkins, Reporter

CLUB NEWS

ST. BENEDICTS JR. CRUSADERS The President opened the club meeting by saying the "Lords Prayer." A short business meeting followed. There was a final discussion of the Charity Ball. The placards are on display all over town, don't fail to read them. After business meeting, the "Lords Prayer," was repeated and the Crusaders were turned over to Miss Modessa Richards and Miss Guradine McGhee, the hostesses.

Mrs. Grossa and her two charming daughters, Yvonne and Helen Gross were among the visitors for the evening Miss Yvonne Gross was at the piano, she also became a member of the club. Miss Helen Gross did several numbers of tapping and fancy dancing. Everybody enjoyed themselves immensely. The popular Miss Evelyn Gant and Miss Bernice Sanders will be hostesses next week.

LES CHARMANTES

The Les Charmantes met at the home of Miss Ella Mills, with the usual procedure Sunday Nov. 26 at 4:45 p. m. Miss Esthe, Harris, vice president, presided. The committee of management made a splendid report from the chattering and chili supper, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, Nov. 23.

Another call to the delinquent members: Miss Ella Thomas and Miss RRachael Hartje, please be at the call meeting Dec 3 1933 at the home of Miss Roberta Pharr. The president asked all Charmantes to bring a suggestion for another event of the future.

Miss Imogene Johnston, of Lincoln, Nebr., a former member, and Mr. Willie Mills, a prospective member were visitors for the afternoon. We always welcome our visitors. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Roberta Pharr, 2735 Seward St., Dec. 3, 1933.

Chas. Davis—President. Roberta Pharr—Reporter.

MODERN ART CLUB

The Modern Art Club met Monday evening Nov. 20, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Althouse, 2307 No. 22nd Street. The 16 members of the Club were present. We are looking forward to our Christmas Party, which we expect to be an unusual event. The evening was spent sewing, after which we were served a delicious repast by the hostess.

Mrs. Lavida Butler, Pres. Miss Irma Speese, Reporter.

THE JOLLY TWELVE ART CLUB The Jolly Twelve Art Club will remember ten or twelve families, and friends, again this year, with baskets. Beautiful autumn weather this year has lulled us all into forgetfulness of ice and snow. Now Thanksgiving week is here, so we know it must be winter. Fire will crackle in grates and tables will be spread generously for many there won't be, but we hope these baskets that we give to some of the few, will give them a spirit of genuine thankfulness, and spend the day happily together.

The next meeting will be Dec. 1, at the home of Mrs. J. Dotson, 2213 Miami.

Mrs. Geo. Harris, Pres. Mrs. H. Sherwood, Sect. Mrs. W. M. Young, Reporter

GOSSIP COLUMN

A paper, doesn't seem complete unless it has a wee bit of gossip. M. A. that didn't show thought on your part at all, bawling that girl out about V. F. why don't you and C. make up? You two make such a good couple. Did little Ethel's heart flutter when she knew Larry was back in town. Skimp won't stand for that. Gene Murray says his name was never in a gossip column. How does it look, Gene? W. R. and M. E. are getting along fine. Keep it up Walt. It was a great day for Tuxedo fans

FLAPPERETTE CLUB

The Flapperette Club held a business meeting at the residence of Olive Willis, 2708 Maple, Saturday afternoon, November 25.

Elizabeth Black was elected to fill the vacancy of the outgoing President, Mable King. We voted that our club colors were to be blue and white and talked about our plans for the future. A delicious luncheon was served. We also welcomed a new member, Fredricka Hall, and the

SILVER MOON CLUB

The Silver Moon Club met at the home of Miss Ora Lee Britt, 2525 Blondo. The meeting was carried on in the usual manner, after which there was dancing. Delightful refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Daisy Cole.

Mrs. Geo. Harris, Pres. Mrs. H. Sherwood, Sect. Mrs. W. M. Young, Reporter

KATY KOQUETS

The Katy Koquets met at the home of Katherine Gorum. Our old business was discussed and finished. Two of our new members were present, and Miss Freddy Porter, our sponsor attended her first meeting. Our new members and Miss Porter stated they liked the club a lot and were sure our club will live above all others. After these delightful remarks, we were served with an elaborate luncheon by the hostess.

Mable Longmire, President Helen Sherwood, Reporter

FRIENDSHIP CHECKER CLUB

The Friendship Checker Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, Monday Nov. 27. The meeting was called to order by our President Mr. Willie Wardell. The meeting was opened for business and suggestion. We were glad to have seven visitors; of which three became members. After the business part of the meeting was ended, Whist and Checkers were played, and Mr. Payne of Denver, Colo., entertained at the piano. A delicious repast was served by our hostess, Mrs. Smith. The evening was one to be long remember. We welcome all visitors. Our aim is "To be kinder today than yesterday". Willie Wardell, President. Almeda Stokes, Reporter.

Mrs. J. H. Dotson will entertain Wednesday afternoon Dec. 6th at the home of Mrs. F. P. Jones in Ohio street. All members are asked to please be present and on time.

QUACK CLUB MAKE PROTEST

Members of the Quack Club sent a telegram to President Roosevelt protesting against the proposed laundry code for women workers. The Code, the lowest of its kind to be presented sets forth 14 cents an hour for laundry workers. Should the code go through, this would affect 28,000 laundry workers most of whom are Negroes.

Miss Mable Longmire of 2711 Miami St., entertained Mr. William Pressley, Miss Helan Sherwood, and Mr. Robert Gray at dinner Sunday evening, Nov. 19.

SOJOURNER TRUTH STUDY CLUB

The Sojourner Truth Study Club entertained twenty guests, November 25, at the home of Mrs. Ludy Gray, 2802 Ohio, in honor of the birthday of three of the club's members, the Mesdames, Lena Dallas, Mable Fields and Ludy Gray. Each was the recipient of an exquisite glass luncheon set, presented by the club.

The club met this month in the following homes, respectively: Mesdames Dallas, Fields, Frazier and Gray.

THE MODERN PRICILLA ART AND STUDY CLUB

The meeting of the club this week, was at the home of Mrs. Ana Delespin, 2328 N. 25th St.

Every Committee of the club made a report, which revealed many interesting plans for future activities and entertainments. All members are urged to cooperate with the chairman of the charity committee who is making arrangements to fill many baskets for the needy and sick, to be delivered for Christmas. Mrs. Lomax, of 2512 Parker, a very energetic worker, for the club, was reported ill, with a severely sprained ankle, and was unable to attend the meeting, we sincerely hope that her condition will speedily improve, and that on next Tuesday afternoon we will be able to enjoy her very pleasant company and cheery smile at the meeting.

A very interesting feature of the club, is the growth of the recently instituted "Mite Fund," by the sick committee many pennies were donated to this worthy cause, and helped to swell the funds to an appreciable degree.

Mrs. Fowler who heads this plan is grateful for the support received. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. A. W. Anderson, 2521 Blondo. Mrs. Sterling, Chairman of the Art Department will have charge of the activities for the afternoon, and asks that all members bring their contribution to the hope chest as work on this plan will be carried on.

The Pastors' Wives Council held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Bryant in Binney street Wednesday afternoon. The newly elected president, Mrs. McGee presided. Quotations were on Thanksgiving. Plans were discussed for a Christmas party during the holidays when the husbands will be guest, the time and place to be decided later. Eleven ladies were present.

There is competition between the two teams for the bake sale. The Silver Team, Ella Mae Mills, Captain and the Gold Team, Ferwilda Artison captain will vie each other in the matter of sales. Any support that friends may give either of these captains will be appreciated by the Trojan Girls.

SIoux FALLS, SO. DAK. Rev. M. W. Withers, pastor of St. Johns Baptist Church, motored to Fergus Falls, Minn. to fill an appointment Sunday as scheduled.

The Sylvia Dell Club and Comrade Club met in a combined meeting last Thursday Miss L. Smith, Pres. of Girls club and Mr. Morris Coakley, Pres. of the boys club.

The Ladies Aid Society of which Mrs. Harvey Mitchell is President will sponsor a chicken dinner for the public, in the dining room of the church Tuesday.

Mrs. Rosebud Williams, entertainer at the Nu-Way, left the city for an indefinite period.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blackburn were guests at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar, Pendleton.

Mr. Jack Blackburn, trainer, and Athletic Instructor will leave for Fargo, N. D. Tuesday. Mr. Blackburn is training Johnny Stanton, who will fight Sammy Mandell at the coliseum here Dec. 11.

The praise and prayer services, conducted by Deaconess of the church will be held Wednesday.

MITCHELL'S WEEKLY BOOK COMMENT

New York's "Daily" Still Going Strong! Recently, in my "This and That" column, I commented on the non-receipt of the "Daily Citizen", New York's only colored daily and America's second colored daily.

G. James Fleming, City Editor, of the Daily Citizen writes the following letter which in justice to the Daily Citizen I am glad to print herewith in full: "My dear Mr. Mitchell: In your current release, under "This and That" you have broadcasted that you have not been receiving the Daily Citizen since Election Day.

"In order to keep the records straight, I want you to know that both Mr. Kelley and the Daily Citizen are very much in evidence here; and we have not missed an issue. Checking the mailing lists with our Circulation Department, I find that

Town Talk

So Jr. Love isn't showing the boys around in taxis any more, I wonder if it is because he is not at the club any more? Joe, they tell me you aren't going to any more parties or dances because you are going to get married is that a fact? M. E. D. is talking a lot of interest in Walter R. since S. left town. G. K. proves that a boy can go with one girl and flirt with them all. S. M. is attractive, of course, but why have so many boys corner her at once, especially when the big shot is cooled off. Is it true that M. A. W. told V. that he would have to give either M. B. or herself the break? Now V. goes to Tech, so that explains the whole thing. Will the "Quart Squad" please teach their members how to control temper, especially when in public. Shot Riley I should teach you a few lessons in love, and everything for you would be lovely. Will Shot continue to type Guilford. Would it be personal to ask H. W. why she uses such violent language at times. Does L. care for D. B. or someone else? Delmar "dreamy kid" K. isn't getting out to the young folks functions as he used to. The Ritz Cafe is the hangout for all the big shots as the "Doo" C. C. and the milk bottle boys. Notice: W. H. and M. B. have both been on a vacation and now they are starting out fresh again. R. R. entertains clubs and his weaknesses and he certainly shows them that he has influence.
