In Memory of
FRANCIS RUTH COLE

May God grant her soul eternal peace.
From the earth each day
God gathers His bouquet
To brighten the Heavenly Shores,
So on January 11, 1934
He called an Angel bright and fair
And said, "I have searched everywhere
But the flower I need is there."
So, the Angel on the wings of love
Carried her to the seat above.
We grieve to see her go,
For we have learned to love her so,
We shall miss her more each day,
Yet isn't it happy though to know
Through out the great world of day
She is a flower in God's bouquet.
Myrtle Goodlow, An Aunt.

High Spots of North 24th Street and What Others Think

TO THE OMAHA GUIDE

Elections may come, elections may go, but North 24th Street gets no consideration. North 24th Street is quite a business street. Why not have a few more street lights and of modern type, and other improvements to make it look more buisness-like.

MR. MAYOR: How about you paying us a little visit some evening.
