The Sunday School opened at its usual time with Superintendent Wesley presiding. The lesson seemed to be discussed well by all classes. In the Teacher's meeting Rev. Pettis taught the lesson. He gave many helpful thoughts to the teachers. He stated that workers are still needed to carry the gospel message.

At 11 a. m. our pastor brought the message. His text was found in Isaiah 66th chapter and 8th verse. Subject, "Traveling for Souls." The B. Y. P. U. opened at 5:30 p. m. with President Cooper presiding. We are glad Mr. Cooper is able to talk again, after having his tonsils removed. An inspiring program was given by the union Department, Group Number 5. Mr. Saul Porter, Group Captain.

At 8 p. m. our pastor did not preach. He had several prayers instead. He stated that he felt the need of prayer. The spirit seemed to be present. The service reminded on of an old time revival. The choir is giving a musical Tuesday night, March 6th. Many talents of different people of the city will appear on type program. Those that were present Sunday are to be commended because they braved the cold weather. Special notice was taken in Sunday School of the preachers who were not afraid of the cold.

In spite of the cold snowy weather, Sunday was an enjoyable yet sad day at this church. It marked the closing of the Anniversary Week given in honor of Rev. J. H. Jackson's twenty-five years in the gospel ministry, and also the close of his seven years, as Pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church.

Sunday School was opened at 9:30 o'clock. Worship services began shortly after 11 o'clock.

A message that descended deep down in the hearts of the congregation was delivered by Rev. J. H. Jackson. His subject was chosen from Acts 21-13, "A Life For A Cause." This Gospel Message will long be remembered. It was simple enough for a child to understand and yet so profound that any educator would gladly listen.

After worship service a most delicious anniversary dinner was served in the church dining hall. Many members and friends partaken of this wonderful feast.

At 3 o'clock, Rev. C. C. Harper, D. D. pastor of the Zion Baptist Church and his congregation closed the anniversary services. Rev. Harper's sermon was one of power and inspiration. His sermon was taken from Isaiah 40-31. A beautiful electric chime clock was presented to Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson by Mr. H. C. Garner in behalf of the church. On this clock was inscribed Bethel Baptist Church, Omaha, 1934 to Rev. J. H. Jackson.

Rev. Z. E. McGee, D. D., pastor of New Hope Baptist Church, who has known the Jackson family for many years gave some very interesting and inspiring remarks.

At eight o'clock a very interesting program and the crowning of the "Spirit of Bethel" under the auspices of the anniversary committee was rendered. Mrs. Whitehead, the mother of Mrs. M. L. Rhone gave several vocal numbers.

Mrs. Randell Roberts was crowned "Spirit of Bethel for the year 1934." She was presented with a beautiful set of silverware. Mrs. Grant Donaldson was given second honors in the contest. Mrs. Wm. Nelson was given $10.00 as a token for the individual bringing in the most money by Rev. H. Jackson. These awards were given after the program.

Visitors and friends are always welcome to worship with us at the Bethel Baptist Church.

The St. Peter Claver's Guild, met in the church club room, last Monday evening, with Mrs. Ora Glass, as hostess. A very interesting meeting was held, and a delicious repast served, afterwards. The club will sponsor the new game of "Tango" a popular card game; and will be played in the basement recreation hall every Saturday evening, at 8:00 p. m. Mrs. Glass, the president and Mrs. Cosby, secretary will be in charge of the affair, next Saturday night. Everyone is urged to come and enjoy the novel game, which will allow someone to win a large basket of groceries, or other prize, at each sitting. It will cost only a few cents to try your luck, and the proceeds will go for a very worthy cause. Come and bring a friend.

The Altar Society held its weekly meeting with a small group of members present; but work on the quilt was continued, and is nearing completion. We hope to be able to display this quilt in a week or ten days, and it will be offered to the public for a lucky raffle number.

We hope our non-Catholic friends will continue to attend the Lenten Devotion services, and their attendance should be an inspiration to all Parishioners to take advantage of the blessings attached to this pious form of doing penance before Easter.

St. Benedict's Church is going to give a series of Tango games, beginning March 3rd for St. Peter Claywood's Guild. These games are being sponsored by Mrs. Crosby and Mrs. Blair. Everyone is invited.

While it was cold and trying Sunday yet our services were fine. We had a great Sunday School and at 11 a. m. The pastor brought us a good message from St. John 16-7 which was enjoyed by all present in which he pointed out the work of the Holy Ghost in the life of believers. At 8 p. m. Elder Huntley brought us a splendid message. We had a real good time all day and some visitors both evening and morning.

The Bible Classes were all fine and enjoyed by those present the work is moving on in a great way. The sister will have a program Sunday evening beginning at 7 p. m. All are invited to be present this program in the interest of the Trustees. You will be made welcome at all of the services.

Mt. Moriah Baptist Church
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor

Sunday was a splendid day in a general way, Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. are doing splendid work. The pastor preached two very inspiring messages Sunday. The Mission's Society's tea was a great success. The reports of the auxiliaries, Sunday night were good for the month of February. The marriage of Mr. Neely Williams and Miss Bertha Baltimore at the church, Monday night was the most delightful to behold. The pastor officiated. Since we were unable to comply with the request of our Secretary of Foreign Missions, Dr. J. E. East during the Christmas Drive, the Second Sunday in February was dedicated to Africa. Each auxiliary contributed to the success of this effort. In both sermons, Pastor Jones stressed the importance of foreign missions and urged the entire membership to continue to make personal sacrificial offering to the cause monthly. If, he said should be foremost in all of our giving. When reports were made it was positive proof that if our members are instructed, and given an opportunity they will support the work in a definite way. The amount raised was $27.64 May God Bless Dr. East, and the sacrificial servants of God, both at home and abroad. Brethren, the Electric Light of Challenge is flashed upon us, the enlarged circle of Christian faith looks on to rejoice in our victory; but the world looks on to note and triumph in our defeat. The church must win.

The weather conditions caused the attendance to fall off last Sunday, the spiritual aspect was fine. Rev. Bryant preached from Revelations, 5th chapter and 9th verse. His subject was: "The Song of the Ages." The guest soloist was Mrs. Grace Bell Davis, of Chicago.

In the afternoon we were very pleased to have Rev. Jones and his Senior Choir of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church with us. Rev. Jones' subject was prayer. From this subject he preached a great sermon. This service was conducted by the Willing Worker's Club of St. John. This club was celebrating its 21st birthday. The all request program given at 7:45 p. m., by the Senior Choir was very impressive. There were many visitors throughout the day. Some of the most distinguished guests at the all request program, were Judge H. Rhoades and wife, who were the guests of Miss Lucas. The Choir will be on the air over KOLB and KFAB March 5th at 9 p. m. The church regrets to hear of the passing of brother George Ashby, who was for a long time a trustee of St. John Church. We wish to extend our sympathy to the family and friends. We also wish to express sympathy to Sister Lula Washington whose mother, Mrs. Anderson, passed away last Sunday.

The Quarterly Meeting will be at St. John's next Sunday, March 4th. Let everyone help to make all reports good. Rev. Bryant and a group of 15 or 20 Missionary Ladies went to Lincoln last week to the missionary meeting. They report a successful meeting.

We are all looking forward to the Knife and Fork Banquet on March 15th, at which Bishop John Gregg, will be the main speaker. Began now to make your reservations. This will be a good chance for you to pay some of your social obligations. You will hear more about this as you read your church news in the Omaha Guide. It will keep you informed on your church and Social News.

Rev. R. W. Johnson preached a wonderful sermon Sunday in spite of the cold weather. His text was past feeling. The whole congregation was filled with the Spirit. The Sunday School started at the usual time, 2 p. m. The revival meeting held last week by Rev. Truston was enjoyed very, very much by the church. We had a full house every night, she is a wonderful speaker.

A master sermon was delivered by the Rev. Joseph Harrison Jackson, B. D. A. M. Sunday afternoon at the Zion Baptist Church, Rev. C. C. Harper, pastor to an audience of approximately 2000 people. Rev. Jackson's farewell sermon, "Vital Religion" climaxed his six years of service as President of The New Era Baptist State Association and 7 years as pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church, having been called to a large field of work, Rev. Jackson and family leaves soon for Philadelphia, Pa., where his new duties begin the 1st of March. Rev. and Mrs. Jackson were recipients of many lovely gifts from individuals and groups during this service. One special gift, a leopard desk is from the association. The music for this service directed by Mrs. Minnie Dixon was rendered by seventy five voices from the church's of the following Baptist Churches, Zion Mt. Moriah, Salem, Bethel and Pilgrim with Miss Addie Foxall at the piano.

A beautiful bouquet and $11.00 in cash was presented to Rev. and Mrs. Jackson as a gift from the choir. Mrs. Ruth Johnson sang "I've Done My Work." The Harmonettes also rendered a selection. Rev. Jackson gave due credit to his wife and mother as an inspiration to his success, this far. Mrs. Jackson and Mother Jackson made fitting remarks in response.

This is said to be the largest service of this kind to be held in this state.

Rev. F. S. Goodlett, vice-president was in charge.

To Those Who Dare

By R. A. Adams
(For The Literary Service Bureau)
The laggard, running in life's race, Who to another yields his place, Will never with the victors share— Comes this alone to those who dare!

The man who fails to make advance, Waiting to have "an even chance," Failure insures, for everywhere, Success comes but to those who dare.

The man who hesitates to fight, Even though his cause be just, and right, Must name of arrant coward bear, And yield his place to those who dare.

Who may be cursed with craven soul, Will never reach a worthy goal, Nor wreath of victor proudly wear— This is for those alone who dare!

The Deathless Dead

By R. A. Adams
(For The Literary Service Bureau)
This is not a sermon, notwithstanding the use of a text, Revelations 14: 13, which reads Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord, from henceforth; Yea saith the Spirit, that they rest from their labors and their works do follow them. But the last clause should read, "And their works go on after them." This means that though the body shall die, influence of the life shall go on; in the lives and the services of others, the work will continue after death.

So it has been; so it is; and so it ever will be; despite the fallacious expression of Alexander Pope that "Life can little more supply Than just to look about us and to die."

Life affords opportunity for human helpfulness. Altruism is a powerful incitement to devote life's energies to human betterment. And it is assuring to know that such efforts will not end with the death of the worker.

In Zechariah 1:5 is found this query: "Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? The fathers were not and are not dead; the prophets do live forever!" They died, but in the lives of others, in the perpetuity of their influence, and the performance by others of noble deeds inspired by them, they do live forever. So with all who live for others—"Their good works go on after them."

Weekly Short Sermon
The Lord's Prayer

By Dr. A. G. Bealer
(For The Literary Service Bureau)
Text: Hallowed be thy name— Matthew 6:9.

Profanity is irreverence. Taking the Lord's name in vain is profanity. It is but a step from lack of reverence for the Lord's name to lack of reverence and of respect for the Lord, Himself. From Sinai comes the command, Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord, thy God in vain." And there is the specific and emphatic declaration, "For the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." Yet there are offenders in every walk of life.

1. Individuals who use the Lord's name in swearing are disregarding the plea for the sacredness of this NAME.

2. People who use the Lord's name as a "gy-word" are inexcusable offenders. Often Christians and even ministers say, "Good Lord;" "My Lord;" "Jesus Christ;" "God Almighty;" "My God;" and they otherwise use it as an expletive. I know ministers who frequently say, "Good Lord, no!"

3. Many radio singers seem to have forgotten entirely the commandment and to have lost all reverence for the Lord's name. They use the words, "Lord, Lord;" "Lordy;" and make the Lord's name common. Let it be remembered, "the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." And in this respect Christians should practice what they pray.

SEEING WHITE

By A. B. Mann
(For The Literary Service Bureau)

It requires no extensive investigation to demonstrate that, in the South, little attention is given to the conditions do not interfere with the interests of white people. Such crimes as seduction, unlawful habitation and prostitution among colored people do not concern the dominant white. In these things even the judiciary is derelict. Has morality a demerit hue? With the Negro immoral, can the white people escape consequences of association with them? These questions merit consideration.

A marriage license clerk in Ft. Worth, Texas, offered free license to the first couple to apply on St. Valentine's Day. The stipulations were, "It must be their first marriage, and the bride and groom must be white." Perhaps the purpose of this offer was to encourage marriage in this age of waning matrimony and multiplicity of divorces; but this concerned itself with white people only. The inference was that it little matters whether Negroes marry or not—To be continued.

LOOKING BACK

By Videtta Ish
Inciting to Anger

(For The Literary Service Bureau)
"That child is terrible. He has such a temper. It's fun to see him fly into a fit." It maybe fun now, but parents who encourage this will rue it. Many parents tease such a child. Often they do it in company to show neighbors how the child "gets mad." Not only is it "heaping up trouble" for the parents, but it is gross injustice to the child.

Parents of the other type, those of the other days, deplored the temper of their children, and while they often were indiscreet and untactful in dealing with it, they certainly did not tease their children and incite them to anger.

It would be well that parents remember that their children are the creatures of their moulding. That heredity plays an important part is true and parents ought to so consider and try to help the children overcome this tendency. Encouragement in this respect may end disastrously for the child. Better not, parents.

Maxie Miller Writes

(For The Literary Service Bureau)
"Bother and sister 'in love'"— seems case of shameful lust—incest and destruction threaten—may not be real brother—if so, better stop "playing with fire!"

(For advice, write to Maxie Miller, care of The Literary Service Bureau, 576 Minnesota Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas. For personal reply, send postage.)

Maxie Miller: Here is a strange case for you. I am nineteen and never had a beau. Always I've gone out with my brother. People have laughed at me for this. Now, comes this brother of mine and says he's in love with me, and he wants me to run off with him and marry him. He's twenty and good looking, but he won't notice any other girl. Since we've been necking and petting I find it has the same effect it would with some other man. Once, we almost slipped. It will kill my mother if she finds out, and I'm afraid something And I don't know what to do. I love this brother like a man and not like will surely happen, if we keep on.—Mobile Mix.

Mollie Mix: You choose an appropriate name, for you are badly mixed. It may be that this boy is not your real brother. Better try to find out. If he is not your brother, then marry him. If he is your brother, it is not love but lust, and you are in serious danger. Marry a brother?

C. P.—Is the report true concerning my grandfather and the treasure?

Ans.—Anything but true. Your grandfather did not RE-BURY ANY TREASURE found by your aunt. These two men who call themselves experts cannot assist you in any way and I advise you to have nothing whatsoever to do with them. I would not trust them out of my sight.

B. B. W.—Which of my girl friend love me and will make the best wife?

Ans.—Either M. R. or P. O. will fill the bill alright—of these two, I suggest M. R. — I believe that you two are well adapted to a harmonious married life.

G. McG.—Will I be able to borrow a large sum of money from one I have in mind?

Ans.—Your employer will not consider your proposition. He has sense enough to realize that it would not prove a profitable investment—FOR HE MIGHT GET THE MONEY BACK AND HE MIGHT NOT.

A. F. F.—Will I get any money from the contest I am about to enter?

Ans.—This contest will prove anything but profitable to you. If you are entering with the purpose in mind of winning money—STAY OUT OF IT.

D. T. M.—Will I and my wife get back together at home soon?

Ans.—I believe that your wife will treat you with the respect you demand in the future. I see a reconciliation this year and I am of the opinion that this will prove a wise move for all concerned. Take her back—you won't regret it.

F. A.—Will I ever have any children?

Ans.—Not soon by any means—there will be children, but they will come—LATE IN LIFE.

O. C.—Who set my house on fire? Ans.—Your house wasn't set on fire. The fire was an accident which I trace to a CIGARETTE BUTT, thrown away accidentally by a close relative of yours.

A. R.—My question concerns a photo of my husband? Will you please tell me where it went to?

Ans.—Your husband knows where it went to, for he GAVE IT TO A GIRL with whom he was corresponding. She has it now and keeps it in her BOUDOIR so that she can go to sleep dreaming of him.

M. Y.—Do you think I will be able to do what I have in mind?

Ans.—I know that you and your mate will be able to BUY A HOME SOON. This ambition is an excellent one, for many years of future happiness are in store for you and the children (there'll be one more) in your new home.

M. P.—I want to know where my daughter is?

Ans.—Your daughter is many miles from you. Her home at present is in the state of ILLINOIS, the city being CHICAGO. She is married and has a household of kids to her credit.

G. B.—Will I get the job I have in mind here in the city in the near future, or will one develop for me out of the city of which I know nothing about?

Ans.—I do not think it safe to make any changes right now. I earnestly advise to you to KEEP THE JOB YOU HAVE AT PRESENT for I do not believe anything worthwhile will turn up before summer. However, you won't have to worry about jobs long for I see in my crystal—A TRIP TO THE ALTAR.

Never! There are a thousand reasons why you should not. Such will never bring happiness. It will mean wreck. Both will tire and each will blame the other. No, Mollie, don't take such a risk. Let that brother go away and give you both a chance to check this dangerous thing.—Maxie Miller.
