GO TO THE POLLS AND VOTE

EIGHTY YEARS AGO THE FAMOUS ABOLITIONIST, FREDRICK DOUGLASS, SAID: "GO TO THE POLLS AND VOTE, IF YOU CAN." WELL, A LARGE NUMBER OF AMERICAN CITIZENS WERE DISFRANCHISED THERE AND COULD NOT VOTE.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS SAID WHATEVER WE ARE TODAY WE OWE IT TO OUR FOREFATHERS OF YESTERDAY, WHO WENT TO THE POLLS AND VOTED ON ELECTION DAY.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT SAID, "IF YOU DO NOT VOTE, YOU CANNOT TRUTHFULLY CALL YOURSELF AN AMERICAN CITIZEN."

GROVER CLEVELAND SAID, "THE MOST SACRED RIGHT AND DUTY OF AMERICAN CITIZENS IS TO CAST THEIR VOTE ON ELECTION DAY.

YOUR OWN CITY COUNCIL SAID, "GIVE WORK AND RELIEF TO THE REGISTERED VOTERS ONLY."

IF A MAN DOES NOT REGISTER, HE IS NOT INTERESTED IN HIS OWN OR ANYONE ELSE'S WELFARE. WHETHER YOU KNOW IT OR NOT, EVERYTHING YOU EAT, WEAR AND DRINK, THE SHELTER YOU LIVE UNDER, THE SIDEWALKS YOU WALK ON, THE ENTIRE AMERICAN TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM AND THE ENTIRE AMERICAN SYSTEM OF COMMUNICATION THAT YOU ARE NOW ENJOYING, IS UNEQUIVOCALLY AND ABSOLUTELY CONTROLLED BY THE BALLOT BOX.

NOW, MR. FULL-FLEDGED AMERICAN CITIZEN, WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ON TUESDAY AUGUST 14. SIT AT HOME AND PLAY TWIDDLE-DE-DE WITH YOUR FINGERS AS OUR GOOD CHRISTIAN CITIZENS USUALLY DO ON ELECTION DAY, AND THEN RAISE MORE HELL ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS AS A CITIZEN AND THE ENVIRONMENT OF YOUR CHILDREN IN THE COMMUNITY IN WHICH YOU LIVE, THAN ANYBODY ON GOD'S GREEN EARTH?

SOME ONE HAS SAID THAT THE PRICE OF LIBERTY IS ETERNAL VIGILANCE.

MR. AND MRS. AMERICAN CITIZEN: STOP! STOP! STOP! AND THINK! THINK! THINK! NOT ONCE, BUT THREE TIMES; AND TUESDAY MORNING WHEN YOU ARISE FROM YOUR SECRET CHAMBER AND DO NOT LET WORK OR PLAY KEEP YOU FROM THE POLLS.

HOW LONG SHALL WE BE DELUDED AND GO ALONG AS A NON-THINKING PEOPLE?

Attorney Ralph G. Coad, candidate on the Democratic Ticket for Congressman from the 2nd Nebraska District as a member of the Metropolitan Utilities Board on a complaint following the dismissal of Paul Barnett made by Mr. C. C. Gallogay to him, investigated this complaint and found no justification for the dismissal of Barnett, except race prejudice.

Vote for Charles W. Bryan, Democrat for Senator.

nominal administration of the sheriff's office," said Dennell. "If elected, I will make it my business to really run the office and not leave it up to a lot of deputies and assistants. It will be my policy to enforce the law, but I don't believe the sheriff's job should be one to annoy people, unless they really are violating laws.

"I promise voters in every section of the county, no matter what their color, race or creed the fullest protection of life and property that is possible to offer and my deputies will be picked men, who will know how to treat the people with whom they come in contact courteously and fairly."

Ray Dennell is a home owner and taxpayer, and his friends and neighbors, and business associates on the south side regard him highly for his friendly and charitable disposition.

Here is a sad story for you: Several of us were going to work last Friday, and a waiter who just lately came back to our city told us this: That a waiter by the aid of a petition was trying to raise some money for a sick brother waiter, Mr. Johnson, who is sick in the hospital and the remarks they make of this brother was a shame and refused to give him any aid.

When we got to the club, we at once made a slip and aid by 100 per cent was placed for Mr. Johnson. Thank you mes, and I wish to say to those that were making those remarks and refused to assist this man, whether he was O. K. or not, while he was well, he did his part.

I hope when you read this poem, you will carry it with you daily. If you meet a poor fellow who tries to battle the world and its frowns, just lend him a hand and be chance he will succeed, but pray do not try to crush him down.

THE LATE HON. JOHN BROWN JUST BEFORE HE WAS TO HANG

HON. JOHN BROWN The late John Brown, who sacrificed his all for you, was shot, beaten and run out of the state of Nebraska and Kansas for his activity in building the famous underground railroad, for stealing slaves out of Missouri and transporting them by night to Canada, where they might enjoy the full rights of Christian citizenship. John Brown was finally hanged dead by the neck, that the Negro might enjoy the full rights of American citizenship.

Now Mr. Negro, what are you now doing to perpetuate this work so nobly achieved by the blood and sacrifice of this man, and to make his name live forever and his work never to die?

1. I favor generally President Roosevelt's Recovery program and New Deal, and feel that I can work in harmony with it.

2. I am not aligned with, nor the candidate of, any faction or division of a Democratic party in this State. Nor do I file at the request of any political bosses or favor-seeking groups. Nor will I be under obligations to nor controlled by any such bosses or groups.

3. If I am elected Governor, I shall feel it my first duty to cooperate to the fullest extent with federal and local authorities in lending aid to those who are involuntarily idle, to the drought-stricken regions and to those generally in distress because of conditions over which they have little or no control, and I will use all reasonable means within the Governor's power to bring about such aid.

4. The rigid economy in state government practiced during the last four years has my approval and should be continued. In this, however, care should be exercised not to cut too deeply into the funds reasonably required to operate our educational institutions and for the care of the unfortunate wards in our state institutions.

5. I favor such modification of our present primary laws as will avoid going back to the evils of the boss-rulled convention system, but will still eliminate the confusion resulting from an unrestricted filing for office with no control or direction anywhere except only the individual wish of the candidate who desires file.

HON. FREDERICK DOUGLASS The Hon. Frederick Douglass, the world's greatest abolitionist, spent his entire life to make possible your right to vote. Now, Mr. Negro, what are you going to do about it?

DEAN WILLIAM PICKENS Dean William Pickens, field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says: "Every Negro should go to the polls and vote."

one size. Please think this over and try and see how deep you can sink it into your hearts. Hoping it will be 100 per cent. I will be with you again next Saturday. Good luck and happy thoughts. K
