ST. BENEDICT'S NEWS
Father James A. Daly, Pastor.
Madoline E. Sterling, Reporter.

The Alter Society held its regular weekly meeting and discussed plans for future activities of the Society.

The President, Mrs. George Jackson outlined many interesting plans that met with hearty approval of all.

Mrs. Glass, the chairman of the Altar committee, was commended highly for her work on the Altar and candles last week, and she wishes to thank those who assisted her in this task.

We are heartily in sympathy with the John's family who are the proud possessors of a new born boy born to them on last Wednesday morning, at the University Hospital. Mother and baby are doing fine.

That most wonderful of birds, the "Stork," seems to have had a very busy week in our Parish, he stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Carpenter, 2421 Grant and left a prize package containing a beautiful 7 lb. girl. We sincerely hope that little Helen will not be too badly disappointed at not receiving the baby brother that she so fondly hoped for, and will find that a little sister is just twice as much fun. The mother and baby are reported in excellent condition.

The Buffet Supper sponsored by the "St. Peter Claver's Guild" was not as well attended as we had hoped it would be. Many notable guests were present, however all expressed a sincere delight in the excellent supper that was served. Rev. Father Willwording, of Creighton was the guest of our Pastor, Father Daly, Attorney D. E. O'Brien and Mr. Moosman, with their wives made a party of four. We were very pleased with the attendance of Miss Ahts, from the Catholic Charities Bureau, who brought a group of ladies with her. She expressed much pleasure with the service and hospitality received. It was her first visit. Mr. Myers, of the "Myers' funeral Home," together with his family were among others who enjoyed their Sunday supper with the club. Mrs. Sterling, the chairman of the entertainment committee, is grateful to the ladies who helped so willingly to sponsor the affair. Mr. Daly of the Yellow Cab Co. and his family were also present.

The P. T. A. for St. Benedict's, held its first business meeting last Sunday afternoon in the principal's school room, with a goodly number present. Discussion of the making of uniforms for the girls was the principle topic. Sister Mary Daniels expects to have all the girls in uniform by the first Monday after Thanksgiving.

The ladies of the P. T. A. will tar Society, in making the uniforms be assisted by the ladies of the A-l by the newly appointed president, of the girls whose mothers do not sew. The meeting was presided over Mrs. James, all others officers were present except the secretary, Mrs. Jackson acted in her stead.

Don't forget the wonderful chicken dinner to be given Sunday the 10th of Dec. This dinner will be sponsored by Mrs. Ward of St. Philomena Parish, who is an energetic worker and very capable of managing such affairs.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

29th and T St.
Rev. J. H. Jackson, Pastor
Mrs. J. C. Collins, Reporter

With a very beautiful day for this season of the year, Bethel Baptist Sunday School had its usual routine of services, under the leadership of our Supt. Bro. H. C. Garner.

For the 11 o'clock worship services our pastor Rev. J. H. Jackson, being out of the city, the services were conducted by the widely known Woman Evangelist, Rev. Mrs. A. V. B. Truxton, a member of our church. Her subject was "The Man To Hear," found in Luke 9-35. This subject was very beautifully and clearly discussed. All present was benefited by such a forceful message.

At 7:30 P. M., with our recent appointed Pres. Bro. Joshua Henderson presiding, our B. Y. P. U. services are continuing to take on new life in long-junction with the evening worship period. Since it was our privilege to have Rev. Mrs. Truxton conduct our services throughout the day, she gave us a very profound message in the evening services. Her subject was "Christ's Order To The Saved Man," John 5-14. Should every saved person abide by such a message, the world would be more at ease today.

Visitors and friends are always welcome to worship with us at the Bethel Baptist Church.

ZION BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

Mrs. Gooden, Superintendent

Corinth." Her central thought, "Don't Let Discouragement Overtake Us." The more trouble Paul had, the more he was determined to go on. Therefore let us try to imitate the followers of Christ, so that we can become nearer to Jesus.

The banner attendance classes were 3-6-14, banner offering to classes 3-7-14. The total attendance was 111.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

2215 Grant Street
Rev. C. C. Harper, Pastor
Rev. J. R. Young, Asst. Pastor

Sunday morning services were preached by Rev. C. C. Harper, to a large congregation. Hymnals were rendered by the Junior Choir, Pres. Mrs. Helen McWhorter, Mrs. Ida Woodson, Directress, and the children's choir, directress Mrs. Hattie Madison, which were very inspirational to the service.

The Street Rally was a great success, having the largest congregation of the season. Rev. Harper preaching the "Faith Of A Silver Dollar," and just poured new life into the spiritual souls of the vast multitude, the special program was very well rendered Mrs. C. C. Harper in charge.

The B. Y. P. U. held its regular meeting at 6 P. M., program was rendered by Group No. 4 of the Junior and Senior, Mrs. Matthews captain of Group 4, Mrs. Reynold in charge of the Juniors.

Come out and hear the special program Sunday, by Group No. 1, Mrs. Johnson in charge, W. Lamdrum, President.

Rev. Harper was last n the stand for the night service, preaching the gospel to a new congregation, with that ever courage in the spiritual truth, assisted by the Mission chorus, Mrs. Madison in charge.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

22nd and Seward Sts.
Rev. E. W. Anthony Pastor
Minnie Harris—Reporter

The Sunday school opened at its regular opening hour, 9:30 a. m., Supt. Nicholson presiding. The lesson was preview by Supt. Wesley. Some members of th primary department sang a Thanksgiving song, led by their teacher Miss Amelia Thomas.

The B. Y. P. U. opened at 5:30 p. m., Pres. Cooper presiding. A wonderful program was given by group o 3 (the senior girls), on the lesson topic which was a special topic. Miss Ruth Crane gave the origin of Thanksgiving day.

The Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. are planning a splendid Christmas pageant, which is sponsored by Mrs. E. W. Anthony.

At 11 a m Rev. E. W. Anthony brought to us a wholesome message, subject "A Prayer For Deliverance." The visiting ministers were Rev. Patten and Rev. F. S. Goodlet

At 8 o'clock, Rev. Fort assistant pastor, brought to us the sermon, subject, "Eagla Stirreth Her Nest." He stated that a religion in times like these do not call for a great deal of shouting. We all like to hear Rev. Fort preach.

The Young Peoples Progressive club is doing wonderful work in uplifting the youth of the church.

Don't forget he Thanksgiving dinner, given by units No. 3 and 4 Nov. 30. Come out and eat all you can hold.

Salem is still working to put over a successful program for the cause of Christ.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

24th and Ohio Sts.
Reverend F. P. Jones, Pastor

Enthusiasm and interest is still running high in every department of the church. Sunday School opened at 9:30 Sunday morning with the usual attendance, the pastor preached at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M., each was impressive, and furnished much food for thought. The B. Y. P. U. at 6 o'clock was up to the standard, a very interesting program was rendered by Willing Workers, group. In addition to the large number of members present there were many visitors.

The entire membership was highly pleased with the results of the rally just closed. Many gave the amount of an entire weeks work, and all did their best to reach the goal. Up to this time a round $500.00 has been reported. The Sunday School, B. Y. P. U. and Mission Society, are working hard to win the contest, and to crown their contestant Queen of the Harvest Home Festival on Friday night, Dec. 1. Thanksgiving services will be

UNFORTUNATE BLINDNESS

By R. A. Adams
(For The Literary Service Bureau)

Sometimes come blessings in disguise, And, failing such to recognize, Some impulse strange we oft obey, And priceless treasures thrust away.

Sometimes ship-wrecked, with rescue near, This we refuse, thru craven fear, Then, when it is too late to save, We leap toward the receding wave.

'Tis sad that timid creatures, these, Scruples exacting to appease, In blindness blessings should refuse, Which to obtain meant but to choose.

held Thursday morning at 11 A. M., every one is invited to attend. The Sunday School is making preparation for a very elaborate Christmas Tree, and exercises. A very impressive White Gift service will be held Dec. 17, we will tell you more about it later.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH

The Friendly Church
22nd and Willis Ave.
Rev. L. P. Bryant, Pastor

The services at St. John last Sunday, were very, very good. Rev. Bryant preached a very able sermon from the subject, "Elements of Unconsciousness in Character." He left many good things for the Christian to hink about. The attendance was very good for all services. The attendance at the Endeavor, reached 102 Rev. Bryant wants to see the attendance at class meetings grow the same way. The other ministers present were Rev. E. Z. McDonald, Rev. Oliver Butler and Rev. Thomas Rucker.

The hands on the rally clocks were turned again Sunday night. They moved fine. Help your Captain turn the hands of her clock by paying in some of all you are to pay. The Captains are Mrs. Willa Ray, Mrs. Rose Lucky and Miss Amanda Ogil, so if you don't know who your captain is, see these ladies and find out.

It is very interesting to see so many old faces coming back to St. John. Now, if you are not active in your church, why not line up before the year closes.

Those who joined the church last Sunday, were MMr. Howard Fields of St. Johns A. M. E. Church of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Louise Gough of the C. M. E. in Omaha. The visitors last Sunday were Mr. M. L. Harris of the Omaha Guide, State Representative Johnnie Owens and Family and Mr. C. C. Petties, who is now the husband of our own Mrs. H. L. Bonnett. They were married Nov. 6. Mr. Petties is a Baptist, now, but who knows but what Mrs. Hattie will make a Methodist out of him, and Mr. Johnson, director, of Zion Imperial Choir and wife. Visitors are always welcome to St. John and invited to make it their choice.

The all request program by the Choir was very good. There was a great message o receive through song.

The Official Board met Monday night, and a number of new members were put on the dicerent boards of the church.

Watch the Omaha Guide each week for your church and social news. It will keep you informed as to your activities.

Sunday school 9:30 A. M., preaching 10:45 A. M., Endeavor at 6 P. M., and evening worship at 7:45 P. M.

MISSION ART CLUB OF BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

The Mission Art Club of the Bethel Baptist church met at the residence of Mrs. B. Blackstone, 3021 Lindsay Ave., last Wednesday Nov. 22, at 1:30 with ten members present. After the meeting adjourned Mrs. Blackstone served refreshments. The club will meet Wednesday November 29 at 1:30 at the residence of Mrs. L. Hill, 3115 Burdette.

Mrs. R. Williams—President.
Rev. J. H. Jackson—Pastor.
Mrs. R. Roberts—Reporter.

CLAIRS CHAPEL

Rev. Clay, Pastor
N. W. Smith, Reporter

Sunday School and both morning and evening services were well attended. Two new members joined the church.

Much credit is due Rev. Clay, and the trustees, and brother C. H. Barnett for painting the church, as we are to have Bishop M. W. Clair with us on Dec. 6, and our committee is using every effort to make it pleasant for him, and hoping for good success.

We welcome visitors at all services and will help to make them feel at home, and don't forget our young peoples forum at 6 P. M. every Sunday.

LOOKING BACK

Unkindness to Children
By Videtta Ish
(For The Literary Service Bureau)

Children are generous. They are forgiving. They make up easily, in their innocence. But they have queer memories. They remember unkindness toward them. Perhaps to never forget such actions. A woman spoke harshly to a little child of three years. The child was hurt. After that, when this woman desired to show kindness the child rebuffed her. The number of such cases is legion.

Looking back I remember such treatment, in a few instances. I have forgiven. I bear no ill will. I would do a favor quickly for those people. But I cannot forget. Mention of their names will bring memory of the unkindness shown and of the hurt it gave me. It might be well for older people to look back. Perhaps if they would look back and remember the hurts they received, under such circumstances, they would be more cautious in dealing with children who will be the adults of the next generation—and who may remember, as we now remember.

33rd and Bradford Ave.
Sunday School was called at 10:00 A. M. The lesson was well discussed, after which Church service was called at 11:30 A. M. After prayer service, the Assistant Pastor took the pulpit and preached a wonderful sermon.

At 3 P. M. the Get Together Club met at the church, Rev. Travis being President gave a wonderful talk, after which, the program was rendered. The program was wonderful, then the Rev. Marion Jr. preached a sermon that made the church rock.

blow and the revelation of brutality on the part of her husband, she went up stairs, secured a revolver, returned and killed her husband. In other cases men have been killed while in the act of beating their wives. Had these women the right to kill their husbands?

If a man would be justifiable in killing another man in self-defense, and, if a woman would be justifiable in killing any other man who would be beating her and endangering her life, why would not a woman have the same justification when the man is her own brutal husband? It seems that she would have a greater right, because a husband is the last man to use such brutality. Husbands, Beware!

WEEKLY SHORT SERMON

By Dr. A. G. Bearer
The Babel Builders

Text: Go to, let us build a city and a tower whose top shall reach unto heaven.—Genesis 11-4.

Sad must have been the disappointment of these Babel-builders. They would build a tower to reach unto heaven; they would climb up and take the throne of Jehovah by violence. Confusion came. They were scattered over the face of the earth. The word "Babel" is commemorative of their folly in which we find a lesson for this age.

This, too, is an age of Babel-builders. Men erect towers of wealth, thinking that money will make them independent of God. They revel in their riches and sneer at the idea of God. Then, like the case of the magnate Insull, the tower falls—and crushes its builder. Like Alexander the great, Napoleon, and the German Kaiser, men build towers of fame and honor. Like the Kaiser they say "Me und Gott." They accept the applause of the populace, a thing uncertain and unstable. Then, they are discredited, dethroned, exiled, ruined. By means of the tower of material men try to climb up to the heavens, despite the fact that Jesus declared, "Ye must be born again."

As in the case of the foolish builders, all towers and all efforts will fail and the rule and the authority, and the power of Jehovah will stand And, in all it will be demonstrated that His power is supreme, and that "The judgments of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether."

HEROES UNSUNG

NIGHT WATCHMEN
By A. B. Mann

"While the city sleeps," policemen make their rounds, protecting life and property. Many of them are loyal and faithful to their exacting duties. They are in constant danger as they patrol the streets. They deserve great credit, for o them, every hour is an hour of peril. But they are no more deserving than thousands of men who are known simply as night-watchmen, and who are as dependable and as loyal and as necessary as those of the other class.

In large industrial plants, in banks and in other such places where millions of dollars are stored, in public buildings where millions of the money of tax-payers must be protected, these faithful servants of the people keep their lonely and dangerous vigil—"While the city sleeps." Often they lose their lives as they seek to protect against burglars and bandits. To these humble souls comes little praise they are among the forgotten class; they are poorly paid and little appreciated; they are unsung; but they are heroes "for a' that; and a' that."

"REVEALING" your PAST, PRESENT and FUTURE..

By ABBE WALLACE
Youngest mentalist on the American Stage

ABBE WALLACE
C. R. S. Is it dangerous for me to ride in my car if I get it?
Ans. Not the least bit. You are not in as serious trouble as you are led to believe. I advise you to secure a private reply from me on this subject as it is really a little too personal to print into the paper. Just send twenty-five cents for an Astrology Reading.

V. V. H. Will I receive the present promised me from my boy friend?
Ans. This boy friend of yours From Another Town seems to be kidding you along. He hasn't got any present for you.

Ans. The man that you are now going with will remember you in his will. The amount does not appear to be large, but enough to prove to you that his friendship is sincere.

L. C. Will I ever belong to this organization to which I was once pledged?
Ans. Not for several years. This National Organization that you have been pledged to will accept you as a member at that time.

V. E. Does the party that I care for care for me?
Ans. A good bit yes, but, it is revealed to me that he is even More Fond of a light skinned girl of your acquaintance. If you are under the impression that you are the only one in this mans life, you had better w'se up.

M. M. Please tell me what the mind leave me anything in his will? future holds for me?
L. C. Will the party I have in Ans. At least Three Marriages and a few babies to boot. Many years of your life will be spent in a very large northern city.

S. S. I want to know if my husband is cheating on me?
Ans. Your husband is interested in an old flame of his. It comes to me that this is the woman you broke him off with Two Years Ago. You will have to bear down on him again.

F. C. W. Is my brother in any danger?
Ans. Your brother is going from bad to worse. He is in with the Wrong Crowd. Unless he leaves his bootlegging pals he will have himself a new suit of clothes, — with stripes.

P. L. T. I would like to know if I will ever see or hear from my step-daughter again?
Ans. In the years to come you will never come into contact with your step-daughter. I cannot contact you and she together nor can I contact her in my crystal. I fear she is not living.

W. C. How will my son make out in his trouble?
Ans. Your son will receive a sentence of Ten Years and over for his part of this crime. There is very little that you or anyone else can do to influence leniency in his favor.

L. M. My pocket book was either lost or stolen a few Sundays ago. I suspect a relative. Tell me if I am right or not in my suspicions?
Ans. Who else could have done this but your step-father. Yes he took your money and furthermore you will never get it back. It won't do you any good to make a Squak about it now. For your mothers sake say nothing about it.

J. W. Goodwin, Asst'
O. J. Burckhardt, Pastor
Verda Gordon, Reporter

Sunday was a beautiful day, our morning service was lightly attended. But Elder Goodwin brought a stirring message, and I heard many compliments on the part of the members regarding the morning sermon. Under the supervision of Elder Huntley, and Deacon Stafford the young peoples meeting was interesting.

At 8 P. M.—The pastor preached on the Subject, "Neglect" using as a text, Hebr. 2-3. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great a Salvation. He pointed out that in these days, the majority of people were neglecting Salvation, for the trifling things of life.

The folks are yet discussing the sermons preached by Elder Bethel some have said they were now determined to live a separated life, ere respective of who attempted to tell them they cannot. We are looking forward to a good service Sunday and we also solicit your presence and prayers.

(For The Literary Service Bureau)
Wife Incapacitated. Husband has a problem—have one "Other Woman" or be promiscuous—of course neither would be right—if the shoe were on the other foot—better try having wife cured—it is never justifiable to do wrong—No; Mr. Husband.

No.
Maxie Miller: I am a professional man. My wife is sick and incapacitated for marriage intimacies. I am a healthy man and surely I should not be expected to injure my health by practicing continence, indefinitely. My problem is whether to have just one sweetie or to be promiscuous. What do you think best? Which horn of the dilemma would you take? I am anxiously waiting for your answer. Unfortunate Hubby.

Unfortunate Hubby: You are unfortunate only in a way, but you will be really so if you commit this sin against your afflicted wife. When you were married each one took the other "for better for worse; in sickness and in health," and your wife's being temporarily incapacitated would not abrogate your marriage to help the millions of men and women who have lost or are losing their vital physical power. In his 35 years of practice and research, however, he realized that the weakening of man's glands was also responsible for other troubles: High blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, physical exhaustion after work or exercise, dizziness, depression, neurasthenia, etc.

All these troubles can be removed with Titus-Pearls. Numerous cases were treated by Dr. Hirschfeld in his Berlin Institute.

L. S. (State Official; 60 years old, married) complained of physical exhaustion, dizziness and tremors. Was easily tired. Mental power dull and slow moving. Physical powers had been incomplete for previous 5 years. Blood pressure too high. Given 2 Titus-Pearls 3 times a day, 2 weeks later the medical report on this man was: general health better, more vigor; dizziness much less and returning again, this time to say that all weariness and exhaustion had gone; he felt fresh and buoyant. His blood pressure had fallen, and at 60 years of age he had regained the physical power and virility that he had known in the prime of his life.

Start regaining your youthfulness now! Today! In 2 weeks time you will be aware of the new, virile force within you. Send $5.00 (cash registered or money order) for 2 weeks treatment. C. O. D. Orders accepted. Write for Booklet.
