Les Jonaliers will meet Sunday afternoon at the home of Miss June Artison, 2816 Hamilton Street.

MID CITY COMMUNITY CENTER

The Mid City CWS staged a very interesting and worthwhile program at the St. Benedict's School for the Parent Teacher's Program. Every grade in the school was represented either in music or in a dramatic number. The following program was presented at 2:30 p. m. March 22, 1934.

Miss Grayce Dorsey presented, "Hansel and Gretel" by the fourth grade, "Care and Chance" by the 5th Grade, "The Doll Shop" by the Kindergarten, first and second grade and two dramatics skits, "Little Scamp" and "Mother."

Miss Rae Lee Jones, Music Director presented every grade in musical numbers. The opening chorus of "The Open Road," was especially good.

Miss Marjorie Bolden presented, "The Crested Hen" a Danish folk dance by the third grade students. Miss Bolden taught the dance from the "Doll Shop."

The priest in charge, Father Daley felt very grateful and appreciated the CWS staff and their efforts with the children and expressed his attitude to the group as did the Sisters Mary Daniel and Mary Cristell.

An Easter Egg Hunt and a Community Sing for boys and girls, between the ages of 6-11 will be Saturday afternoon, March 31st at the Mid City Community Center Hours 3-5 p. m.

The High School students of Technical, North Central were entertained at a Pre-Easter Dance Wednesday March 28, 1934 at the Mid City Community Center. Central High School students were the vacation guests.

The Mid City Music Department, the Quartette, the Baronites trio and Miss Susie Whiteside entertained at the Pacific Strill Center Friday evening. The Quartette, Baronites were under the direction of Rae Lee Jones, Music Director at the Mid City Center.

The groups made their very unique attraction on the program and will entertain at many of the other centers.

Adult Music Hour, a new music class was organized last Friday morning for adults all parents and persons interested in a new form of recreation are invited to attend this class hour 10:30-11:30 every Friday morning.

FRIDAY IS HER LUCKY DAY

Born on Good Friday, March 30, 1923 Little Miss Jean Terril, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Florence Terril, 2504 North 24th Street enjoyed a Good Friday Birthday for her first time.

Jean was born on Good Friday, 11 years ago. She sometimes thinks that it was 12 years ago. This is the first time her Birthday and Good Friday, have come on the 30th day of March since she was born.

Jeanie says Good Friday is her Lucky Day. She seemed to receive more useful presents this Birthday than she has ever had. Jeanie says that the cake that her mother cooked for her seemed to taste better and the candles looked larger. The snow is worrying her somewhat, for she won't be able to enjoy her Birthday and Easter Gifts, in as much gaily on Easter Sunday as she had planned.

ON THE AVENUE

Delmar Kirtley has quite a time skating up an down streets each afternoon. That's quite childish, don't you think? . . . Norman, you shouldn't be picking on our future boxers that way. Such actions of yours have ruined many good man.

ALFRED RAVING AGAIN

Dolly who was that young man you were roller skating with? You seemed to be having a swell time. . . . Alfred is still raving over the rumor that he and Isabel are that way about each other. He wants it known that they are not. . . . How do you like Jesse's Tavern, Mr. West? . . . E. why is it that all you guys who have the money to get any girl you want, pick on the one the girls that are good?

CONGRATULATIONS CLARENCE

Congratulations Clarence, she's a nice girl. . . . One of our young couples have temporarily deferred their divorce proceedings. . . . Let's give up Billy, you can't beat that guy. He's too tough. . . . Milt Shayan, who is Mart Thomas right hander, is going on the spot down on the avenue. The talk is why?

COPS ARE WRONG AGAIN

Far be it from me to glorify a hoodlum, but the cops got the wrong fellow this time. E. C. took a ninety day rap to save a woman and a pal lots of money and embarrassment. As Winchell would say, "An orchid for you, E. C." . . . Juanita let that boy who comes home from school every afternoon with you, carry your books. . . . The cats are after that mouse again. . . . R. K. and J. C.

are planning to do a front pager soon. . . . Chickens are not an easy thing to catch, are they Mr. H. . . . Mr. and Mrs. C. are anticipating a blessed event for the second time. They hope it is a girl. Well good luck. . . . Well Willie Coulson, can you cook?

BEER JOINT RELIEF?

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again," will always be my old stand-by by Amelia. Don't you want to give up now? . . . Spring and a young girl's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love. . . . At last we have peace at Twenty-fourth and Clark streets since that gambling joint has been removed and the Harlem Beer Tavern moved in. . . . J. T. and Marion are doing a duet down the Avenue now. . . . Irene Harrold is in trouble again. . . . One of our little social registries has gone into the underworld to claim a man. . . . Kitten ball doesn't seem to care who plays it. Even the roudy gang takes it up. . . . Butler's kisser was scratched and battered a little last week. . . .

BRIGHTEN MEN'S CLOTHES
Style experts announce bright colors in men's clothes, "to forget the depression," more green in the pockets would help a lot. . . . Jesse's Tavern features amber lighting which makes any mowan's complexion look kissable.

GANGLANDS BABY DOLL
Baby Sister has been sporting Squad members lately. . . . A certain "young man" has become quite an efficient dancer. You'll see him down on the avenue any Saturday night. . . . That one time pug, "One Step," is now doing some heavy training in beer gardens and such. . . . Mrs. R. is hereby notified that "he" has left town, just in case she is not already in on the knowledge. . . . E. W. is the man that says he can hold his own, speak up E. P.

CHANCE FOR VOCABULARY ENLARGEMENT.
Enlarge your vocabulary by asking any of the Tuxedo "Wolves" what the following sayings mean: "Mug" "Singularity," "Chpip," "Chickee," "Lightly, rightly, and so politely," "Chokin," "Grabbin," "Purty thing," "Skippy," and "Mine too," . . . So the Moustache man walked on on the "Bird" eh! W. R. . . . The person who lost the top coat color, brown, see B. J. with reward and receive same.

BIG SHOTS IN NIGHT LIFE
Mrs. M. J. is anticipating a blessed event. Why is it that the people who are big shots during the day and out in the social world, sneak out at night to beer gardens and such? . . . E. M. seems to have made herself seen at night clubs recently. . . . C. Merrill sure does rate with north side blue dresses.

PICKERS KNOWN SOON

The Pickers had a very busy and successful end. Who are the Pickers? Wait girls and you will soon find out. . . . The "Ice Cream Lady" has resumed business with full attendance. . . . Wonder if E. F.'s date showed up at Rita's last Monday? . . . What was the big event last Tuesday at 9 o'clock M. H? . . . Rudy Gerrin rehearses his tough dance steps daily at the Tuxedo. Watch out dancers. . . . You were in the right this time E. J. at least you fought in the gym and not in the gutter. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. are expecting a blessed event soon.

THE QUART SQUAD

BREAKING UP
The Quart Squad has about sung its "Swan Song" with its main members leaving the ranks of the unemployed, namely E. S. and D. M.
