

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH

In spite of the sub-zero weather, a number of the faithful members came to service last Sunday. Rev. Bryant preached both morning and evening.

The Captains of the groups for the rally are trying to get their groups lined up to do some great work. Some of the captains started out their trips to New York by way of auto by paying some money last Sunday. Those who did not report, say it is not the ones who pay early will win this race, but the ones who pay all the way to the end.

You are always welcome to St. John. St. John feels she has one of the best choirs and ministers in Omaha. Come out and see for yourself.

THE METROPOLITAN SPIRITUAL CHURCH

Sunday morning was another great feasting time at the Metropolitan Spiritual Church. Although it was very cold, the pastor brought to us a great message from St. Luke, 4:18. The subject was "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel."

The Sunday school is in a great race for new membership under the leadership of Sister A. G. Arnold. Every Sunday evening at six o'clock we have a great time discussing God's word under the direction of Mr. L. Collier. Our pastor brought to us another great gospel message at eight o'clock service, the subject of which was "Press On." The fire is always burning at the Metropolitan Spiritual Church. We thank God that He sent Rev. Johnson to our city. He has been our pastor for three years, and we can truthfully say that we find no fault with him.

We are now in the midst of a great revival, conducted by Elder Massey from New York. Great meetings full of fire are expected each night. January 28th, Professor L. L. Boswell, director of the National Spiritual Congress, a preacher, prophet, Gospel-singer, pianist and organist, will be with us for a week of great service for God. All ministers and laymen are invited to all services. Come to Metropolitan and have a great feasting time.

MORNING STAR BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school was opened at 9 a. m. with the Superintendent, Mrs. A. J. Johnson in charge. All teachers were at their post of duty.

At 11 o'clock Devotional service was held with the pastor in the pulpit. He chose for his subject, "A definite Decision," John 9:4.

At 6 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. was opened by the president. A splendid program was rendered by Live Wire Group No. 3. The finance banner was awarded to Old Reliable No. 2, women's group.

At 8 p. m. the pastor again delivered to us another, the subject of which was, "A Blessed Trust," Psalms 84:12. Every Monday and Thursday night at 7 p. m. the Banks Bible School is held. Come out, you are welcome.

Heart To Heart Club

The Heart To Heart club met at the home of the president, Mrs. V. B. Lewis. A splendid meeting was held. Coffee and sandwiches were served.

Willing Workers

The Willing Workers met at the home of Mrs. J. Bryant 2414 Franklin Street. Mrs. Mary Williams is the president.

Don't forget the musical Sunday, January 27th at 3 p. m., under the auspices of the Choir, Mr. Lee McGee, president.

Mrs. W. C. Morris, who has been confined with a cold, is able to be out again.

Come to the Morning Star. You are welcome.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday morning was well attended, and highly enjoyed by all present, despite the weather's effort to defer all church goers. Superintendent Reagans opened Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.

Although convalescing, Rev. Hilson pastor, rendered a very touching sermon at 11 o'clock, from Jeremiah, 31:1-14. His proclamation on "Home Coming" was very inspiring. In speaking of how the Israelites had strayed from God, he also reprimanded the slothful Christians. The sermon really meant the restoration of the children of God.

At 5:30 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. was opened by its president, Mr. William Cooper. In a very impressive manner the program chairman attempted to divine the most learned in the Bible, the men or women. She stated there seemed to be no difference, with the exception that all needed to read the Good Book often and more thoroughly. This "Bible Evening" program was sponsored by Group No. 7. Next Sunday there is to be another enjoyable program.

At 8 p. m. an agreeable meeting was held, and Rev. Hilson did not neglect to demonstrate his most essential vision with his training. "For the ablest men are those who are able to summon the most enthusiasm."

We were pleased with the many members and visiting friends present Sunday.

Lewis as the speaker of the hour. Come out and enjoy a good program of real talent.

COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

Mr. Cayton made his Omaha headquarters at the Omaha Urban League where he conferred with groups on Sunday afternoon and Monday. He left Monday evening for Chicago.

Mrs. Elaine McGee, a teacher under the FERA, working under the Urban League-Mid City Center, is conducting classes in Public Speaking each Monday 7:30 to 8:30 at the Mid-City building. The classes conducted by Mrs. McGee will give special emphasis to the preparation of the speech and extemporaneous speaking. Persons active in Church, social, or Club work will find this class quite helpful. Both men and women are invited to attend. There is no fee charged.

Mr. Budd DeLoach, theatrical and radio star has recently been added to the staff of the Mid-City Community Center. Mr. DeLoach will be special instructor in tap-dancing, and will assist in the production of dramatics. Both children and adults interested in Mr. DeLoach's classes may register now.

SENIOR LEAGUE BASKETBALL

The results of the North Omaha Senior League games, played weekly at the Omaha University gym, turned out to be more thrilling and close than was expected by the paltry group of spectators who viewed the games. Under a bedlam of frenzied yells the boys from the Mid-City marched down the floor to score successively against the "Aces". The final score was Mid-City 27, Aces 20.

The second game started out in a dull system of passes which were destined to end up in a thrilling race for victory. The Hunter's All-Stars took the lead at the beginning, but the players for the Urban League were not to be daunted by this. They made a last half rally, and a long shot by Dixon barely failed missing the basket on the whistle blew. The game ended with Hunter's All-Stars 14, and the Urban League 12.

MR. OWSLEY RECUPERATING

Mr. Wm. Owsley, 25th and Lake Streets, who has been confined to bed for the past two months, is now able to sit up a little and to receive visitors. During the time Mr. Owsley has been ill, his friends and co-workers of the Paxton Hotel have been very kind to him and thoughtful of his wife, for which both he and she wish to thank them all. Perhaps Mr. Owsley will soon be able to be out again.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

The problem of the hour in every section of the United States is the enforcement of the law. Such a wave of crime as never before has seemingly enveloped the whole country. The president of these United States has been aroused to its immensity and every official connected with the law enforcement machinery from the Administrator of Justice Office in Washington down to the constabulary in the smallest hamlet and village, have with renewed vigor and determination resolved to put a stop to it by using every means and agency within their power to apprehend and punish the culprits.

The appalling gravity of the situation can be seen by the calling of the Crime Conference in Washington by the President a few months ago. The Negro as a race may be complimented on the fact that up to the present, they have not developed any Dillingers, Burkes, Barrows and other public enemy gangsters in their race, but they have those among their group who are in a way, as destructive to the best interests of the rest of them as the gangsters above mentioned are to the peace and security of the nation at large. Especially was this true in Omaha in 1934.

Twelve Negroes Murdered By Negroes

From January 1, 1934, to January 1, 1935, twelve Negroes were murdered by Negroes in Omaha, averaging one for each month, and this too, in a community that can boast of only about 14,000 Negroes. In fact the number of Negroes murdered was exceeded by only a small margin, if any, by that of the whites, who number in population over 200,000. It is evident by this that some step must be taken to safeguard the peace and security of the citizens who comprise this group, and it is also self-evident that it must, and by right, should, be done by the Negroes themselves.

A few weeks ago a meeting was called by some of the Negroes of the city for the purpose of taking some steps to curb the type of Negro, known as the "killer" in his lust for blood, and from that meeting an organization was formed to be known hereafter as the Citizens' Law Enforcement Committee. It is understood that the purpose of this committee, primarily, is to work and do all within its power to see that those charged with crimes of murder shall be properly and vigorously prosecuted so that peaceful, law-abiding citizens may safely walk the streets of our city.

SOCIAL NOTES OF LINCOLN, NEBR.

Mrs. Arvella Bangs-Moore, wife of the famous Orchestra leader, Grant Moore, returned home to Lincoln this week to the bedside of her ill mother, Mrs. Banks. She was accompanied by a friend, Miss Marion Abernathy, of Chicago, who is a nightly attraction at the Grand Terrace Cafe. Many parties and social fetes were given by Mrs. Banks' many friends for her and her guest.

Tom White is becoming quite professional at his new party-time occupation—Cocktail shaking.

By virtue of his passing such a trying test with so little effort, and his innumerable conquests in other fields—all of which I wouldn't mention—Ralph Adams has unanimously become Lincoln's "Play-Boy."

Tip End of Cuba The tip end of Cuba, near Havana, has the imaginary line of the "Cancer—the region of eternal sunshine."

Miss Margaret Dallas is here from Chicago visiting her mother.

Mr. Woodrow Macklin, formerly of Omaha, who, for the past three years has resided in Chicago, is back in the city again for an indefinite stay.

Miss Alberta "Babe" Brown was confined to her home with pneumonia for sixteen days. She is up and back on the job at Mason & Knox Cafe now.
