

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E.

"The Friendly Church" Rev. L. P. Bryant, Pastor Last Sunday was quarterly meeting at St. John and the presiding elder W. B. Brooks preached both morning and evening. Rev. Williams of Bethel preached in the afternoon. His choir was a success in every way. It furnished the music. The day was a success in every way. In fact the whole quarter has been very successful. We regret how ever to say Rev. Bryant lost his mother and Rev. Brooks his daughter this quarter. The members and friends of St. John wish to take this as one of the ways of expressing their sympathy to them. We can only say to them as the writer who said, "Not My Will, but Thou Will be Done".

The choir will give its regular 4th Sunday night's all request program next Sunday, December 23, and you are asked to get your request in early so they may have a song for you. The choir is working hard on the Christmas cantata, "The Salvation of Israel" which it will render at 5 a. m. Christmas morning.

The Sunday school will have its Christmas tree for the children Monday night, December 24th. The parents are always welcome and invited to come. Read the Omaha Guide for your church and social news for the Christmas holidays.

SALEM BAPTIST 22nd and Seward Streets

Our Sunday school opened at its usual time, 9:30 a. m. Rev. J. T. Reagans took charge. A Christmas committee was appointed to buy gifts for the Sunday school pupils. At 11 a. m., Rev. E. W. Fort brought the message. The B. Y. P. U. opened at 5:30 p. m. A very interesting program was sponsored by Group No. 3, the young women's group of the union.

Rev. C. C. Pettis brought the message at 8 p. m. Our choir is giving a Cantata Sunday December 23. The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. is giving a Christmas program consisting of plays, dialogues, recitations on Christmas eve, beginning at 8 o'clock p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to come.

Rev. E. Hilson, pastor Minnie Harris, reporter

BETHEL BAPTIST

Sunday school was opened at the usual time by the Supt. Bro. H. C. Garner. The teachers were all at their posts, and the usual number of grown-ups as well as children were present.

The atmosphere was already tinged the Spirit of the Holiday service. Our acting pastor, Rev. F. S. Goodlett, brought to us a wonderful message of life, "What All the World Seeketh," Haggai 2nd chapter, 8th verse.

The B. Y. P. U. was open at 6:30 p. m. by the president, Mr. J. Henderson. The B. Y. P. U. is an enjoyable part of our Sunday routine.

Evening services began at 8 o'clock. Our pastor brought us a short sermonette, "Cheerful Life," Acts 27 - 22.

Visitors and friends are always welcome to worship with us at the ethel Baptist Church.

Rev. F. S. Goodlett, pastor Mrs. J. C. Collins, reporter

METROPOLITAN SPIRITUAL 1818 North 24th Street

Sunday school was opened at the usual time 1:30 p. m. by the Supt. Mrs. Arnold. Rev. Johnson preached a very fine and interesting sermon. The fire was burning. His text was from Genesis 6th chapter, 7th verse, and the title was, "It Is Going To Rain."

ST. BENEDICTS PARISH

Fater James C. Daly, pastor of St. Benedict's church, was among those who enjoyed the annual play and entertainment given by the children of St. Benedict's school which was produced last Monday night under the splendid direction of Sister Mary Edith, Sis'er Jean Marie and Miss Kirkpatrick.

The largest crowd that has been seen at St. Benedict's for a number of years, filled the church auditorium to overflowing.

It is hard to say which of the teachers sponsored the most interesting part of the programme; little tots were simply adorable in their cunning performance, with their customary blunders that are far more charming than perfection. The dance around the Christmas tree by the of the intermediate grades was a splendid and beautiful contribution, but I think a shade of preference went to the boys in their "Pucker Up and Whistle" song and their tapping numbers. Edward Brown, a nephew of the notable Sam Brown, and a former attendant of St. Benedict's school, was applauded by all for this professional ability of tap dancing, as were the two younger boys from Sister Mary Edith's department kept the audience laughing and applauding for fifteen minutes.

The splendid address by Fater Wilwerding, roundtd out a very complete and satisfactory programme that led up to the grand entrance of Santa Claus in person at 9:30. This very loyal person arrived in spite of a very hazardous trip through a dense fog,—something like the one that we waded through in Omaha last Monday morning—He started out ith every good intention of arriving in time to see the children's programme, but this being his first trip of the season 'things just sort of went wrong, here and there, and then that terrible fog—He had to make a forced landing which delayed him for several hours. Fortunately he had thought to send his pack on ahead by a good helper. So the toys and well filled bags of goodies and boxes of crackerjack were already at the tree when he arrived. True to his great and kindly heart, he would not intrust the distribution of these to anyone but himself and how those little faces lighted up with smiles of joy at this special treat of a hand shake, a gentle pat or a pinch of the cheek from Santa himself. There was 140 of the children present.

A great deal said about to evening's entertainment, but for fear of infringing upon the generosity of this space we will now say that we are grateful to those who came, those ho helped to fill these little hearts wit happiness, and to dear kind Santa for his very considerate visit and we wisu you alla Merry Christmas and a Happy and prosperous New Year.

Dundee Choir Sings at Hillside

On Sunday afternoon, December 23rd at 3 o'clock to the minute, the great, vested choir from the Dundee Presbyterian Church, will give a Christmas Recital at the Hillside Presbyterian Church

How to Get Rid of GRAY HAIR Look Years Younger

When you can change your gray, faded, or streaked hair to its natural youthful soft color in less than half an hour—

And do it at home without fear of harm to the hair—why go on looking years older than you should look. Rap—I-Dol is the real, original hair color—18 shades to choose from it is so supremely good that the best beauty shops in all the large cities in the world feature it. Rap—I-Dol will not wash off or fade nor affect maceil or permanent waves.

Go to any Beaton Drug Store today and choose the shade you need—you'll be a happy woman if you do—for a long time to come.

30t and Ohio streets. The choir is directed by Mr. Harry Cooper the great voice teacher of Omaha. In his choir there are some of the best singers of Omaha. The pastor of the Hillside church Rev. J. S. Williams, has arranged for this recital as his contribution in bringing goodwill and peace to the hearts of the music lovers of the northside at this special season of the year. There fore, there will be no admission charge, but a Christmas offering will be taken.

Rev. and Mrs. B. C. Winchester of Lincoln will spend a few days in the city during the holidays.
