H-o-f-olks. The Trojans met Tuesday, Dec. 3, at 8:45. The Can show or Country Pair night was a great success on Tuesday, Nov. 27. In spite of the rain, there were many present. Our interclub dinner is the talk of the town. The date, Jan. 17, 1935; the place, Zion Baptist Church; the price, only 35c. Just think folks, a big informal dinner date for only 35c. No cover charge either. Can you beat that. There will be a toast master for the evening whom we all know well. He's a good speaker folks. Oh well, we won't tell you this week what it's going to be, but we'll tell you later. We're sending out spokesmen to contact each club. If you're interested to know more about it, please call the "Y" and ask for Miss Taylor. We're counting on 350 persons. Will you please be one of our guests? Another thing folks, if you don't belong to any club you're welcome providing you get your reservations in before Jan. 10, 1935. A silver loving cup will be given with the Trojans compliments to the club having the prettiest decorated table. Each club is to decorate its own table. Well, so long until next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wainwright, 2817 N. 25th Avenue, celebrated their 30th anniversary Thursday. Many lovely presents were received. Twenty-five guests were present, and enjoyed good music and a delicious luncheon.

Mrs. Eva Mortimer entertained the Moderne Bridge Club at her beautiful home, 2716 Ohio Street. The president Mrs. Olivia Shobe presided. After the business part of the club was over, bridge was played. Every one tried to win first prize. The one who succeeded was Mrs. Olivia Shobe. Mollie Dennis almost ran out but finally nosed Mrs. Mortimer out for the consolation prize. A tasty lunch was served which everyone enjoyed. The club adjourned. Mr. Will Davis came later and of course Mrs. Mortimer and Mr. Davis challenged Mrs. Shobe and Mrs. Dennis in a foursome. Needless to say, Shobe and Dennis home, 2866 Maple street.

The Quack Club of the North Side Y. W. C. A. met at the Omaha Urban League on Friday evening in a group to hear Mr. T. Arnold Hill, National Urban League Secretary. He spoke to the working Women's Council, of which Mrs. Ione Lewis is president. Mr. Hill's subject was "The Economic Status of the Negro. This is a very important problem which not only affects us vitally, but also the country as a whole. Mr. Hill's lecture was the winding up of the Urban League All-Day Conference.

The Club had a Formal Dinner Dance for club members exclusively at the Y. W. C. A. on Monday evening November 26th. Music furnished by Corrine McDaniels' three pieces. The affair was one of the nicest of the season. Our club membership is progressing nicely, and is still open to prospective members. The drive closes, December 31, 1934. Hurry and turn in your membership cards. Corrine McDaniels is chairman of the Membership Committee.

Y. W. CLUB GIRLS SPREAD THANKSGIVING CHEER
Families referred by Mrs. Grace Hutten of the Family Welfare Association of Omaha were made very happy through Thanksgiving Service work. Donations of can food, vegetables, fruit and money contributed to the filling of more than eight baskets with a complete Thanksgiving dinner in each one. Quacks, Trojans and Girl Reserves joined together in this piece of Community service.

BRANCH FEDERATION FORMED
Representatives of the Quack, Trojan, High School and Entre Nous graduate club met at the North Side "Y" Thursday evening to form a Branch Federation. The purpose of the organization will be to "promote a real unity of club interest in the social Christmas Vesper to be held Association." We planned an all Sunday afternoon, December 23. The federation is being sponsored by the Quack Club. Miss Lucy Mae Stamps is president.

Hall Tuesday, Nov. 27. The hall was brilliantly decorated with the club colors and name. About 40 guests were present besides members. The tables, under the supervision of Mrs. Hawkins were beautifully decorated with club colors and chrysanthemums. Two cards also were carried out in the colors of the club. One had only to step inside the door and the scene composed of attractively gowned ladies in the latest of fashions and their escorts in the usual black and white dinner attire made one feel he had been transported to the Ritz-Carlton in New York. Mr. Harold and orchestra added much to the beauty and gayety of the scene by his wonderful music which even more than enjoyed. Mrs. Irene Cochran, his pianist and vocalist delighted the group with ballads throughout the banquet. Mr. Black, retiring president for the past three years, introduced the outgoing officers and in coming ones for the ensuing year.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Higgins of Denver, Colorado, guest of Mrs. E. R. West; Mrs. Burns of Minnesota, guest and sister of Mrs. L. M. Mohammut; and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Copeland of Lincoln, Neb., guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Hawkins.
