

St. John A. M. E. Church "The Friendly Church" 22nd and Willis Avenue

Rev. L. P. Bryant—Pastor

The Sunday School started the day last Sunday with about the largest attendance of the year. The teachers are pleased to see so much interest shown by the children and are asking the parents to see to it that their children come on time.

Rev. Bryant preached at both morning and evening services. In the morning he took his text from the twelfth chapter of Heb. "Heroes in the Faith." Some of the central thoughts were as follows: There is a crown of life for those who trust God, and put great faith in him. Faith that will not stand in the battles of life is of little value, but the one who has the faith to run the race to the end is the one that gets the reward.

At the evening service Rev. Bryant preached the first Cor. and the twenty second to the 24th verse.

The morning services were well attended regardless of the hot weather, and the collection was very good.

There were many visitors present, namely: Mrs. C. A. Chandler, Muskogee Okla.; Mr. Kenneth McVey, Boulder, Colo.; Mr. A. Esdale, New York City; Mr. Blanche L. Drizzle, S. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. Saunders and Charles Rousseau of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Edna Adams Brooks of Chicago and Lyon Brice of Omaha. St. John's always welcomes her visitors.

In the near future she expects to have as her guest, the very distinguished Congressman, Mr. Oscar DePriest, watch for the time and date of his coming.

The Senior Choir is honoring Negro composers in a program at the North Side "Y" at a host and hostess dinner on My 31st.

We had a splendid Sunday. The Sunday school as usual was full of interest under our new teacher Deacon Samuel Stafford who showed that he had given much study to the lesson. At 11 a. m. the pastor brought a message on the Power of the World. We had few gathered into the League meeting and we had some things brought out that strengthened the young people.

At 8 p. m. Elder Hunley brought us a splendid message. His subject was how we were to know the Lord in relation to our souls.

We are quite busy at the Temple, Bishop Wm. A. Washington will open the Mid-western Diocese Convention here on June 17th. We are looking forward for a great convention. Sunday we expect a good days service we will be glad to have you come and worship with us. The Missionary Band under the supt. of Sister Clara Anderson is regaining themselves. You will always receive a hearty welcome at the Temple.

Elder I. Graham—Acting Pastor Cara Graham—Reporter

Sunday School was held at the regular hour with a good attendance. Morning service began promptly at 11:30 a. m. Chief J. P. F. Stucky preached from Matt: 13th chapter and the 47th verse. Everyone that was present enjoyed themselves to the highest.

Mr. Thomas Taylor also sang a wonderful solo with Mrs. Stewart at the piano. The choir rendered some beautiful numbers. At three o'clock Rev. Thomas and his people from the Primitive Baptist Church were with us, and also Rev. Wagner, Rev. Thomas preached wonderful sermon from Proverbs 18th chapter and the 16th verse. His choir also rendered some very good numbers. Those who were not there certainly did miss a good treat. We are always glad to have Rev. Thomas and his good people with us. Chief Stucky will start his revival Wednesday night, May 23rd. Come out and hear Chief Stucky. I know you will enjoy him.

Sunday School was opened about 9:45 a. m. by the supt. Teachers took charge of classes. The advanced class was taught by the teacher Miss Viola J. Oliver. The primary class was taught by Miss Mary E. Burdin. Sunday morning services were opened as usual at 11 o'clock. A beautiful sermon was preached by our pastor, Rev. Dan Thomas and new member united with us. The pastor also preached our Sunday evening services and it was indeed enjoyed by all. Visitors are always welcome.

Lesson for May 27

THE LAST JUDGMENT

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 25:1-14. GOLDEN TEXT—For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. II Cor. 5:10. PHIMAR TOPIC—Doing Things for Jesus. JUNIOR TOPIC—The King's Test of Service. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Serving Christ by Serving Others. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christ Our Judge.

A more correct topic for today's lesson would be The Judgment of the Nations. According to the legitimate national and contextual significance it is the judgment of the living nations, which still lies in the future. The idea of a general judgment is a fundamental error. Doctor Pentecost well says, "It is a mischievous habit that has led the Christian world to speak of the judgment as being one great event taking place at the end of the world when all human beings, saints and sinners, Jews and Gentiles, the living and the dead, shall stand up before the great white throne and there be judged. Nothing can be more wide of the Scriptures."

The Bible speaks of several judgments, differing in respect to the subjects to be judged, the place of judgment, the time and result of the judgment. The judgment which we are considering today is not that one set forth in Revelation 20:11-14. It precedes that one by at least 1,000 years. A definite analysis of this lesson will show how entirely distinct this judgment is from the final judgment.

I. The Judge (v. 31). He is the Son of man, the one who came and died to redeem the human race. At this time he is seen clothed with majesty and power sitting upon his throne acting as Judge. There is no judgment, so far as sin is concerned, for those who now accept Jesus Christ as their Saviour (John 5:24).

II. The Time of Judgment (v. 31). This judgment will take place when the Lord comes in his glory accompanied by a retinue of glorious angels, and after he has gathered the elect remnant of Israel. There will be no resurrection in connection with this judgment.

III. The Place of Judgment (v. 31). The prophecies of Joel (2:1-17) and Zechariah (14:1-5) show that it will be in or near Jerusalem. The angel, said to Mary, "Thou shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Highest, and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end" (Luke 1:31-33). As David was a literal king and reigned at a literal place, there shall be at that time a literal judge occupying a literal place of judgment.

IV. The People Judged (v. 32-45). It is expressly declared "before him shall be gathered all nations." They will be the nations left upon the earth after the church has been translated (1 Thess. 4:16, 17). These are the nations to whom the gospel of the kingdom shall be preached just prior to the coming of the end of this age. "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come" (Matt. 24:14). This gospel is distinct from the grace of God which is now being preached. The preachers of this gospel will be the Jews (Rev. 7 and Rom. 11). They will move among the nations of the earth with the startling news of the Lord's approaching kingdom.

V. The Issue of the Judgment (v. 32-46). Some of the nations will gladly receive the message of the kingdom and most kindly receive the King's messengers. Others will persecute them, thrusting them into prison. Here, those who receive the message will visit the messengers of the King and provide for their wants. At this time the judge will separate the nations, placing the sheep on the right hand and the goats on the left. The sheep are those who give proper treatment to Christ's brethren, the messengers of the gospel of the kingdom. The goats are those who reject the message and mistreat the messengers. If these three classes, the sheep, the goats, and the brethren be kept separate in our thinking all confusion will be avoided. The sheep will enter upon the inheritance of a prepared kingdom. The goats will go into everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels (v. 46).

what you can get out of it. As you read it, think deeply and see and feel just how faith within yourself begins to go through you.

of strife; Surely He knows what you need for the task. He's ready to give you, before you should ask. Have Faith in the Lord, in all that you do. Have Faith in the Lord, He's caring for you. Friends, this poem covers all, I can possibly say only to warn you of a few odds and ends in your everyday life. Sometimes we have friends, that we have the utmost faith in. No one could tell us anything, about he or she, that would make us lose faith in them. But when they deceive us, oh, how it hurts and most times causes us to be a ter. But do you know, if you will only keep faith and not allow your self to stray to the ways of the devil and treat that friend just the same as if nothing had happened, they will feel ashamed and nine out of ten chances will come and ask forgiveness and after this may make you the best pal you ever had. Faith is the food of the soul, and without it, we would waste away, as the flower without water, wither, and die. But when two true friends, remember I said "True Friends", meet and form an everlasting faith, in each other it takes death to separate them, and I have known some that would not let even death take them apart. May I recall to your minds, just here the "Book of Ruth." Where Naomi said unto her daughters "Turn again and my daughters," but Ruth with more

CARD OF THANKS

Thanking our many friends, for their kindness during the illness and death of our beloved sister, Mrs. Ida Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ward and Family opened at 9:30 a. m. with A. J. Reagans presiding. Rev. Nicholson gave a wonderful review of the lesson. Salm's Sunday School is progressing in finance and membership each Sunday. Supt. Wesley urged the officers to be present at the Friday night teacher's meeting.

At 11 a. m. Rev. Fort brought to us a powerful gospel message. He preached a powerful gospel message from St. Matt: 16th chapter and the 10th verse. Text read thus: "Thou Kingdom Come. Thy Will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven."

Our Choir sang at the County Hospital Sunday morning at 8 a. m. They report splendid results. Many patients remarked about their wonderful singing. Our Choir, realizes that in order for them to be true Christians they must make someone else happy.

The B. Y. P. U. opened at 6 p. m. with Pres Cooper presiding. A wonderful program was given by Group No. 7, the Mother's Group of the Union, Mrs. L. Harris is the group captain. She succeeded in getting many outside talents to appear on the program.

At 8 p. m. Rev. D. Nicholson brought the message His subject was "Dry Bones." Text found in the 31st chapter of Ezekiel. Our souls were made to rejoice as he spoke to us. Rev. Nicholson is improving every time he speaks to us. You are welcome to Salem at all times.
