

Pleasant Green Baptist

22nd and Paul Streets
Rev. P. J. Price—Pastor
Lottie Keys—Reporter

The Sunday school was well attended Sunday July 8, also the 11 o'clock services. Many visitors were present. Sunday was a very splendid day. The pastor Rev. P. J. Price, chose for a text Job 22:25, subject "Christ Jesus Our Defense." The topic was very ably discussed by him.

The BYPU was well attended, and the intensive program, rendered by Miss Katherine Wheat was very ably carried out. We were very glad that Bro. Shelton Pearl came back to the church with a letter of dismission from the Pilgrim Baptist church, with good and regular standing. He was placed on the deacon board. Bro. Pearl's mother also attended, we were very glad to have her worship with us.

There will be a breakfast given at Elmwood park Sunday morning July 22, at 6 a. m., under the auspices of the Autumn Leaf Club. Those going to Elmwood park will be picked up at 24th and Hamilton. 24th and Lake at 6 o'clock.

The auxiliaries are doing fine. The Star Light Band is progressing under the leadership of Sister Eugene Johnson.

We highly commend Mrs. Eula Melton, Mrs. Mary Curren, Mrs. O. T. Morrow, Mrs. Annie Edwards, Mother Harper, Mother Howard, Mother Crowley, Mother Hopkins, Mother Logan, Mother Swilley, Sister Marie Alfred, Sister Bessie Kings, Sister Bullion, Sister A. B. Turner, Sister Mamie McIntosh, Sister Benola Pearl, Sister Cooper, Sister Dorsey Surrill, Sister Estella Watters, Sister Lottie Keys, Sister Verlee Moore, Sister McGuire, Sister Dollie Johnson, Sister Zetta White, Sister Myrtle Johnson, Sister Austin and Brother Oustin. All of the deacons and trustees helped to sponsor the ways and means of "The Pastor's Aid Society."

Rev. P. J. Price will soon visit the 12 churches in Iowa, South Dakota and Nebraska Baptist Associations, all of which he was elected field secretary, and executive board member on last year.

The sick of the church is improving. Mrs. Bostic is improving at St. Joe hospital and Sister Wynnie Scott at the County Hospital is doing very well. The pastor and committee visited the hospitals.

The Pleasant Green's Mission Society meets every Thursday at 2 p. m., M. L. Spenser president.

Salem Baptist Church

22nd and Seward Streets
Rev. E. H. Hilson—Pastor
Minnie Harris—Reporter

Salem Baptist Sunday school opened at 9:30 a. m., its usual opening hour. The school was well attended. The lesson was reviewed by Supt. J. L. Reagans. Much was learned from the life of Asa.

At 11 o'clock, our pastor, Rev. E. H. Hilson delivered a practical message. His subject was, "The Breakpoint," text found in 1 Cor. 10-13. He declared that there was a breaking point in every man's life, whether its good or bad.

The Sunday School Alliance met at Salem at 3:30 p. m.

The BYPU opened at 6 p. m., with President Rosenbaugh presiding. A wonderful program was given by group No. 3, the young women's group of the union. Our BYPU is as lively as usual. The Sunday school and BYPU gave a surprise party for Mr. W. M. Cooper Thursday night, celebrating his fifth year of presiding over the BYPU.

At 8 p. m., our pastor brought another powerful message, his subject was, "Loving the Soul." He remarked, that man loves every material thing of this world but forgets his soul. He preached from the depths of his heart. We are very happy that he is back with us. Wednesday night, he will preach from the subject, "What Are They Doing In Heaven?"

Mt. Moriah Baptist Church

24th and Ohio Streets
Rev. F. P. Jones—Pastor

This church is attempting to add the first floor to the basement which was built nine years ago at an estimate cost of $10,000. Because of the repair which was compelled to make on the basement if they continued to use it, they felt it wise to raise the walls and place permanent roof, which in the end, would be a saving of several hundred dollars. The work began June 18 with Mr. C. A. Cone as architect. During the process of construction about 40 men of different trades will be employed. The normal seating will be 300, maximum, 500.

A suggestion of Colonial Period in entrance and on interior has been made but no attempt to follow any style or period. The base of red cobbles stones woven together in upper wall with a frank expression of basic materials in an interesting play of light and shadow, pattern and texture. The wood trim will be painted white and the hip roof will be covered with composition roofing. The lawn on the sides and front are to be carefully landscaped to bring out natural interest and attraction of site and building. With the completion of 3 weeks work, the main walls of the building have been erected to their desired height, and one stage of the program already completed. Work will continue with the construction of the roof, the interior will be carried on later. The spirit of the church is at a high tide through all of its departments. Pastor Jones is preaching his best and souls are saved and accession to the church otherwise. His careful planning and soft leadership has and is positive proof in this progress this church is making in general. The pastor expresses himself of being pleased with the cooperation and loyalty of the membership. The walls and labor to this present period has been paid for, the next step will be the roof and windows, to this end we hope to appeal to our many friends and good wishers. With the existing confidence in leadership and fellowship of the members, the pastor advises that the job can be put over with faith in God. Those who have seen or heard of the movement, remember, your help is much needed.

Rev. F. S. Goodlett—Pastor
Mrs. J. C. Collins, Jr.—Reporter

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely. Teachers and pupils are putting forth and effort to make the school full of life.

At 11 o'clock, our pastor Rev. F. S. Goodlett, brought to us a wonderful gospel message, "A Plea for Decision in Religion," Psalm 57-7. Many interesting truths was gleaned from this message.

The BYPU is again on an upward trend under the leadership of Mr. J. Henderson. He is working hard and we feel sure his efforts will be crowned with success.

Our evening worship services was filled with songs and a brief message by the pastor Rev. Goodlett whose subject was, "Who is Man's Neighbor Luke 10-33. This topic was very plainly discussed, and was of great benefit to all.

Visitors and friends are welcome to worship with us at the Bethel Baptist church.

Rev. I. Graham—Assistant Pastor
Clara Graham—Reporter

Sunday school opened at 9:30 a. m., brother Henderson presiding Supt. The lesson was taught from second Cor. 14-16.

At the morning services at 11:30 a. m., Rev. I. Graham preached a wonderful sermon, he took for his text from Gen. 1-4. The Choir also rendered some beautiful numbers.

Tag-Club Notes

THE EUREKA CLUB

The Eureka club was entertained by Mrs. Nollings at 2610 Blondo St. June 30. The president presided over the meeting. All members were present. One of our old members, Mr. J. Phillips rejoined. Mr. J. Hall has been a member for sometime, but the club met him for the first time, all were glad to have met him. Four changes of bridge were played first prize, Mr. Adkins, second Mr. C. Phillips. A lovely lunch was served, all enjoyed a lovely evening.

The club and friends all enjoyed a lovely Fourth of July, Picnicking at Valley, Nebraska. We are hoping to repeat this next year.

Churches

Before you buy your household needs, consult the pages of the Omaha Guide first. That will make your paper a bigger and better paper.

Notice—Because I have been unable to reach a few of the pastors of some churches, I am asking that any church omitted, will please get in touch with me, or send in a written statement, regarding your church activities, and I will gladly enter the same in this column. Any error or omission in the present arrangement, if brought to my attention, will be cheerfully corrected. The Editor.

We live not by bread alone The soul is like unto any other part of the body. It must be fed and where is the food? The Church is the only place. Make your choice of the following Churches and attend some church every Sunday.

The saying "A dog that will bring a bone will carry one" contains a warning against gossipers. It means that the individual who will bring to you gossip concerning others will carry to them the same concerning you. And the moral is that it is exceedingly unwise to encourage evil

THE OMAHA GUIDE.

I met an old man called "dad" on 24th St. the other day, and he was very happy, praising the Lord. He said he had just seen Jesus come down through some clouds to about four feet of the ground, then he returned back through the clouds out of sight. The old man said he was satisfied and happy that he had seen Christ, and them he went to pray.
