BOOK OF MILLION NAMES SENT FROM CITY TO CITY

CLEVELAND Ohio February 21—(CNS)—A big book 3 feet long 2 1/2 feet wide and 18 inches thick called "The Book of a Million Names" and recognized as Wilberforce University's latest device to advertise that A. M. E. Church educational institution is being sent from city to city to get 100,000 people to put or consent to have their names in the "biggest book in America."

The idea is gripping the attention of thousands and between February 12th and 24th it was expected to get at least 25,000 names as Wilberforce celebrates the 123rd birthday anniversary of its founder on that latter date.

The book has lines for the 1000 000 names and will weigh about 180 pounds when completed. Every person who gives one dollar or more has his or her name inscribed in the book and thus besides gathering the names it is expected to raise a large endowment fund.

Roberts, Assistant Secretary of The Treasury Deported.

WASHINGTON, February 21—(CNS)—L. W. Roberts Jr. of Georgia, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, a Roosevelt appointee who is "noted for an inexhaustible barrel of Negro stories" and said to be one of the most popular young men in the inner Roosevelt circle has been dropped several pegs in the department.

Secretary Morgenthau has taken the control of public building construction away from Roberts, widely known as "Chip" in the circle of Roosevelt friends.

This control, involving building contracts running into many millions of dollars a year. Robert got himself in hot water several months ago by telling dinky stories over the radio.

DePRIEST RIDER ON APPROPRIATION BILL RE-MOVED IN SENATE

WASHINGTON February 21—(CNS)—A proviso placed in the Interior Department appropriation bill in the House, requiring that not less than $200,000 of the funds for Howard University would have to be used for maintaining the school of engineering, was eliminated by the Senate Appropriations Committee in reporting the bill yesterday.

It is understood the main purpose of the amendment, which as sponsored in the House by Representative DePriest, was to make sure of continued operation of a school of engineering. Dr. Johnson, president of the university told the Senate committee the main object of the amendment has already been assured by action taken by the board of trustees.

He said Mr. DePriest was now in accord with the striking out of the amendment.

MUSOLIT CLUB CELEBRATES LINCOLN DOUGLASS DAY

WASHINGTON February 21—(CNS)—The Musolit Club invited guests celebrated Lincoln-Douglas Day at the club house, Friday evening February 16 when 100 members and guests crowded the club's parlor and listened to an interesting program.

The principal speakers were Geo. Henry Murray on Lincoln and John P. Davis secretary of the Joint Committee on National Recovery, on Douglas. L. M. Hershaw read Lincoln's 2nd Inaugural address; and among the other speakers were Charles E. Mitchell, ex-minister to Liberia; Haley Douglas; Dr. Caliver of the Division of Education; Perry W. Howard; J. Finley Wilson, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, and two young "New Dealers" recent newcomers to Washington, T. H. Mann and Earl R. Moses both of Chicago.

Clarence E. Jacobs and John Sharp, students at Howard, furnished the music. Mr. Jacobs in songs and Mr. Sharp at the piano.

An amusing and laughable broadcast was received by means of a hook-up with the radio in which most of the club members and guests were humorously featured.
