

MT MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH
24th and Ohio Streets

Sunday was a big day at Mt. Moriah beginning with the Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.
The pastor preached at 11 o'clock. The Willing Workers Group under the direction of Sister L. Lewis and Bro. J. L. Betts presented a program at the B. Y. P. U. hour. The success of this service was far above those of previous years. At 7:30 the house was filled to capacity. After the formal opening a Cantata "Bethlehem's Holy Night" directed by Rev. J. S. Williams, was rendered by the White Gift Chorus. Following this an address on the Gift of Self, Service and Substance, was delivered by Mrs. Anna Spese Rice, after which the pastor, Rev. Jones extended the invitation prefaced with fitting remarks in the following manner:
The first invitation was the Gift of self to which many responded, including the children and a large number of mothers brought their babies to be blessed. The mothers processional was led by Mrs. Lydia Rogers. The Second invitation was for the Gift of Service at which time those for reconsecration came led by the deaconess board of which Mrs. L. Lewis is president. Next came the invitation for Gift of Substance. First to come was the ushers who presented the baskets filled with nuts, fruit, and candy and other useful articles. Those were led by the president, Bro. L. C. Clark. Then came the general processional conducted by Under taker Myers and everyone present came and presented their gifts. The chorus robed in white gowns and white caps followed by the ushers in uniform closed the processional. This scene presented a beautiful spectacle. Every part of the service was impressive and inspiring. The elaborate decoration was planned and supervised by the pastor's wife, Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Wright, the church organist, presided at the organ. Mr. Earl Frazier arranged the lighting system. Mr. Ed Beasley is president of the very efficient choir. On Sunday night the 23rd the choir presented a program "The New Born King arranged and directed by Mrs. F. P. Jones, assisted by the organist Mrs. Bradford. On Monday night the 24th the Sunday school gave a program and Christmas tree.

Everyone who will come are welcome to all our services.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH
22nd and Seward Streets

Our Sunday school opened at its usual time with the superintendent presiding. Each class seemed to enjoy the lesson of the Christ Child. Our pastor Rev. E. H. Hilson brought the message at 11 a. m. His subject was, "Seeking The Lord Early." He spared no pains in delivering the gospel. He stated that one should seek the Lord before any calamities come upon him. The B. Y. P. U. opened at 5:30 p. m. with the president in charge. The chairman of the program committee gave a surprise program. Two numbers were given by the Salem quartet in honor of Mrs. E. H. Hilson. Sunday night our choir gave a Cantata entitled "Chimes of the Holy Night." The choir stand was beautifully decorated in red blue and white. The outstanding features were, soprano solo by Mrs. M. Fort, duet by Miss Thos and Mrs. Porter, tenor solo by Mr. R. Turner, Bass solo by Mr. Frank Wesley. It was enjoyed by all. Mr. C. L. Young, the director, is to be commended for his splendid work. The B. Y. P. U. Sunday School program and Christmas tree were on Monday night.

Our pastor Rev. Hilson delivered a Christmas sermon at 6:00 a. m. Christmas morning. We are glad to announce that Mrs. Hilson is in the city. After an absence of four years, she was given a hearty welcome by friends and members of Salem.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for December 30

TESTS OF A CHRISTIAN

LESSON TEXT—1 John 3:1-12. GOLDEN TEXT—Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.—1 John 5:1.

PRIMARY TOPIC—How to Show We Love God.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Sons and Daughters of God.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Christ Helps Us to Live Our Best.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Victory Through Christ.

The purpose of John in this epistle is to furnish criteria by which one may know beyond a peradventure that he has eternal life (see 1 John 5:13). In working out his purpose he sets down a definite thesis in chapter 1, verses 1-4, which is that eternal life was manifested to credible witnesses—John and his fellow apostles—in the person of Jesus Christ. Through the incarnation Jesus Christ has become identified with the human race, so that those who believe in him are introduced to the Father, resulting in a vital fellowship. The saved one has fellowship with God, or fellowship in the life eternal. The entire epistle is devoted to the exhibition of tests by which one can surely know that he is saved. The lesson unit for today is the culmination of these tests.

I. Believes That Jesus is the Christ (v. 1).
Such faith is the proof of regeneration. He not merely believes in the ethics of Jesus, but that the historic Jesus is the Messiah of God—the Son of God come in the flesh. The one lacking this belief is still unregenerate, regardless of his pretensions. Jesus Christ is the giver of eternal life. Yea, he is, in his very essential being, eternal life. Therefore, the one who believes in him as manifest in the flesh is born of God.

II. Loves the Children of God (v. 1).
The one born of God loves those who are born of God. The unfaithful test of fellowship with God is that we love those who are born of God. Love for God shows itself in loving God's children.

III. Keeps God's Commandments (vv. 2, 3).
This is filial, not legal, obedience. We do not keep God's commandments in order to become his children, but because we possess his nature. Obedience is the unfailing proof of the divine birth.

IV. Overcomes the World (v. 4, 5).
Conflict for the regenerate man is absolutely certain. The world's ways are opposed to God. By the world is meant all that is opposed to God. It includes all the lusts of the flesh which respond to the enticements of the world. It also includes Satan, the prince of this world. The one who believes that Jesus is the son of God is born of God and has Jesus Christ living in him. Therefore, he overcomes the world, because he has in him one who is greater than Satan. Faith in Jesus Christ is the weapon by means of which victory is realized. The victorious life is the absolute test of being a Christian.

V. The Grounds of Christian Belief (vv. 6-12).
Since victory over the world is secured by faith in Jesus as the Son of God, it is important that we know the grounds upon which such belief is based. The believer's faith rests upon the threefold testimony of the Spirit, the water, and the blood.

1. The Spirit is the Holy Spirit, the first member of the Godhead. His supreme business is to make Christ real. This he does to the spirit of the believer (Rom. 8:16), and to the world, through the Word of God and through the lives and testimony of believers.

2. The water is his baptism at the Jordan. By baptism he formally entered upon his mediatorial work. It was here that the Spirit came upon him in the form of a dove, and that the Father acknowledged him as his Son.

3. The blood is that of the Cross. In the act of baptism he dedicated himself to that task of making full a righteousness for man on the cross of Calvary. This is doubtless what is meant by "filling with all righteousness," with baptism and the crucifixion, with that they signified, were proofs that Jesus was the very Son of God. The witness of the cross of Christ is still gripping and saving men.

TALKING LETTERS THE LATEST MEANS OF CORRESPONDENCE

Did you ever hear a letter talking?

Well, they have at the Municipal University of Omaha, where the talking letters are the newest form of correspondence carried on by the students of Dr. V. Royce West's foreign language dept.

Not only are the students sending talking letters to friends in foreign countries, but they are also mailing letters that sing and play music.

Just as talking pictures are revolutionized the screen, talking letter will change the world's correspondence methods. Municipal university students, who are making the test claim.

To Solomon Susman, 21 year old pre-medical student, goes the honor of inventing talking letters. Because of his hobby of corresponding with cads in foreign countries Susman thought of the idea of taking letters in his German class, where the language is taught with the aid of a dictaphone and a phonograph.

He priced a dictaphone cylinder with Dr. West recently, but after the professor discovered the students reason in wanting a cylinder, Dr. West offered them to him free. His offer is open to other foreign language students too, with the condition that students dictate their talking letters in the foreign language they are studying.

Susman's first vocalized letter will go to Mathilda Da Capitoulo of Lisbon, Portugal. Although he has never seen the Portuguese teacher, he has corresponded with her for the past five years, meeting her by chance through a chain letter. While the both attended high school. His letter to her will be in German and contains a violin serenade. The serenade speaks German, Spanish, French, English, Russian and Hebrew.

During his high school days, Susman corresponded with more than 50 persons in various parts of the world. Now he only writes to six because his school work and orchestra jobs take up most of his time. Susman is working his way through school by playing evenings with dance orchestras. He plays violin, saxophone and clarinet.

Dr. West is much pleased with the talking letter idea, stating it just fits in with the foreign language department's program. He suggests the students ought to try his new letter "talkies" in the language they are learning, and the foreign correspondents should listen to the pronunciation and general usage of the language and then make suggestions on how the letters could improve.

"It will be of mutual educational value to the students on both sides of the ocean," Dr. West said.

FERA MAKES OPENING FOR COLORED RECREATIONAL DIRECTORS

Administrator Harry L. Hopkins pointed out this week that a wide-being provided for needy unemployed white-collar workers under the work-relief programs of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration. A review of recent announcements from Jacob Baker Assistant Administrator in charge of the Work Division, calling attention of State administrators throughout the country to new or revised working procedures to be used in a number of emergency educational projects, is suggestive of the wide range of community activities, both possible and now under way.

A popular and general program under the heading "Recreational Leadership for Urban League Centers," limited to cities of 30,000 population or over includes the organization of classes in athletics and nature study. The major aim is to promote constructive use of leisure time and to contribute toward a larger life for millions of American citizens without regard to race, creed or color.

Sponsorship of such programs is taken by one public agency generally the local recreation department or park department. Paint and equipment, including small office space, supply room, telephone, desk, files, literature, required number of chairs, piano, and typewriter are usually contributed by the responsible by the responsible agency. Song sheets, scores, costume materials, making up balls, games and craft materials beads, paper, wax, scrap leather, inner tubes, pins, mucilage, and serapwood are also supplied either by private donation or the city, county, and State departments.

To send a letter to any part of the world, it is necessary merely to attach a 5-cent stamp or its equivalent. The only exception is the 3-cent rate between the United States and Canada and the rate of like amount between Spain and the Americas. The revenue from the postage goes always to the country in which the stamp is purchased, for every nation delivers free and uncensored mail delivered within its own borders. One country charges another only when it transports for that country mail addressed to a third country.

Paintings Traced in Arrowheads
Mounted upon Bristol board by means of small wires, Indian arrowheads have been arranged by one collector to resemble famous paintings. Two of the most popular groups are reproductions of the Remingtons, "The Last Trail" and "Fleeta to the Great Spirit." One group resembles a life-sized bear, another follows the lines of a large buffalo and a third depicts an Indian chief and his squaw.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

The City of London
England's capital city of London, unlike most other great cities of the world, has no centralized government. The metropolis is divided into several areas, oldest of which is the city of London, ruled by the city corporation, a municipal body which clings to ancient customs and traditions. Although the city of London is but a small area, some of England's greatest commercial institutions are located there.

"Gates of Sorrow"
Babel Mandeb a body of water with a name meaning "gates of sorrow" is a strait connecting the Indian ocean and the Red sea. It separates the southeastern part of Arabia from the continent of Africa. Near the African coast are the volcanic islets, Eight Brothers. The strait offers so many dangers to small vessels that the name meaning gates of sorrow was given to it.

Names of Continents
The two Americas are usually regarded as two separate land masses or continents. Similarly, physical geographical regards Europe and Asia as one great land mass, Eurasia, though politically they are separate continents. The great land mass around the South pole is generally considered a separate continent, Antarctica.

Church Steeples
Church steeples are believed by some to have descended from the tower of Babel, architecturally, the ancient idea being to approach heaven as nearly as possible in worship.

"Kith and Kin"
"Kith and kin" are to be found among the old Anglo-Saxon words. Kith means known or acquainted with while kin refers to tribe, family, clan, relatives, etc. Thus we derive the above expression which literally means "friends and relations."

Oldest Animal
The oldest animal is probably the Galapagos island tortoise. While figures on the longevity of animals are not very accurate, it is estimated that these giant tortoises live to the age of 80 years.

Statue of Aphrodite
A statue of Aphrodite was recently dug up in Athens. The figure was carved in the Fourth century, B. C. Igara excavations also reveal a bare incised room with a well, and senate dining room.

AN OPEN LETTER
Omaha, Nebraska.
Dec. 23, 1934

Dear Editor:
Omaha Guide - Sir:

I have just read in the paper where J. T. English, County Atty., has appointed all of his aides. Despite the fact that his appointments appear Democratic, they are not. He appointed an Italian Chief Deputy, and on the staff every nationality that is outstanding is represented except the Negro. I am now wondering where all these Democrats are now that formerly supported the ticket out in this end of town.

You could not hear anything but a lot of noise of them before the campaign was over. Now you hear nothing of them at all. Why could not Mr. English recognize the 4500 Negro votes by putting Atty. Davis or some other Democrat on his staff? We must not start out supporting the Democrats for the fun of it. We must have something to say about the policy of the party or we will no support it. The time has come for us to fight like hell for the things that rightfully belong to us civically, politically, and otherwise. Just because the public school system gets away with "murder" so to speak by spending all our tax money and not even hiring a school janitor not to say anything about our Colored teachers. There is no reason why the Negroes have to go out and support a Democrat for office for a pleasant look at campaign time. We supported the Republican Party for nothing for 69 years and they reach the point where they thought they owned us and body. Now we must start out supporting this new party with the understanding that if we are good enough to help them, we certainly should be good enough to enjoy some of the fruits of our own labor and I am asking you to let Mr. English know that he has not run for office the last time, and we certainly shall remember how he failed to remember us. The things above mentioned are the reasons why I have always fought so hard for Negro leadership in this second ward politically instead of white leadership as Mac Baldrige is trying to pull off on us. We should arouse ourselves to the importance of the question. It is one that is robbing our children of an opportunity to advance. I've pledged myself to carry on a campaign that will mean trouble for those who use us, but who never support us.

Yours very truly,
Henry W. Norton
