"KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES"

'REVEALING' your PAST, PRESENT and FUTURE. BY ABBE WALLACE. A complete analysis on the human mind.

E. J. M.—Is there any success for my sister? Ans: Your employer will soon discover this loss. Why don't you go to her and explain that it has been taken from you and she will most certainly RECOGNIZE YOUR honesty. By all means offer to pay her for the garment.

C. T.—Why hasn't my boy friend visited me? Shall I give him up? Ans: I am afraid he has beat you to it. The boy you met while on a visit to ILLINOIS is contemplating marriage. Your future mate will come in your life during the summer of 1935.

J. H. A.—Will I be successful in getting the job I have been after? Ans: The job you have been trying to get for the past TWO YEARS is not open—but if you continue to keep on the watch you will be working on this job before the end of two more years.

M. E. G.—Please tell me what the future holds in store for me? Ans: The most important event is ANOTHER MARRIAGE. This will take place in your SIXTY-FIRST YEAR. Get to work on another trousseau. The next important event is a trip to your home in Kansas.

E. L. P.—Do you think I will take a trip soon? Ans: You will make a trip this summer WITH YOUR HUSBAND. He will get his vacation during the warm weather, and you will start immediately on the trip you have planned.

TO THE EDITOR:

The aim of the Industrial News Review is to advocate and encourage policies which it believes essential to the well being of our country, the development and growth of industries, the sound investment of savings and the employment of men at good wages. Its editors express only their personal convictions in discussing industrial and economic questions of public interest that affect business stability and social progress. Its weekly distribution of industrial items and comment herewith is supported financially by basic lines of industry including manufacturers of general commodities, banking, insurance, public service companies, mining farm organizations, timber, good roads advocates any any who believe in its program that community prosperity and growth sound and reasonable government, both national and local, must precede and accompany individual and corporate prosperity. Its findings are not copyright and are submitted for consideration or reproduction in whole or in part, or for any commentary use of statistics, quotations or opinions contained. Its desire is to encourage constructive comment on basic questions upon which our people must be informed in order to uphold America principles and ideals.

IS THE OLD HOME-STEAD DOOMED?

In a recent address, Norman Thomas predicted that the next ten years will see this nation under either Socialist or Fascist rule. Mr. Thomas said he abhorred the possibility of violence and revolution and urged a peaceful drifting into Socialism. If it were possible, he said, he would advocate immediate confiscation of all industry and business and the vesting of title in the commonwealth. However, with this so difficult, he suggested the plan of "compensation plus taxation" for the commonwealth to follow in assuming ownership.

Mr. Thomas's opinion seems to be that our whole industrial, agricultural, political and financial system is a failure. He is opposed to profits from private ownership of industry. He said his party, if given power would strive to socialize banks, railroads coal mines, power, and next would monopolize all industry for the benefit of the commonwealth. Taxes would be revised—the inheritance tax being increased—and allowances made for farmers to be allowed to abandon their titles to property with a guaranty that they could remain on property and work the farm. Commonwealth councils would direct the new enterprise and furnish machinery and materials.

It is pretty hard for American citizens to understand that doctrine. The United States was established as the land of freedom and encouragement of individual initiative and enterprise. It is difficult to conceive of an American farmer, a "freeholder" being ready to turn his land in to the Government for some allowances that might be made him, for the privilege of living on the property and "working the farm" for the commonwealth, as a "tenant." Also it is difficult to imagine the American farmer, a free man, taking his orders from commonwealth councils and having machinery and materials handed out to him at will of the council.

At the present time the drive for socialization is against the big industries, but the fact that the plan includes the farm and public ownership of homes and the direction of the people by councils which would be nothing but a ruling class under a different guise, shows the necessity for studying this situation carefully. You can't have a nation half socialistic and half individualistic any more than you can have it half slave and half free. If industry is socialized and its right to private ownership denied, agriculture will be socialized as sure as the sun rises and sets and the old homestead, which has been the rallying point for family life and patriotic ideals in America, will be destroyed.

March 31, 1934. Mr. Galloway, Editor, The Omaha Guide, 2418 Grant Street. Omaha Neb.

Dear Mr. Galloway: The Omaha Chronicle of March 23 published an article saying that it was rumored that I called the colored children of the Long School "niggers". Mrs. Alice Holtman, former member of the school board was with me at the time and the teachers of the school present will testify that I did not use any such offensive term. The facts of the matter are that I was complimenting the school on their singing and said, "You colored children are endowed by the Creator with a beautiful voice and I have enjoyed immensely your singing on this occasion." I have always been very friendly to the colored people and supposed that they were friendly to me and I cannot understand how the paper would publish such an article without first making an investigation. I would be very much pleased if you would correct this statement as I feel very keenly the humiliation of being made to say what I did not say nor never have said. Very truly yours, Signed: John F. Poucher Gen. Mgr. The Nebraska Humane Society.

were again recognized by the NRA in the appointment of Madame Rosamond Stewart of Newark, President of the National Beauty Culturists' League, to serve on the Code Advisory committee of the beauty shop trade. The code advisory committee represents the beauty shops; the concessionaries (operators of department store beauty shop leases); the beauty culture schools; and finally the colored beauty shops. Madame Stewart made a plea to the National Hairdressers' and Cosmetologists Association for a special consideration for her group on hours and wages when the Code was being prepared. The latter organization invited her to participate in Code deliberations and was instrumental in obtaining this recognition for her group.

Besides Madame Stewart, the Code Advisory committee consists of Mr. Bert Frankel, representing the Concessionaries; Miss Quadlander, representing the Cosmeticians; Mr. Critenden, representing the Schools; and finally Miss Edna L. Emme and Mr. Emilie Beauvais, representing the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologist's Association. These latter two will be well remembered by members of our race due to their untiring work with their associate, Mr. C. W. Godefroy, Executive Director of the N. H. C. A. on our behalf during the formation of the Code.

Manager of Dining Room Compliments Negro Servants Omaha, Nebraska. March 28th, 1934. Mr. C. C. Galloway, Proprietor, Omaha Guide, Omaha, Nebraska. Dear Sir: Mr. Simon Harrold requests it and I take real pleasure in writing you with reference to the work of Mr. Harrold and the waiters he employed for us at the Chamber of Commerce Dining Room. We feel that these men gave the greatest satisfaction possible to the customers with whom they had to deal. They were always attentive, eager to please and never was there an occasion when they were not ready to help.

Mr. Harrold especially handled the most trying situations with the very least disturbance to those concerned, that was possible. He managed the front end of the Dining Room in a most capable manner with practically no direction from us. We are sorry indeed to find the situation such, due to our giving up the Dining Room, that we are unable to employ Mr. Harrold and the waiters under him, but were we to find ourselves in such a situation again, we would certainly avail ourselves of the opportunity to re-employ these men.

Yours very truly, D. FAY HOSMAN, Manager. Omaha, Neb., March 8, 1934 Tom Allen, 520 Terminal Bldg. Lincoln, Neb. My Dear Sir: I'm writing you these few lines to ask you to write Senator Thompson and Senator Norris and get them to support the Costigan-Wagner Anti-Lynch law Bill that is now in the hands of the Judiciary committee for consideration. This bill was recommended for passage by the sub-committee of the Judiciary committee. Fourteen million loyal American citizens are on bonded knees praying for the passage of this bill for the benefit of Democracy. I will be pleased to have the answer from your letters to the Senator's letters if possible for publication in our paper. Thanking you in advance. I Beg to remain, The Omaha Guide Publishing Co.

March 23, 1934. Mr. C. C. Galloway, Editor, Omaha Guide, Omaha, Neb.
