

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH "The Friendly Church." Rev. L. P. Bryant, Pastor.

It was good to be at St. John's last Sunday when the spirit was running so high. Rev. Bryant was at his best in spite of his previous illness.

The Sunday school started out the day by launching its security program for the young people. It was a red letter day for our young people. They were in charge of the Sunday school. Why not come out and make yourself a part of a growing Sunday school.

103 Psalms at the morning service. He took as his subject, "The Bundle of Benefits." He brought many good thoughts in this sermon.

Some that should be especially remembered are as follows: Try to count all the blessings that come to you from God and you can not do so; but you can get the special ones and bundle them up and you will find the most of them refer to sin and what God would do with Humanity if all the sins were taken out of them and the world. The cause of trouble is sin. Move sin out, and you will get the greatest results. We should pray more, because the prayers of the righteous prevaileth much, and sin brings destruction.

God Crowns you with his loving kindness and tender mercy, which is the lightest thing God can give you. Then you should use it and drink from the fountain if you are to grow in grace. The church is no so strong as it would be if we who claim to be Christians would live the life we should live.

At the evening services the choir gave its regular Fourth Sunday night all request program.

There will be a great treat in store for you next Sunday, March 31, especially in the afternoon and night.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock all the leading choirs of Omaha will give a ten or twelve minute address on, "The Relation of a Choir to the Public Worship." Rev. F. P. Jones is a very able speaker and you will miss a treat if you don't hear this splendid program. Sunday night will be known as the Sunday school night. This will be no Easter program, but it will be a very splendid one. One that you will always think of as one of the greatest events of your life.

There were many visitors present last Sunday. The cards passed in were as follows: Mrs. Lulu Gilbert, Council Bluffs, Ia., Mr. Frederick Walker, Kansas City, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. R. Robert and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Taylor of Omaha. There were others whose cards were not passed in, but you are always welcome at St. John's, and asked to make it your church home while visiting in the city.

The rally will close the first Sunday in April; so see your captain and pay your assessment before the lists are read out on the day of the closing. The race is still on with Miss Offutt in the lead, Mrs. Georgia Borders, second, and Mrs. Mattie Johnson, third. Come to Church the next few Sundays and watch them move.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH 22nd and Seward St. Rev. E. H. Hilson, Pastor

There were many wholesome thoughts imported to us during the review of the Sunday school lesson, by brother Reagans and Elder Pettis. Sunday school opened at its regular time, with John Rosenbaugh, in charge.

Rev. Pettis, a wonderful speaker, preached a very helpful sermon, on "Your Own Salvation," found in Philippians, 2:12.

The choir and the Hillside quartette will also furnish music for the service. Guests are asked to be on time. In the evening at 8 o'clock will be a moving picture show, entitled: "The Man Who Had Seen God." Everyone is cordially invited to these services.

CHRIST TEMPLE CHURCH 26th and Burdette Sts. Rev. S. J. McIntyre, pastor

The Sunday school was opened at 9:30 a. m. and the lesson was enjoyed by all present. There was a large attendance for the 11 o'clock service, and our pastor brought a most inspiring sermon, the subject of which was "Christ." The passage of scripture was, "Song of Solomon," second chapter, "He Has Called You Out of Darkness Unto His Marvelous Light." We were very glad indeed to have in our midst, Rev. O. J. Burkhardt, former pastor of Christ Temple, who delivered the evening sermon, the subject of which was, "Truly, My Soul Waiteth on the Lord From Whence Cometh My Salvation." Many good things were said.

Friends and members of the church extend sincere wishes for the speedy recovery of Mrs. Mary Kinney, mother of the Young Peoples prayer band.

Group No. 14 invites you to attend a musical program and treasure hunt at the Mid-city Center, Monday evening, April 1, at 7:30.

We are giving our friends a special invitation to come and visit us.

Edna Pankey, reporter.

ST. BENEDICT'S PARISH NOTES

We sincerely apologize to those friends whom we were unable to reach and notify about the change of plans regarding the dinner, and who came over last Sunday; won't you please come back this Sunday? We would certainly appreciate the favor. Our dinner was postponed from the 24th to the 31st. A large crowd is expected, so it would help matters for us a great deal if you would phone in your reservation. Call WE-5223, St. Benedict's Church. We are beginning the collection of used clothing, furniture and what not, for our May rummage sale. Anything that you can give will be appreciated, and we will call for it if you like.

The Ladies of the Altar Society are making the prescribed visit to the different churches, to gain the Holy Year Indulgence. They visited their Parish church, and St. Mary Magdelene's Church Sunday, in a body, and will continue with their visit to the Cathedral and the church of the Holy Cross, Sunday, April 7th. Eleven members of the society, and several parishioners compose the group.

The Lenten devotions are being well attended, but there is yet room for more. You are urged to attend these devotions regularly as a penitient sacrifice for the season.

Don't forget the chicken dinner Sunday, March 31st from 12 to 8 p. m.; supervised by Mrs. T. P. Mahammit.

MORNING STAR BAPTIST BAPTIST CHURCH. Rev. F. B. Banks, Pas or. Mrs. G. W. Stromile, Reporter.

Sunday school was opened at 9 p. m. with Superintendent A. J. Johnson in charge. All teachers were present. A real live Sunday school was held and enjoyed by all. At 11 a. m. an old fashioned devotional service was held. The pastor, Rev. F. B. Banks then took charge. His subject was, "A Spirit Diet." Text 4th chapter, phillistines; 8th verse.

At 3 p. m. ordination service was held. Rev. Z. E. McGee delivered the sermon. His subject was taken from I Timothy, third chapter. Deacons Walter Smith and George Smith were the two ordained. A real spiritual feast, was held.

At 6 p. m. B. Y. P. U. opened by the president. A very lively service was held. At 8 p. m., Rev. Banks preached another great sermon. Subject: "Take a Stand." Lesson, Text. "Put on Your Whole Armour of God, That Ye May Be Able to Stand Against the Wiles of the Devil." All clubs are having their regular meetings and are having very good success.

Come to Morning Star, you are welcome. PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST Rev. P. J. Price, pastor. Mrs. Bessie King, clerk.

Sunday at 9:30 a. m. the superintendent, Mrs. Oliver, enrolled fifty. Our Sunday school has improved very much, under our new superintendent and we also have such a nice group of teachers. We are having our automobile rally Wednesday evening at the church. We had a "Hell and Heaven," entertainment at the home of Mrs. Blueford on Binney Street.

In February the Sunday school had a Valentine Tea which was very successful. The pastor, Rev. P. J. Price preached the 11 o'clock sermon from the 9th chapter of St. John, 9th verse, the subject of which was "Spiritual Life." Our slogan for this month is: "Do Unto All Men That You Should Have Them Do Unto You."

The 3 o'clock service was conducted by the Sunday school, with Rev. Wilhite, of Missouri, officiating. His text was taken from Hebrew 11:16, the subject: "I Don't Like My Situation. I Believe I Will Move." The sermon was very timely and spiritual.

Miss Katherine Wheat is the key girl for the B. Y. P. U. They gave a St. Patrick's Day Tea, at the home of Mrs. Wheat, and it was very nice. The decorations were beautiful, and the luncheon was grand. This tea was sponsored by Mrs. McIntosh.

Mrs. Katherine Wheat has been the Sunday school secretary for three years and hasn't missed a Sunday. She is always at her post.

The choir gave a musical program at 8 p. m. A very beautiful number was sung by one of the oldest members of the choir, Mrs. Bostie, accompanied by the choir. Mrs. Lottie Keys, reporter.

Last Thursday night we had a most earnest, interesting and sweet fellowship in the discussion of the opening of the seven seals. We learned that Christ went forth with the gospel conveyed by peace and purity, with authority and defense against wars, calamities, pestilence, sin and death.

Our lesson for Thursday, day will be the sealing of the Servants of God in their Foreheads.

We meet at 2012 N. 27th St. at 7:30 p. m. Everybody welcome. Elder W. I. Irving, teacher and supervisor. Mrs. S. Gorum, reporter.

Lesson for March 31 REVIEW

Lessons From the Life and Letters of Peter.

LESSON TEXT—I Peter 5:6-11; II Peter 3:14-18.

GOLDEN TEXT—But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. II Peter 3:18.

PRIMARY TOPIC—When Peter Was Old. JUNIOR TOPIC—Learning With Peter.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Peter Became a Great Leader. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—What Peter Did to Spread Christianity.

The method of review is always determined by the grade and capacity of the class and the genius of the teacher. The suggestions made largely apply to the senior and adult classes. A good method of review will be to cast up to view the following great experiences in Peter's life:

I. Peter's First Meeting With Christ (John 1:30-42).

This involves his conversion and call. As a result of the Baptist's testimony two of John's disciples left him and followed Jesus. Andrew, one of these, when he knew Christ because of having abode with him, brought his brother Peter to Jesus. Andrew desired that Peter should have a knowledge of Jesus, not merely through his testimony, but through personal experience. Andrew did a great piece of work for Peter became one of the pillars of the church. Later Peter was called with Andrew to become fishers of men (Mark 1:16-18). The first call of Jesus was for salvation because he heeded the call to salvation, he now is called to definite service.

II. Peter's Great Confession (Matt. 16:13-28).

The disciples had been with the Lord for several years. They had heard his wonderful words and witnessed his mighty works. And since Jesus was soon to go to the cross, it was necessary for the disciples to have a true conception of him, in order to help them into the right conception, Christ provoked this confession from Peter as the spokesman for the group of disciples. Peter confessed Christ's messiahship and deityship. The burning question then, as well as for the present hour, is, "What think ye of Christ?"

III. Peter's Denial (Mark 14:27-72).

A better statement would be "Peter's Downfall." Peter's confession showed him to occupy a high position. From that lofty eminence to the depth of emphasizing a lie by means of foul oaths is a long way. The steps are clear and should constitute a solemn warning to all to day:

- 1. Over-weening self-confidence (vv. 29-32). 2. Sleeping at the post of duty (vv. 32-37). 3. Neglect of prayer (v. 38). 4. Service in the energy of the flesh (v. 47). 5. Following Jesus afar off (v. 54). 6. Seeking comfort among the Lord's enemies (v. 67). 7. Open denial (vv. 68-72). Peter's trouble really began when he shrank from the way of the cross.

IV. Peter's Restoration (John 20:1-10; 21:1-19).

As there were seven steps in Peter's downfall, so there were seven steps in his restoration.

- 1. Christ's prayer for Peter (Luke 22:31, 32). 2. The look of Jesus (Luke 22:31, 62). 3. Christ's message through the women (Mark 16:7). 4. A personal interview with the risen Lord (Luke 24:34). 5. Peter's open confession of love (John 21:11-17). 6. His work given back (John 21:17, 18). 7. Willingness to suffer for Christ (John 21:18, 19).

V. Peter at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-42).

Peter, with the rest of the disciples, came into a new experience at Pentecost. They came to know the outpouring of the Holy Spirit as the fulfillment of Joel's prophecy (Joel 2:28-32).

VI. The Conversion of Cornelius (Act 10:1-48).

While Peter had the definite experience of Pentecost, he had not yet come to know the real meaning of the church. He was ignorant of that which God revealed through Paul (Eph. 3:1-5). He knew that a tremendous change had come. He saw the old order passing. It required the visitation of God to him by means of the sheet let down from heaven to show that the middle wall of partition had now been broken down and that Gentiles who accepted the finished work of Jesus Christ were accepted on high the same as the Jew.
