Trojan Club News Hello, Folks!

Well, you should have been there. Where? At the Trojan's Innerclub Banquet. It was worth the pr.ce alone to see the beautiful tables, and dinner gowns that were displayed there. The aroma of flowers reminded one of spring, the beautiful gowns reminded one of Paris and the entre affair gave one a bird's e." view of an imagnaty paradise.

The toasts from the var.ous clubs voiced their sentiment on behalf of the Trojan Girls. Mr. W. L. Myers made a wonderful toast-master, and the way he went about things, I should think he'd quit his present position and become a radio announcer. The Trojans had you been there, would have reminded you of the kn ghts of chivalry when men and women were mighty proud of it, when they gallantly gave up their places at the table for some guests who were standing. The Trojans regretted very much this short-

The judges of the most beautifully decorated table made their decision on the Sunday Musical Club, which is directed by Rev. J. S. Williams. The pr.ze, as we have told you before, was a silver loving cup. Their club name will be engraved on it. In brief I'll try to give you an idea of how the winning table looked. Starting from the center of the table was a beautiful harp with shiny, silvery material. It was made like the harp that David played on in the days of old. Leading from this beautiful harp were strings with notes leading to each place card. There were also cut flowers on each end of the table. Of course, I can't go into all the details, but you can
