Waitress Gets Thirty Days, his gun. Mr. Small said when he went up to the controversy there was two policemen there and that they went with him to the Ritz Cafe and surely he would not be going around with two policemen with a gun in his pocket. At this point, the state rested and the defendant's attorney, Mr. Walker called Miss Fannie Hawthorne to testify. Miss Hawthorne stated that Miss Redd and her friends had been wanting to whip her for some time. She said that she had no intention of cutting anyone in particular, and knowing that Mr. Small had a gun, that she had borrowed a barber razor to protect herself. She stated that she was not intending to cut anyone, when Miss Redd was cut, that she was swinging her arm to protect herself, and in the swinging of her arm, Miss Redd was cut. The Judge asked Miss Hawthorne where she got the razor and what she was doing with it. She said to protect herself from her friend, whom she knew was angry with her. At this point Miss Redd said this affair about which Fannie thought she was angry happened down at the Ritz Cafe. Miss Hawthorne said that she was waiting on a party who wanted her to serve them and they had a misunderstanding. At this point Miss Redd stated, "Judge, I was waiting on Mr. Galloway and his party and she said something to me about the party and the argument began. It was quite a while ago, but Fannie has been sore at me ever since then." At this point, the Judge said that he believed this girl was a dangerous girl to be loose carrying a razor and that he would not want to be around any place where she was.

Mr. Walker (attorney for the defendant) asked for a continuance of the case until he could produce other witnesses that were supposed to have been there but had not as yet showed up. This the City Prosecutor objected to as he said that the attorney had had plenty of time to have his witnesses present. That was the reason the trial had not been held before.

Mr. Walker stated that his defendant should have the testimony of Mr. Willie Hall, with whom she was dancing, and others. Mr. Small at this point stated that it would work a hardship on some of the girls if the trial was delayed as some of the girls were working and that they had laid off to be in court to testify and could not afford to lay off again. The Judge stated that the girls that had testified need not return only Miss Redd, if she desired to do so. Miss Redd stated that she was not working and that she would be there.

Thursday morning, April 26th at 9 a. m. when the trial began in the court room, sitting with Miss Hawthorne was Mr. Willie Hall Josephine Holbert, Tommy Holbert, Bernice Wright, Gardner Macklin, and Miss Gladys Walker.

Miss Walker was the first to testify. She said that she was a friend of both of the girls, Miss Redd and Miss Hawthorne, and she told about the same story as the others had told. During the time Miss Walker was testifying, Miss Redd and her friends said in a low tone, "She'll tell the truth about it. She won't lie for Fannie or anyone else. She'll tell just what she saw and nothing else." Miss Walker seemed to tell a straight story and it was well received by the court. Her testimony and the facts that had been gathered from others gave at this time a prior of recess.

During the recess period, Mr. Hall decided to go and look at the Radio Room, while he was making observations of the Radio Room, Miss Rose Overton and Miss Ollie Redd on going to the Ladies rest room, passed Mr. Hall. He said, "What are you going to say?" They answered him by saying, "That's what we want to know, what are you going to say?" Mr. Hall answered, "Oh, I'm going to say it alright." To this one of the ladies answered, "That's what we want you to do, say it."

Mr. Willie Hall testified that he was dancing with Fannie when they bumped into Miss Redd and Miss Redd said that you could have at least have said excuse me. He said he then turned around and said "excuse me." At this point Miss Redd interrupted and said, "Didn't I say alright?" Mr. Hall answered, "Yes, you did." Mr. Hall stated that after Miss Redd said alright, the argument began. Both of the girls were swearing at each other and he saw Miss Hawthorne throw her arms toward Miss Redd and saw Mr. Jewell and another man come up and take Miss Hawthorne away and that was about all that he saw.

The defendant's Counsel, Mr. Walker addressed the court at this time in defense of his client and at the close of the case, Judge Palmer ordered Miss Hawthorne to 30 days in jail. She was taken in custody but was seen walking down the street a few hours later. It is said that she is out on bond, and is serving a notice of appealing her case to the district court.

Continued From Page One -- of any money metal can be considered only in its relation to the value of gold—and, with gold at around $35 the value of silver is actually less than it used to be, in spite of higher fixed prices.

Many economist believe that international recovery will be delayed until gold and silver are related—so that when gold rises and falls, silver follows it. And it is a certainty that a genuine silver revival would mean much to the United States—in providing jobs, purchasing power, and industrial and social opportunity.

ON THE AVENUE

MEMOS ON A COLUMNISTS' DESK

Regarding the George Curry—Margarite Blair story. It wasn't as fantastic as I set forth, at all. I wrote last week confirming the fact that George and Margarite had bust. Well it wasn't true, or maybe it wasn't, at least now they are back together again. . . . Sam Barton was practically made a sap by some of the weaker sex, so Little Willie says. He is supposed to have bought three quarts of ice cream for the girls, who proceed to leave him sitting in a dark room while they enjoy the ice cream in the light of the kitchen. . . . Have you heard Ruth Etting sing "Riptide"?

HITS AND MISSES

Stephen Taylor has been retained by the Mid City Center to assist as athletic director. . . . I just discovered the other day, after so many years that anybody can write but, the big thing is getting somebody to read it. . . . Susie Hall has gone blah, blah, over a certain young man. . . . The little affair bloomed one spring morning like a morning glory on a hike of the Creolians club. . . . Geraldine Smith has been constantly talking about "that certain young man."

CAREFUL GIRLS

Evelyn Beck is gaining in popularity fast, or either she can't make up her mind to anyone. She has a new fish on her line every day. . . . Will iam Thomas seems to be up a tree with the hunters chopping on the trunk to bring him down. The fair hunters being Dorthy Alexander and Melba Robbins. . . . When you pick up a paper nowadays, you read all about relieving the taxpayers, well, it just can't be done, he has been relieved of all he has already.

THE LOWDOWN

Good luck to Oscar Washington on his try of that pretty young widow. . . . Elizabeth Black and Leonard Turner have been sealed tightly together. . . . All of the young men think that the "Unholy Six" are T. T. . . . Irene Harrold and Frank Jaskson are swinging along in full blast. . . . Crisman Clark and Mildred ector are m, m, m. . . . Mary Gordon and Clarence will swing down the aisle soon.

IT IS STATED THAT—

Prophecies are, the style so here goes. If his material holds up Thomas Jones will be the outstanding singer for 1934. Amelia Thomas will remain the nicest of the girls. Wynonie Harris will be the "old comedian" to hold his own. No matter what new names come forward or what present persons increase popularity, Margarite Blair will remain on top. Orchestras will continue to have lousy singes.

IS BOB BACK YET

Wonder if Bob Graves arrival from K. C. had anything to do with Fannie Levison's seclusion act this this past week-end.
