The family reunion dinner, given by Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ousley on Christmas day, was an event long to be remembered by all who were so fortunate as to be invited. Their children and grand-children were present, and a few very intimate friends, to enjoy the four-course dinner, prepared by Mrs. Ousley.

After dinner the guests played bridge and were entertained with a lovely musical programme and dancing. Dinner for 12 was served at four, P. M.

Mrs. D. J. Smith Sr, gave a birthday party for her husband last Wednesday evening to celebrate his 65th birthday.

A delightful turkey dinner was served to 25 guests and relatives in buffet style. The table was decorated with the Christmas colors of red and green and a beautiful three tier birthday cake graced the center bearing a tiny candle for every year of the young man's age.

Mr. Smith has been a resident of the city for the last 23 years and is a veteran railroad man about to be retired. Ill health has kept him from active service for the last three years, but he still holds a position with the Company that he has served for so many years.

Te guests of honor were Rev. and Mrs. Boodle of the Adventist church, Dr. and Mrs. Britt and daughter and Mrs. Nettie Smith. Mrs. M. E.

Sterling a niece of the hostess was also present. Everyone present enjoyed themselves to the highest and wished the host many appy returns of the day.

To my dear Sister Handy and family.

I am using this method of expressing my sincere regret for not being able to officiate with Rev. Williams in paying the last earthly tribute to my friend for many years. But our own brother Alfred Clay who is a staunch friend of brother Handy's has consented to act as a substitute for me upon this occasion, which is highly appreciated on my part and readily accepted by the family.

In closing I am extending publicly my heartfelt sympathy for the precious wife and remaining part of the family, but I also know that words are but feeble instruments to convey sympathy upon an occasion of this kind. So I therefore recommend to the wife and remaining family the Father of all the universe who does all things well. For in Him only can you find consolation in this hour of grief. But you must remember— That the clock of life, Is wound but once and no man has the power,

To tell just when those hands shall stop, At a late or earthly hour.

Now is the only time we own, So let us work for Christ and pray with a will, For tomorrow these hands may be still. Yours in loving kindness, Brother Burckhardt, Pastor of Christ Temple

OBITUARY

Died Friday Dec. 22, 1933
Brother Charles Handy who departed this life Friday morning at a local hospital. Brother Handy has been in declining health more than a year and has been confined to his bed at one and in the hospital for the past four months. Brother Handy was born in Hamilton County, Alabama in 1866, August 6. Making him at the time of his death 67 years 4 months and 16 days old. Brother Handy comes of one of the pioneer families of the South. Having been connected with the A.M.E. church for more than a century. His uncle being Bishop Handy one of the pioneers of early Methodism in the south and east. Bishop Handy was one among the greatest preachers of the African Methodist Bishoprick. Bishop Handy was a man that believed in right and was highly sensitive when he was brought in contact with one thing that appeared to him to say one thing a mean another. He was upright and honest in his dealing and until his health failed him, he was an industrious man providing well for his household.

Brother and Sister Ellen Handy his present wife were united in matrimony in Jelico, Tenn., 37 years ago and they were devoted to each other until death separated them. His pet name for his wife was 'Sweetie', which speaks plainer than words of their devotion. Bro. Handy had ever care that could be given not only on the part of his wife and daughters, but by friends both in the city and the hospital attendants. All seemed to have learned to love him while confined to the hospital.

He was a patient sufferer but said to his wife the evening before he died, that he was going to leave her. He was going home. He became a member of Bethel during the pastorate of Rev. J. C. Bell. He and bro. Bell were very much devoted to each other. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, two daughters and one son. The two daughters are here present in the persons of Mrs. Gertrude Holts and Ms. Alie Marshall. Mrs. Marshall lives in Chicago and Mrs.

Holts is well known and lives here. With Brother Handy, "Life was the son lives in Ashland, Ohio and real, and life was earnest—and the cannot attend the funeral on account grave is not its goal—Dust thou art, of ill health. Brother Handy leaves and to dust returneth—was never also a large host of friends both spoken of his soul." here and elsewhere to share with his loved ones in grief.

Bethel Baptist Church, 29th and T Sts., Rev J H Jackson, Pastor, Mrs. J C Collins, Reporter

The services Sunday throughout the day were very enjoyable. Sunday School began at 9:30 o'clock with the usual attendance.

Worship services began at 11 o'clock, with the Pastor Rev. J. H. Jackson in charge and the 1st Vice Moderator of the New Era Baptist Ass'n. Rev. F. S. Goodlett visiting. In the commemoration of the birth of Jesus the Saviour of the World, the pastor chose for his subject, "Good News in Jesus", Luke 2:10. He discussed as the three important phases of the above subject: 1. The source of the news—2. What is the message—3. The value of human personality. One cannot conceive the full value of this message unless they were there to hear for themselves.

At 8 O'clock we had a large conful song rendered by the choir and gregation waiting to hear the beautiful wonderful program under the directions of Miss Addie Foxall. Many eager boys and girls beaming with the spirit of Christmas rendered an interesting program. The Junior girls and boys gave a splendid play entitled "The Shepherds' Trail" After these interesting events the Sunday school children were given Christmas gifts.

Visitors and friends are always welcome to worship with us at the Bethel Baptist Church.

Salem Baptist Church 22nd and Seward Streets Rev E. W. Anthony, Pastor Minnie Harris, Reporter

Salem Sunday school opened at 9:30, Supt F. Wesley presiding. The lesson was previewed by Supt. Nicholson, subject "A Vision of World's Peace". We all enjoyed Christmas topics because they make the birth of Christ new to us. The Sunday School mourns the loss of little Lois Jean McGaw three years old. She was a member of the primary Dept. Funeral services were held Saturday at 3 o'clock P. M. at Myers Funeral Home.

The BYPU. opened at 5:30 P. M. President William Cooper presiding. The promotion day program was held. The Juniors that were of age were promoted to the immediate dept., and the immediates to the Senior Dept. The immediates and teachers wrote the duties of their office and was graded. The highest grade was 99 percent made by Vice Pres. C. Williams.

The Sunday school and BYPU. had their Christmas play Saturday night. It was carried out in a splendid way, Mrs. Antony was the sponsor of the play. She labored hard to make it a success.

At 11 A. M. our pastor brought to us a special sermon, Subject "The Babe of Bethlehem". He stressed the idea of Xmas being meek and humble as Jesus was.

At 8 p. m. o'clock. The choir rendered the services for the night. They sang many Xmas carols, proclaiming the birth of Jesus Christ through song. Te outstanding selections were solos by Mrs. M. Ford and Mrs. L. Harris. All units of the Church aid society will meet at the church and report all moneys raised during the year.

Salem wishes everyone a very happy Xmas and a prosperous New Year. Let the spirit of Jesus Christ prevail with you throughout the coming year.

The Sisters and nurses of the St. Joseph's Hospital entertained the children of our school at the Nurses' Home on last Friday evening at 4:00 p. m. 125 happy youngsters enjoyed this very unusual treat and made lasting friends of the sisters, nurses and doctors who were there to help

Santa Claus make an enjoyable event for them all.

The children in turn entertained their newly made friends by singing and presenting the clever little play of "Mr. Scrooge", directed by the principal, Sister Mary Daniels. Master Robert Brown did his splendid bit of tap dancing, and several of the children ance or sang to an admiring and appreciating audience.

The children are to be commended for their excellent conduct at the party and those who entertained them spoke very highly of their ability to control themselves under such pleasant and exciting conditions.

The transportation of the children to and from the Hospital was the generous and kindly act of John A. Gentleman Funeral Home, Myers Funeral Home; Heafy and Heafy Funeral Home; Duffy and Johnson Funeral Home; Hoffman's Funeral Home; North Side Transfer Company.

The children were chaperoned by three of the ladies of the parish and the programme was directed by the Sisters.

Each child was given a very full stocking by Santa and a beautiful toy and after the fun everyone was served delicious punch and sugar cookies.

The "Crusaders Carolling Party" and baskets of "Christmas Cheer", was a delightful surprise to 10 needy families and 53 children of the parish. We hope to make it an annual affair.

Transportation was graciously furnished by the "Interstate Transit Co." The High Mass sung by the senior choir on Christmas day was a very beautiful composition and well rendered.

Special attention was centered upon the violin accompanist Mr. Harry Anderson, Jr., who played throughout the Mass with to organist Mrs. James and rendered a specially beautiful number near the close of the Mass.

Mrs. Fields the directress plans to keep the choir rehearsing regularly, and sing a High Mass every Sunday in the near future.
