DOINGS AMONG THE YOUNGER SET

Miss Willis Presents Pupil. Edrose Willis, Omaha's most competent young pianist, presented 26 of her pupils in a recital, Sunday afternoon, June 3rd at the Hillside Presbyterian Church, 30th and Ohio Streets. The pupils were assisted by Thomas Jones, Baritone, and Ethel Jones, Soprano. Miss Willis showed good control of her pupils. Their conduct and personality on the stage was indicative of good training. One third of the above number were musicians of a year's experience, yet there were a number of them who played with a Technique quite surpassing the ordinary first grader. The most advanced pupils though small in size played with great exactness, and showed much understanding in their interpretation of works of the various authors. Thomas Jones, young Omaha baritone, has a great feature in the musical world. It seems, so unfortunate, that such a talent should be outside, the

DOINGS AMONG THE HOTEL WAITERS

BY HOPIE Well: Well: Good News came to the U. P. Dining Car Boys last week. They received the charter and at last the binding line has been sealed. That golden spike that the U. P. spoke of in the Iron Horse never caused the heart's of those U. P. Official's to beat as sweet as it did the Waiter's when they received this most needed Charter. Remember Pals. United You Stand. Devided You Fall.
