

"REVEALING" your PAST, PRESENT and FUTURE BY ABBE WALLACE

W. L. H.—Can you tell me what to do about my husband's insurance? Ans.—You are wasting your money paying premiums on a policy for him when you have not heard a word from him in FIVE YEARS.

E. B.—Will my mother make good begging money and will her friends make good also?

Ans.—Your mother and her friends who are trying to raise money for the CHURCH will make a small amount of money. They should arrange to give a church dinner or banquet and have the congregation buy from them.

M. E. L.—Which one of my friends am I going to marry and will I be happy?

Ans.—The YOUNG man you are going with would make you happier than the OLD gentleman would. The old gentleman appears to be more fond of your children than the younger man.

M. C. D.—Please tell me whether or not I will make the expected expensive trip and how will I go?

Ans.—Yes, you will make the trip and you will travel via BUS. You need not hesitate to make this trip because of the NERVOUS condition you suffer with for it will not worry you, in fact the trip will help you immediately.

C. C. C.—Will my boy friend be clean and out of his trouble?

Ans.—Your friend has been very careless and reckless; and unless he leaves the city he will be forced to MARRY one of the girls that he is accused of. It would be a good idea if you too would watch the company you keep.

M. D. R.—Should I accept the job or should I resign and stick by my mother's bedside?

Ans.—Your financial condition will not permit you to resign even though your mother is sick. Continue with your NURSING for the RELIEF organization will call you to go on a case in a few days. It will do no good to stay with your mother when she needs food and medicine and can't get it, and especially since you could do more good working.

H. D. M.—Why did the fellow tell such an untruth on me?

Ans.—This man was JEALOUS of you and this girl—he tried to keep her from going with you and this was the only way that he could succeed. Leave her alone until she discontinues her friendship with him—she will realize that she has made a mistake.

L. M.—My father has been gone for several years and I am very anxious to know if he will come in my life again?

Ans.—He will again enter your life in 1935. Your father is now living in RUSSIA. Approximately six years ago he crossed the ocean and worked on board ship. He traveled over the entire country of Europe and will return to this country again someday.

E. C. R.—I made a loan over a year ago and I have not received my money yet. Does he intend to pay this money or not?

Ans.—The young man that you loaned the money to is willing to pay it but he does not have the cash. He wrote you a letter in April stating that he was going to pay it, but circumstances would not permit. You will receive another letter from him with a part payment in it.

N. W.—My mother is acting very funny for the past few weeks and she comes home and don't say anything and goes right to bed. What is wrong with her?

Ans.—Your mother has lost a very dear friend of hers and she is grieving over his death. Comfort her and try to keep her mind off him for she will make herself sick if she does not cease this worry.

W. C.—Would it be a wise idea for me to look the property up that I have had in mind?

Ans.—It appears to me that there is some property advertised yearly for taxes that is in your name. I don't see you profiting from this property, but if it will satisfy your curiosity to know whose it is, then look it up.

C. J. T.—What do you think about the work I am doing now?

Ans.—I think it swell if you stick to it long enough to become recognized in writing SHORT STORIES. Keep in touch with the magazines that you are writing for now and they will help you to get started into the future.

W. B.—Was it an enemy that took the top off my wagon wheel and where did they take it off at?

Ans.—While you were at a banquet at the CHURCH on July 4; several boys took the top off your wagon wheel just for fun. They are not enemies and did it only to tease you. Have another put on as you will not get the old one back.

W. J.—Will I be given a position this next year and when will it be?

Ans.—You will be given a teacher's position this fall that you will teach in another state and the location appears to be LENA, LOUISIANA. Put in your application in there immediately.

M. A. G.—When will I get me a friend and will I be happy with him? I am not lonesome now.

Ans.—You will find a friend in a certain man that attends your CHURCH and whom you are already acquainted and a little interested in. You two will spend many enjoyable days together this summer, but by fall you will give him up for another man.

L. D. C.—I am planning on taking my kid sister and having her live with me but my wife is a little doubtful whether she wants her or not. Will they get along together?

Ans.—They will be the best of pals—Take her, for she will be a great help to your wife with her children and you will be able to give her the education that she wants so badly. Your children will love to have your sister with them.

Y. J.—My business has dropped off considerably this last year and help me to get it started again?

Ans.—You will have to get a better and larger line in your BAKERY if you expect to hold your customers. People get tired of the same kind of cakes and breads and go elsewhere for a change.

L. J. N.—I am thinking of visiting my relatives in my old home town this summer and want to know what month to go?

Ans.—Go to your home town in August for you will find your GRAND PARENTS will be there and would like to see you. Your mother is showing her age and is also anxious to see you.

F. G.—I applied for a job last week and I am wondering if I stand a chance to get it?

Ans.—You will be working in a couple of weeks and you will be driving a large PACKARD automobile. The people whom you chauffeur for will make a long trip over the United States this winter.

J. M.—Does my sweetheart love me and does he mean the nice things that he tells me over and over again every time we see one another?

Ans.—He means every word that he tells you and if you want him you had better marry him for he is tired of trying to COAX you into marrying. He will give it up if you don't make up your mind in a hurry. He is more in love with you than anyone he has ever gone with.

500 ATTEND DEMOCRAT RALLY

At the Democratic Rally held on Monday night July 23 at Dreamland Hall, over 500 were in attendance to hear local candidates. The meeting was given under the auspices of the Roosevelt Negro Democratic Club. Attorney Charles F. Davis acted as master of ceremonies and in his opening address voiced the spirit of the New Deal which he said is the aim and object of the organization. The organization went before the people on the platform of a New Deal for the Negro in local government and placed each speaker upon his own to sell himself to the audience. The master of ceremonies put two questions to the candidates regarding their attitude upon giving to the Negro his pro rata of employment, leaving the answer of the questions by the candidates their selling point to the audience. Representative Johnny Owen, can-

(Political Advertisement) METCALFE TOPS GOP CANDIDATES

(From Omaha Bee News—Sunday July 22, 1934)

T. W. Metcalfe, candidate for governor, led the entire Republican field in the political poll standing announced Saturday night by radio stations KOIL and KFAB. Metcalfe polled 827 votes to lead Dwight Griswold, with 609 and C. A. Sorenson, with 119.

Robert Smith of Omaha, with 698 votes, held a small lead over Robert G. Simmons, Lincoln, with 647 votes in the Republican race for Senator. Kenneth S. Wherry was third place with 464 followed by Barton Green with 41.

In the Democratic gubernatorial race Eugene O'Sullivan went into the lead for the first time with 735 votes, replacing Roy Cochran who had 704.

Other standings were W. B. Banning 270, Terry Carpenter, 155, and John F. Rohn, 99. Edward R. Burke led the contest for the Democratic nomination for senator with 940 votes to Governor Charles W. Bryan's 738. Floyd L. Bolln was third with 54.

More than 5,000 ballots have been cast from all sections of the states. Metcalfe's election to the legislature from the ninth district was received with acclaim by the audience and roundly applauded. He was commended and praised by every speaker on the program. Milton Peterson and Rudolph Teaser, both candidates for director of the Metropolitan Utilities District went over in great fashion with the audience. Their sincerity was greatly appreciated. Harland L. Mossman, candidate for County Attorney, was well received and his candidacy was greatly augmented since his appearance on the program. Other speakers on the program were Ralph Coad, Mrs. Mabel Gillespie, H. H. Harper and Charles F. McLaughlin, candidates for Congress, James T. English and William N. Jamison, candidates for County Attorney, Paul Hapine, candidate for State Auditor, Harry Stevenson, candidate for Clerk of the District Court, Ardy Jensen, candidate for County Attorney, William Barber and R. K. Damm, candidates for

THEODORE W. (TED) METCALFE DENOUNCES POLITICAL BOSSES OF REPUBLICAN PARTY

Theodore W. (Ted) Metcalfe, former Lieutenant Governor candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, has denounced certain political bosses of the Republican party who have promised jobs in all parts of the state in order to build a political organization for one of his opponents.

"The next Governor of Nebraska should be in a position to do a real job without dictation from any of the King Makers or so called political bosses who would use our state government to further their own selfish interests," said Metcalfe.

Former Lieutenant Governor M. T. brought out also that if everyone who has been promised a job by his opponents were to get them the state would go bankrupt paying out the salaries.

Following is the statement issued by Mr. Metcalfe: "Certain political bosses of the Republican party in Nebraska have told me that I cannot be nominated or elected Governor of Nebraska unless I will promise jobs and other things to political leaders throughout the state. If everyone who has been promised a job in the state house gets them, the state will go broke meeting payrolls."

"I have made no promise to any one other than the promise I have publicly made to the people of Nebraska to do an honest and faithful job as Governor of Nebraska. If I am nominated and elected Governor I will not owe my success to any political bosses and being under obligation to no one. I feel that it will be possible to do the job which must be done in Nebraska, if our tax payers are going to get any relief from the tremendous load they are now carrying. The next Governor of Nebraska should be prepared to cut down the cost of government by cutting down the number of jobs and I intend to be in such a position. The next Governor of Nebraska should be in a position to do a real job without dictation from any of the king makers or political bosses, who would use our government to further their own selfish interests."

"If the Republican party is to succeed in November the rank and file of the republican party must have a major voice in its party councils. If I am nominated for Governor by the republicans of Nebraska the humblest republican of our state will have as much to say as any of the self styled bosses of our country."

Political Advertisement ing and help of poor families during the trying years of the depression. Mr. Woods received a round of applause at the close of his address.

Ralph Coad, candidate for Congress made a hit with the audience when he mentioned his endorsement of Father John Albert William openly and above board, for a member of the board of education and his having campaigned for him and his having required the foreman of the Utilities to certain Paul Barnett, who was threatened with discharge without cause, except prejudice. Barnett later quit and Mr. Coad forced the foreman to employ another Negro to replace him.

Sheriff, Harry Swanson, candidate for Secretary of State. Mr. John Woods spoke for William (Bill) Green and gave one of the best addresses of the evening. He stressed Bill Green's fairness in the past in the employment of Negroes on jobs in his charge and of his understand-

Jack Pszanowski, former chief of police, is a Republican candidate for Sheriff of Douglas County. He was born in Nanticoke, Pa. and has been a resident of Omaha for over 50 years

He has the following record on the Omaha Police department where he served for 24 years. He served 7 as a patrolman; he organized the Auto Theft Bureau which gained national recognition for the Omaha Department in the recovery of stolen automobiles. He served 7 years in this department with the rank of lieutenant, then was made Inspector of Police. He organized the Boys Safety Patrol and instituted the police school for officers. He perfected the radio and cruiser patrol to its present standard of efficiency.

After serving 3 1/2 years as Chief of Police, with many years of service before him, was retired on a pension at the age of 51 though he expressed a desire to remain. He contributed to the police pension fund from his monthly salary since its beginning and is entitled to the pension (which does not come out of the taxpayer's pocket) as every officer on the force contributes to this fund. Jack Pszanowski if elected Sheriff, will return his pension check to the Police department pension fund.

The office of Sheriff requires police experience and Jack Pszanowski's 24 years experience in law and order equips him for this office. Jack Pszanowski is capable, efficient and deserving. The man for the job. The job for the man. Give him a vote on August 14.
