

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

(By Rev. P. B. Fitzwater, D. D., Member of Faculty, Baptist Bible Institute of Chicago.)

Lesson for June 17

THE RISEN LORD AND THE GREAT COMMISSION

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 28:1-20.

GOLDEN TEXT—Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.—Matthew 28:19, 20.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Living Again.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Conqueror's Marching Orders.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Our Marching Orders.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Great Commission.

I. The Empty Sepulcher (vv. 1-7).

1. The earthquake (vv. 1-4). This occurred when the glorious angel descended from heaven to roll the stone away from the tomb. This work of the angel was not to allow Jesus to escape but to show that the tomb was empty. Christ needed not even the help of the glorious angel for he came forth from the grave by his own power as the seal of his atoning work on the cross (Rom. 1:4). The open tomb and the angels sitting upon the stone with calm dignity is a graphic picture of Christ's triumph over the devil; and the terror of the keepers is a sample of what all of Christ's enemies shall one day experience when he comes in glory to reign as King.

2. The angel's message to the women (vv. 5-7).

a. "Fear not" (v. 5). While the enemies had occasion to fear, these women who loved the Lord received good news from the empty tomb. The Lord will not leave those who follow him and love him in suspense and dread. The empty tomb puts an end forever to all doubts and fears. It is evidence that the question of sin has been dealt with and that God is satisfied and eternal victory is secured. Let every teacher endeavor to show the importance of the fact that the tomb was empty, for it shows that we have a living Saviour. The resurrection of Christ should be the major theme of those who give out the Christian message.

b. "Come, see" (v. 6). The angel told the women that the Lord had risen and invited them to see the place where he lay. The reason he invited them to come was that he desired them to make sure about the facts. He remained with his disciples forty days giving them many infallible proofs of his resurrection (Acts 1:3).

c. "Go quickly" (v. 7). Having seen for themselves their responsibility was to go and tell the message. It is important to be convinced of facts. Experience is necessary before testimony. They were to go quickly to the disciples with the message that the Lord would go before and meet them.

II. The Risen Lord Meets the Women (vv. 8-10).

The women quickly obeyed the command of the angel and were running to bring word to the disciples. Jesus met them on the way. All who go quickly with his message, the Lord will meet on the way. When they saw Jesus, that he was really the Lord they worshipped him.

III. Paying Money to Circulate a Lie (vv. 7-15).

That Jesus arose from the dead could not even be denied by the Sanehedrin. They saw only one way out of the difficulty; that was to bribe the keepers to tell a lie. They had paid money for his betrayal; now they paid more money to circulate a lie about his resurrection. Money not only induces people to lie, but it even muzzles the mouths of some teachers and preachers.

IV. The King's Great Commission (vv. 16-20).

1. The royal authority (vv. 16-18). By virtue of his divine authority he issued this command to the disciples. Only as the disciples realize the authority of the Lord will they go out to proclaim his message.

2. The content of the commission (vv. 19, 20).

a. Go teach all nations. This is the first and primary business of the disciples, and is a present obligation.

b. Baptize them in the name of the true God. It is proper that those who have become disciples of the Lord should receive the rite which signifies that relationship to him.

c. Teach them to observe all Christ's commandments (v. 20). Christ's disciples should be taught obedience to all his commandments.

d. The available power (v. 20). The guarantee of the success of the missionary enterprise is Christ's abiding presence.

Wishes to Thank Her Many Friends

I wish to thank my many friends and the employees of the H. A. Wolf, Company, for their kindness to me during my illness.

There was nothing they left undone, as I was well remembered with beautiful flowers, abundance of fresh fruits, lively convalescing cards and liberal contributions. Again I want to thank you.

Church of The Living God, C. W. F. F. 2316 North 25th Street Chief J. P. F. Stuckey, Pastor Clara Graham, reporter

Sunday School opened at 9:30 a. m. Brother P. H. Robinson, superintendent. The lesson was taught from the 27th Chapter of Mathews, and the 33rd to the 50th verses. Chief Stuckey preached from Mathews 11th chapter and the 28th verse. His subject was: "Take my Yoke Upon You and Learn of Me." He also gave a wonderful lecture Sunday night. Chief Stuckey left Monday morning at 8 o'clock for Topeka, Kansas, where he will stop for a few days. Then he will leave for his home in Kansas City, Kansas to spend a few days there. He will then leave for the Election in Chicago, Ill. It will begin on July 4th. I know we all will miss Chief Stuckey while he is away.

St. John A. M. E. Church "The Friendly Church" 22nd and Willis Avenue Rev. L. P. Bryant—Pastor

The revival services have been very impressive at St. John's during the last two weeks. Rev. Jeltz and wife are working very hard both night and day. The attendance has been very good yet not what it should be.

The regular weekly activities of the church have been laid aside to some extent during the revival. Let every one pray for the great success, of these meetings. We regret to know Rev. Jeltz became slightly ill during the services last Monday night.

The schools are now out and the children have a chance to sleep during the week days so the teaching staff are hoping they will be at Sunday school on time and have more regular attendance.

We are always glad to see so many visitors at St. John's and are always glad to welcome them there. Make it your church home while visiting in Omaha this summer.

CHURCH OF RELIGION HOLDS MEETINGS

The newly dedicated Church of Religion is holding its regular Sunday morning services at 26th and Blondo Streets. The Sunday school opens at 10 o'clock and the morning worship at 11 o'clock. There are no Sunday evening or mid-week services.

Our program is liberal religion and in order to do this effectively and efficiently, we are asking persons of deep religious and intelligent outlook to render such services as they are qualified to do. Members of the Choir, Sunday School teachers, and other departmental workers are especially needed. The minister would be glad if such persons would call Friday evening, June 15 at eight o'clock at 2204 Ohio Street, to discuss such matters as are herein outlined.

Thomas I. C. Hughes, Minister.

St. Benedict's Church 2423 Grant Street

Rev. Father J. C. Daly—Pastor Madoline Sterling—Reporter

The Altar Society was entertained last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ruby Redmon, 2633 Patrick Ave. After an interesting business meeting the hostess served a delightful luncheon. Mrs. Washington, the mother of the hostess, was the guest of honor, she celebrated her birthday, and the Altar Society was very fortunate indeed to enjoy the delicious birthday cake that she generously shared with them. We wish her many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Thomas Scott, who has been previously an honorary member, was received as an active member at this meeting. The Society is planning many interesting activities for the summer; including the summer vocational school, and the Catechism classes for the Sunday school. Any member of the Layety, wishing to contribute their services to this worthy cause, will please see the pastor, Rev. Father Daly, or any member of the Society.

The graduating class of St. Benedict's was entertained at a breakfast, last Sunday morning, given by the president of the P. T. A., Mrs. James, Mr. J. E. Baker, an assistant student teacher, and Rev. Father Daly, the Pastor were the guests of honor. The graduates were; Rauline Washington Geraldine Fields, Daisy Cole, and Theodore Franklin. An interesting program followed the breakfast, with final remarks by Father Daly.

Mrs. Redmond and Mrs. Sterling were in attendance at the monthly session of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, held at the Diocesan Burean, at 25th and Cass Sts. last Friday morning, from 10 a. m. to 12 noon.

Attend Some Church Every Sunday

If you get any service out of this church directory write us a line or two, we want to serve.

Churches

Before you buy your household needs, consult the pages of the Omaha Guide first. That will make your paper a bigger and better paper.

Notice—Because I have been unable to reach a few of the pastors of some churches, I am asking that any church omitted, will please get in touch with me, or send in a written statement, regarding your church activities, and I will gladly enter the same in this column. Any error or omission in the present arrangement, if brought to my attention, will be cheerfully corrected. The Editor.

We live not by bread alone The soul is like unto any other part of the body. It must be fed and where is the food? The Church is the only place. Make your choice of the following Churches and attend some church every Sunday.

Bishop Wm. A. Washington will open a ten days convention at Christ Temple, June 17. The convention will be held in the afternoons and each night Bishop will hold services. I am sure you know that you will be welcome to all of the services. We will not have a service in the afternoon Sunday the 17, but we shall go to St. John's and join in the closing services there that Dr. N. H. Jeltz will be in charge of.

We had a fine Sunday School and the services generally were good all with a fair attendance. But I am sure the Bishops friends will be glad to know he will spend these 10 days here as he belong to the people of Omaha, and some very substantial friends among them.

Salem Baptist Church 22nd S. ward Streets

Rev. E. H. Hilson—Pastor Minnie Harris—Reporter

The Sunday School opened at 9:30 a. m. with Supt. Reagan presiding. Supt. Wesley lead song services. The lesson was previewed by Supt. Wesley.

The Sunday School journeyed to the Sunday Alliance at 3:30 p. m. Miss Elma Wesley was our contestant who reported $15.10. Rev. Hilson brought to us a powerful gospel at 11 o'clock. His subject was "The Seven Sins Against the Holy Ghost." Text found Eph. 4:25:30.

The B. Y. P. U. opened at 6 o'clock with Pres. Cooper presiding. A surprise program was given. Many were surprised.

At 8 p. m. Rev. Hilson brought to us another powerful message. The subject "If There's Anything In It, Things On It." He mentioned truth, honesty and loyalty. Rev. Hilson is sponsoring a $100 dollar drive next Sunday. Each man is responsible for $1.30 and women $1.00. We are planning on doing big things.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopie Bronson of 2514 Decatur Street are the proud parents of a 6 1/2 pound baby girl born Thursday, June 14, at 9:55.

Rev. F. S. Goodlett—Pastor Mrs. J. C. Collins—Reporter

The Sunday School seems to be on a steady road to improvement, which we are thankful for. The services throughout the day one to be remembered.

The speaker, Rev. G. W. Lucas of Kosciusko, Miss., who was our guest throughout the day, spoke very profoundly and enthusiastically on the subject "Why Christianity Lives".

John 8th Chapter and the 46th verse. At 8 o'clock worship services. Rev. G. W. Lucas again filled the pulpit. His message on "The Need of Patience" was very encouraging and inspiring. It was taken from Hebrews 10th, chapter and the 36th verse. A lesson worthy of being learned was taught in this message on Patience.

Rev. F. S. Goodlett, acting pastor, spoke very warmly and complimentary of this young minister. Visitors and friends are welcome.

to worship with us at the Bethel Baptist Church.

THE LADIES FRIENDSHIP CLUB

The Ladies Friendship Club met Thursday afternoon June 7th at the home of Mrs. Mary Turner, 3018 Burdette Street. Ninety members were present. Business was transacted as usual. The ladies in the Friendship Club are working on a beautiful quilt to be raffled off in the near future. One of our members, Mrs. Sturdevant is ill, but she is getting along fine. A delicious repast was served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hill, 3119 Burdette Street.

THE HAPPY HOUR BRIDGE CLUB

The Happy Hour Bridge Club met with Mr. Reddon and Mr. Rutledge, Thursday night June 7th.

Instead of playing bridge first, we were taken to Elmwood Park to a Waffle Roast and Ice Cream Feast. And did we have fun? After the outing, we returned to Mr. Rutledge.

Our regular business meeting was held. Then four games of bridge was played.

The club prizes were won by Mr. Reddon and Mrs. Welch. Guest prizes were given to Mr. Wright and Mrs. Buford.

INTERRACIAL COMMITTEE MEETS

The Omaha Interracial Committee met at the Central YWCA Wednesday, June 13, 6 p. m., about twenty members were present. Miss Rachel Taylor, chairman, Mrs. Dillard Crawford, secretary.

Two very important committees made partial reports, one on a conference with the superintendent of schools, and one with C. F. McNeal, who is in charge of the FERA, concerning registration of relief stations, final report was deferred until next meeting. Motion was made, second and carried instructing the chairman to send a telegram to the honorable President Franklin D. Roosevelt requesting him to see that the Anti-Lynch Bill was brought before Congress this session. A new committee was appointed to take up the matter with the Park Commissioner, in reference to permanent city playground employees in our city parks.
