Last Sunday at St. John was a very successful day in spite of the hot weather. The spiritual side of Church was good, and the collections fair. Rev. Bryant preached both morning and evening; his subject for the morning was: "Manifest in Love." The guests soloist were: Miss Eoise Jones of Ft. orth, Texas, and Mrs. L. C. Ervin of Omaha. Rev. Bryant made a report of the trip to the Missionary Convention. The reports were good, with St. John in first place, and First Church of Kansas City, second.

The members and friends are asked to get in the dollar money as soon as possible. It is hoped that St. John will make one of the best reports this year in the history of the church.

The last quarterly meeting of this conference year will be the fourth Sunday in August. The King Solomon Wedding the 6th of Sept., and the Baby Contest the 12th of Sept., and the Booster Clubs Womanless Style Show, Sept. 19, and Sept. 30th, the last night of this conference year.

At 8 p. m., testimony services were held. Some told of their desires to do better during the month. We are glad to announce the return of Mrs. Yancy and daughter, Juanita, from their visit to Kansas City and parts South. They report having an enjoyable time. The sick of our church are Mrs. A. R. PARADISE BAPTIST Rev. P. M. Harris—Pastor C. M. MAUPIN—Reporter

The Sunday school met at its usual hour 9:30 a. m., with Supt. Sister Hill, at her post. The lesson was found 2nd King 4:14, subject "Elijah Helped the Needy."

The morning services went well attended at 11:30 a. m. Our pastor brought us a burning message from the subject, "The Perpetuity of Christ," the text "The People Shall Praise Thee Forever and Ever," Psalm 45 part of 17. The message was full of information and inspiration, profound and logical, very much enjoyed by all.

At 8 p. m., our services were well attended, several visiting ministers were present. The message was brought to us by Rev. S. M. Ward, text, "Verrily, I say unto you accept a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God" John 3:3 verses. Rev. Ward emphasized the effect of the new birth, and how one deports themselves after having been regenerated. It was indeed helpful and much appreciated by all.

Come to Paradise and share with us these gospel sowers.

ST. BENEDICT'S NEWS REV. FATHER J. C. DALEY, Pas. Madoline E Sterling, Reporter

The Summer School closed on last Friday at noon, and the children who have been very regular in attendance seemed a little sad to discontinue their pleasant work and training along with the domestic lines.

The little children, who have been under the care of Mrs. Ruby Redmon, have been very active in their simple construction work, and will have many interesting little creations to display, when the work is generally exhibited.

Mrs. Ora Glass, who was making such excellent progress with the boys in their work, was unfortunately detained at home, a great deal of time, on account of family illness, but has been able to be with us lately and proved herself excellent help with all the groups, in their closing activities. Mrs. Sarah Taylor has been quite busy for the past two weeks, quilting, which is nearing completion, and the busy little fingers are willingly doing overtime work, in order to have it ready for the exhibit, which will take place in the very near future. We are pleased to announce that Robert Williams and Edna Taylor are the first prize winners, in the attendance contest for the Summer Mass Services; and the little Redmon Girls, Lillian and Velma won the two second prizes.

The Tuesday evening Study Club is gaining in popularity, and service. An unusually interesting meeting is expected for next Tuesday evening. The Holy Name Society held a special meeting last Sunday, after the 9:00 Mass. Next Sunday, the Second Sunday of the month, is Communion Day for the Society, and plans are already underway for a breakfast to be served to the Society, and all the parishoners, who wish to attend. The children of "The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary," received communion last Sunday, for the intention of the recovery of Rev. Father Daley, who is still very ill, and in the hospital of St. Joseph.

The pastor preached from Matt: 6:18 which reads "And upon this rock I will build my Church, and the very gates of hell shall not prevail against it. He used as a subject "BUILDING THE CHURCH. He very beautifully explained the subject and said that the Church must shine as a beacon light in the world in order that men might see and accept Christ. Several visitors were present among them Dr. Hawkins and his brother Prof. Hawkins of Kansas. In the evening the Heart to Heart Club had charge of the service. Several very good numbers made up the program. The members of the club sang in the choir. After remarks by the pastor the services closed at nine o'clock. The club turned over ten dollars to the church. Mrs. Pearl Fletcher president, Mrs. Tessie Spann secretary. Lesson for August 12

AMOS PLEADS FOR JUSTICE

LESSON TEXT—Amos 5:1-27.
GOLDEN TEXT—Love worketh no ill to his neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. Romans 13:10.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Good Preacher and a Bad King.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Country Boy Who Became a Great Preacher.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Standing for God Against the Crowd.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULTS TOPIC—Social Justice as a Universal Duty.

I. Israel's Desolation Predicted (vv. 1-3).
1. The prophet's lamentation (v. 1) Amos lamented over the doom which was to overtake the nation. The prophet is thus represented as entering into the sorrow which was to overtake Israel.
2. The nation's utter desolation and helplessness (vv. 2, 3). Israel is called a virgin because she had never been subdued by any foreign nation (Isa. 23:12). Her falling no more to rise, sets forth the utter desolation and helplessness to which the Assyrians subjected the nation.

II. The Urgent Call for the People to Return to God (vv. 4-9).
God through the prophet said, "Seek ye me and ye shall live." The implication is that while as yet the divine judgments are not executed, an opportunity is offered for them to turn to God. The time to repent is while judgment is stayed. In their turning to God they were called

1. To renounce idolatry (vv. 5, 6). They were to turn away from the places of idolatry—Bethel, Gilgal, and Beer-sheba. The judgment of God was to strike these places. He urged them the second time to seek the Lord, promising them life.

2. To cease to pervert judgment (v. 7). "Turn judgment to wormwood" implies the bitterness to the injured of the perversion of justice.

3. To cease to detrone righteousness (vv. 7-9). "Leaving off righteousness" means that unrighteousness was allowed to take its place. For the third time he urged them to seek the Lord. In this exhortation the Lord's name is given, with a statement of some of his works.

a. "Make the seven stars and Orion."
b. "Turneth the shadow of death into the morning."
c. "Make the day dark with night."

4. "Calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth" both in rain and in deluge.

e. "Strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong."

III. The Sins Committed by the Wicked Nation (vv. 10-13).
1. They hated the judge who condemned their wicked practices (v. 10).
2. They abhorred him that spoke uprightly (v. 10). This probably refers to the prophets themselves.

3. They trampled upon the poor (v. 11). The rich built magnificent houses out of the gains extorted from the poor, but the prophet assured them that God would not permit them to live in the houses nor drink of the wine thereof.

4. They afflicted the just (v. 12). This they did by taking a bribe. What a picture this of our own time!

5. They turned aside the poor in the gate (v. 12). Because the poor had no money they were turned aside. The times were so evil that the prudent would best keep silent.

IV. The Prophet's Plea for Repentance (vv. 14, 15).
No condition in the world, religious, social, or political, can become so difficult that the righteous are shut off from help. The righteous can

1. Seek God (v. 14). Those who seek God shall have with them the Lord of Hosts.
2. Hate the evil (v. 15). It is not enough merely to love the good; evil must be hated.

3. Establish judgment in the gate (v. 15). It was the custom in that day for the courts of justice to sit in the gate of the city. The prophet urged upon them the responsibility of placing honorable men in charge of public affairs.

V. The Judgment to Fall (vv. 16-20).
There is a coming day of retribution. Justice and right shall be vindicated. This will be realized in the day of the Lord (II. Thess. 1:7-10).

VI. Worship Which God Hates (vv. 21-27).
Sacrifices, observance of feast days, and even singing when the heart is out of fellowship with God is most displeasing to him. Worship without holiness of life is an abomination to God.

May Hurt; But Not Injure.
The skilled specialist said to his patient as he was about to perform a delicate operation on the arm, "I may hurt you, but I will not injure you." Sometimes the Father's will may hurt, but he will never injure his child.—Rev. Geo. Douglas.

Don't Find Fault.
Never find fault with a sermon you may hear if you have not been praying earnestly during the week that your minister may be filled with the Holy Ghost!—R. W. Dale.
