Fine For Kidney And Bladder Weakness

STOP GETTING UP NIGHTS

Keep your kidneys free from waste matter, poisons and acid, and put healthy activity into kidneys and bladder and you'll live a healthier, happier and longer life.

One most efficient and harmless way to do this is to get from your druggist a 35-cent box of Gold Medal Haerlem Oil Capsules and take them as directed—the swift results will surprise you.

Besides getting up nights, some symptoms of kidney trouble are backache, moist palms, leg cramps, and puffiness. If you want real results, be sure to get GOLD MEDAL—the original and genuine—a grand kidney stimulant and diuretic—right from Haerlem in Holland. Give your kidneys a good cleaning once in a while.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Roy West is doing fine in a new job. We hope he will take advantage of all the work of the private home and may be he will be able to make a nice home for the little Wests (smile). The U. P. waiters who spent the summer out west are now back in town. This is the only job when age counts. I guess some of the boys would like to be Old Black Joe about now. Read the Guide, and read the news. You may be invited to some big affair and everyone will know of it but you. Read more. Learn more, and maybe they will know more about you. I say, maybe. Oh yes, listen here. Isn't this good? Mr. T. T. Thomas, bar waiter at Hotel Paxton and who seems to be doing a straight eight job of it in the way of cash, has Thursday off, and boys do you think it is really an off day? Listen and be your own judge. Last Thursday from 11 a. m. until 2 a. m. who was the bar tender at the H. and M? I am going to let you in on the inside of the story. It was Mr. T. T. Thomas—oh me. Here's good news for you. Mr. Branch said he hopes that his young boys can put on the finishing touches soon because one of his young boys waiters took an order like this last Friday. Filet of Sole, Almonds, American Fried Potatoes, Head Lettuce, Thousand Island Dressing and one side car. Here is the way the waiter brought the order: One Sirloin Steak, F. F. Potatoes, Combination Salad, O. P. Tea (lemon on the side) and the man ate it and then told the Press.

BOY-GIRL FORUM COMMITTEE ORGANIZED The Boy and Girl Forum Committee was organized at the North Side Y. W. C. A. Friday, November 23, 1934. INNER CLUB BANQUET Have you heard? Heard what? About the Big Inner Club Banquet that the Trojans are sponsoring. Where? At Zion Baptist Church. When? Jan. 17, 1935. Formal? No, it's a very informal affair. And so, ladies and gentlemen that is what is being heard all over town.

Two firemen representatives, namely, Messrs. Clarence Davis and Bud Green will appeal to the various organizations for considering their present economic condition by appointing a committee to attend a "Wedge" at the Rome Hotel for their benefit soon where these conditions will be discussed.

The club Federation decided to have a Christmas Vesper Service, Sunday, Dec. 23, 1934. Each club is to participate in the services.

The Finance Chairman Miss Louise Fletcher made a complete report on the whole "layout" of the Inner-Club-Banquet.

Mrs. Mohammed was decided upon as the cateress for the Banquet. Dorothy Pollard, President Roberta Pharr, Reporter

The Ladies Friendship club met at the home of Mrs. Edith Hope, 2425 Parker street. Mrs. Emma Busch won the first prize, and Mrs. Minnie Burns won second prize. A delicious lunch was served. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Florence Morris, 3118 Burdette street.

Ida Fontaine, President Minnie Burns, Reporter

JACQUES CLUB Did we have fun or did we have fun? I'll tell the world we did. Where at? At the Jacques' party given by Leonard Turner. The evening was well spent by dancing, socializing, and playing cards. After fully enjoying ourselves with these entertainments, the host served a delightful repast.

When more and better times are had the Jacques will have them. Eddie Biddieux, President Walt Rhodes, Reporter

THE CLEVER SET CLUB The Clever Set Club met this week with Mr. Sylvester Taylor, 2616 Seaward street. Mrs. Brewer, 1617 N. 29th street won the first prize, and

EUREKA ART CLASS The Eureka Art Class was entertained by Mrs. Mays at the residence of Mrs. Jennie Murray, 2222 Seward street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. After business transaction, the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. H. Leiland, 2824 N. 26th street, Dec. 19th. Mrs. Mays, Reporter

THE LES PIERETTS Folks, the Les Pierett, really had a ho; time and some close bridge competition last Wednesday. Any way the score was decided in favor of Mrs. Geneva Garland for first prize, while the hostess, Mrs. Amy Ousley kept the booty at home to entertain what we left of that swell luncheon she served. One of the substitutes we used made the meeting quite unique, as we had to use Mr. Ousley to fill in. Don't let him kid you that he did not enjoy it either. You know it isn't every day that one man gets to play bridge unmolested with six women out side of his wife. By the way, Mrs. Inez Perriere substituted for us too. The name of Mrs. Mildred Samuels brings the club members to seven. Just one more member and Les Pieretts will be ready to sail.

Mrs. Nellie Myers, President Ferwilda Artson, Reporter

THE JOLLY TWELVE ART CLUB The Jolly Twelve Art Club had a demonstration luncheon given by the Omar Baking Co. Friday, Dec. 7 at the home of Mrs. Charles Williams, 2622 N. 25th street. The luncheon was a success owing to the efforts of Mrs. Edden who was responsible for twenty-five guests or more. We wish to extend our thanks to Mrs. Edden and also to the many friends.

Mrs. Sherwood, President Mrs. C. Nicholson, Act. Reporter

SAVOY CLUB Savoy Club met Dec. 8, 1934 at the home of Mr. John Murray, 2911 N. 27th street. Mr. Murray was unable to be present at the meeting due to illness, so the meeting was very short. We adjourned to meet with Mr. Towels, who will entertain at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Swacacey, 2208 Nicholas street, Dec. 14, 1934.

Mr. Clyde Johnson, President Mrs. Lucille Swacacey, Secretary Mrs. Gertrude Johnson, Reporter

THE ABSIT INVIDIA The Absit Invidia club met at 2210, Mrs. Anna B. Lovely being hostess. The dinner was very nice and lovely prizes were awarded as follows: Mrs. Frances Allen, first prize; Miss Gladys Walker, second; Miss LaVerne Wesley, booty, which had to be drawn.

There were two men representing the Fire department. The men were Mr. Bud Greene and Mr. Charles Davis. Both gave an interesting and useful talk. Three girls were appointed to represent the Absit Invidia club. Each girl present signed the petition that Mr. Greene had.

The Thanksgiving dinner at our club gave was a great success and beautifully served. A party was planned for Christmas. The previous meeting was at Mrs. Laura Love's (Wagner). We had a nice meeting and each girl enjoyed her dinner. The prizes that evening were awarded to Miss Anna B. Lovely, first; Miss Mary Gates, second; and Gretchen Cash Smith got booty. Mrs. Gretchen Cash Smith is now very ill with double pneumonia.

Miss Anna B. Lovely, President Mrs. Daisy Gates, Secretary Mrs. Laura Love (Wagner), Reporter
