

MORNING STAR BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. F. B. Banks, pastor. Sunday School was opened on time with the superintendent, Mrs. A. J. Johnson in charge. The lesson was reviewed by the pastor, Rev. F. Banks. The tea, given at the home of Andrew Johnson Sunday, was a decided success. Misses Ceola Nelson and D. Parker proved themselves quite charming hostesses, who were chosen by Master Johnson to preside over the tea table. The table was very beautiful. Mr. Louis Stromile assisted in making the tea a success. At 11 o'clock devotional service was conducted by Deacon W. Smith and G. W. Wilson, after which the pastor took charge. He chose for his subject "A Concealed Thought," Nehemiah, 2:6. "For how long shall the journey be and when wilt thou return?" The Mission Society held its service at 3 p. m. The mission sermon was preached by the pastor. A splendid paper was given by Mrs. A. M. Jones, "Prayer." The closing remarks were made by the president, Mrs. Lee McGee. At 8 p. m. the pas. or delivered another great message. The subject was, "Oh, ye dry bone, hear the word of the Lord," Ezekiel 3:4. After having such an impressive sermon from our pas. or, Mrs. A. J. Johnson gave eight reasons why she knows Jesus is the Son of God.

The Heart to Heart club met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. A. M. Frederick. Cake and ice cream were served. The willing workers met Thursday with Mrs. G. W. Stromile. Sandwiches and coffee were served. Mrs. M. Williams is the president.

You are invited to come and visit any part of our church services. Come, you are welcome. Mrs. G. W. Stromile, reporter

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH "The Friendly Church."

Rev. L. P. Bryant, pastor. The service at St. John's last Sunday were very good. The Sunday school attendance is growing every Sunday. The doors are always open for those, who wish to join. Why not come and make yourself a member?

Rev. Bryant preached in the morning from this subject. "Stand Still a while." He preached a very strong sermon from that subject.

In the afternoon the leading choir of the city came to St. John's for a Spring Musical. This was a very fine program, about which you will read more in another column of The Guide.

In the evening the Sunday school program was very good. The young people are hoping to see more of their parents at Sunday school in the future.

The rally is still moving on. Mr. L. L. McVay and his Lincoln car group drove ahead of Amanda Offutt last Sunday night, but can they stay? It will only take one more week to find out as the rally closes April 7.

Many visitors were seen in St. John's last Sunday, but did not pass in cards. They are always welcome to St. John's, and invited to make it their church home while in the city.

PACIFIC MOVEMENT EASTERN WORLD INC. 2524 Lake St.

The Pacific Movement met Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with its regular mass meeting. The President, Mr. J. A. Harris, opened the meeting. The topic under discussion was "The Power of Intelligence." Some of the speakers on the subject were Mrs. Faye Washington, Rev. W. Hudson Rev. and Mrs. Tangamora. Many helpful thoughts were brought out by the various speakers.

The juvenile department met Friday evening. The young people are very much interested in their work. Mrs. Hanger was the special guest. She gave a short address on the "Beginning of Education." She also pointed out the struggle the Negro boys and girls contact. She also said that the new youth more than ever should acquire an education. The educational department under the leadership of Rev. Tangamora is doing wonderful work. You are cordially invited to attend the Pacific Movement of the Eastern World, Inc.

Mr. J. A. Harris, President. Minnie Harris, reporter.

CLEAVES TEMPLE C. M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. O. A. Calhoun, pas. or. Sunday March 24 was another grand day at Cleaves Temple. Beside being perfect weather, the spirit in the church seemed to revive. There were several manifestations of the spirit. Three additions in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Blue and Mrs. Minnie Kimbrough last Sunday, made the membership very happy. There is always room for more. "Who-soever Will, let Him Come." The pastor spoke from St. Luke, 24:34. "Then said Jesus, Father forgive them for they know not what they do."

Sunday night his sermon was: "Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise."

Sunday March 30th, the lesson was, "St. John 19:26-27. 'Woman Behold Thy Son.' These sermons constitute a series of present sermons, imbibing the seven last words of Jesus.

On Easter Sunday, Bishop J. A. Hamlett of the First Episcopal district will occupy the pulpit. "The Way of the Cross" a religious pageant, will be given by the membership and the combined choruses of Hillside Presbyterian church and Cleaves Temple will present the Cantata, "Seven Last Words."

Mrs. F. M. Garland who has been ill for some time was able to be out again.

The wedding of Andrew H. Brown and Madam Queen, Thursday March 28th was a very amusing and entertaining affair. The Forward Step Club was very well satisfied with the results, and wish to take this opportunity to thank all who participated in the wedding.

You are welcome to attend our service at all times.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

The services were very inspiring at the Seventh Day Adventist church, 2726 Lake St. Sabbath Day. The pastor gave a very stirring message that moved the hearts of the people. The Sabbath school was largely attended, and after recitation period, an interesting program arranged by Mrs. Nathaniel Scarbrough was given. The offering on the special occasion was then taken up which amounted to $23.58.

The Sunday night musical was a grand success. Mr. J. T. Allison director of the chorus, always does things that way. This program was listened to by a full house, and their new pastor was given a real send off.

Fifteen minutes talk on the program was well taken as he showed the progress of the race in both the North and the South, since the days of freedom. He will speak next Sabbath at 11:00 o'clock service, and then again Sunday night at 7:45 o'clock. All friends and visitors are cordially invited to hear him.

THE METROPOLITAN SPIRITUAL CHURCH

Rev. R. W. Johnson, pastor. Mrs. Georgia Peoples Reporter.

The Sunday school opened at its usual time with the President, Mr. S. Arnold, the Rev. S. Marion, preached a very interesting sermon last night. He is a wonderful speaker. His sermon was from the 14th chapter of St. Matthew, 14th verse. His sermon was "Compassionate Savior." He is taking the place of Rev. Johnson, who is ill.

We all hope and pray for a speedy recovery. Visitors are always welcome.

SHARPS AND FLATS AMONG THE MUSICIANS

Larry Barnett, John Regan and Holsey Dorsey are no longer at the Fox Hunt Club. Oh, didn't you know that they had been playing there. We can hardly keep up with some of our musicians, so please pardon us if sometimes we are a little late with news.

Shorty Gray of the Dixie Ramblers is still celebrating his return to Omaha. We're still wondering, how long will this go on. "No, No, a Thousand Times No!" I'd rather die than say yes said Asa Oglesby when they asked him to sing, so now Sam Grevius is playing trombone (and singing?) with the Dixie Ramblers.

The Dixie Ramblers rehearse every day and we hear that they put on a show that is really up to date.

A unit of sixteen musicians formerly of Desdunes Band made three parades down town last week advertising the picture "Mississippi".

The City Service Orchestra will give a concert April 11th at Zion Baptist Church.

Harry Rooks says it won't be long before he will be pouring oil on all you trumpet players.

The musicians still "riff" around to Jesse's Tavern and Mason & Knox's Cafes seems to be the Musicians Headquarters as they can be found there morning, noon and night.

WEEKLY SHORT SERMON

By Dr. A. G. Bearer
(For the Literary Service Bureau)

JEZEBEL—CHASTE
Text: He took to wife Jezebel.—1 Kings, 16:31.

Here is an illustration of a good name gone wrong. Doubtless it was the belief of the parents of this woman that her life would have been honest, honorable, chaste and contributory to helpfulness. But, both in character and conduct, Jezebel, wife of Ahab, King of Judah, belied her name. As indicated by her actions her character was the antithesis of the name given.

1. She Was Vicious. When Ahab her husband coveted the vineyard of Naboth, Jezebel joined him in this act of covetousness against a neighbor. And covetousness is a cardinal sin.

2. She Was Merciless. Jezebel considered ends—not means. Like cruel men and women of all ages, she was willing to do anything to accomplish her desire. So she had Naboth murdered in order to secure his property for Ahab, the weakling on the throne.

3. She Paid the Penalty. It was a life for a life. It was a verification of "Who sheds a man's blood by man shall his blood be shed." In some cases the penalty is sudden and tragic, like Jezebel's; in others, "The mills of the gods grind slow," but retribution is inevitable. Had this vile woman lived up to the interpretation of her name all would have been well. In this we have a warning to parents and a lesson to all.

Lesson for April 7

THE HEAVENLY FATHER

LESSON TEXT—John 14:3-24.
GOLDEN TEXT—Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. Psalm 103:13.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Heavenly Father.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Heavenly Father.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why We Call God Father.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Fatherhood of God.

The aim in the lessons of this quarter is to place before the pupils of the Sunday school some of the great doctrines of the Christian faith, as set forth in God's Word, with their practical application to the common relations of life.

I. Who is the Heavenly Father (Gen. 1:1).

He is the almighty God who created the universe (Ps. 104:2). He was before all things. God is the infinite and perfect Spirit in whom we live and move and have our being. He is omnipotent, omniscient, and omnipresent. He was not only before all things, but the cause of all things.

II. What the Heavenly Father does.

1. He created the universe (Gen. 1:1; cf. vv. 26, 27). The universe came into being by the will and act of the personal Being called God. Man himself is a creation of God.

2. He has provided salvation for lost men (1 John 4:9). He gave his only Son, that whosoever believeth in him might live through him (John 3:16).

3. He preserves us (Ps. 103:1-14). The preserving mercy of God embraces the following gracious beneficent acts:

a. He forgives all our iniquities (v. 3). This is able to do because of the righteous provision he made for us in the atonement wrought out by Jesus Christ.

b. He heals all our diseases (v. 3). This healing refers to the body and the soul. He first restores man's moral nature and then his physical nature.

c. He redeems the life from destruction (v. 4). Redemption implies the payment of all demands against the debtor.

d. He satisfies the mouth (v. 5). God satisfies all legitimate desires, so that youth is renewed like the eagle's. In redemption man's original capacities are restored to their native vigor.

e. He executes righteousness and judgment (v. 6-12). The wrongs of life are righted and man is thus relieved of the burdens which they entail.

f. He pities his children (vv. 13, 14). The pity of an earthly father is but a faint suggestion of the sympathetic compassion of the heavenly Father.

g. He chastens his children (Heb. 12:5-11).

a. The fact (vv. 5, 6). Every one who is God's spiritual child experiences chastening, as unmistakable evidence of sonship.

b. How it should be received (v. 6-8). It is the token of his love (v. 6).

c. The purpose of (vv. 9-11). It is to bring the child into subjection to induce reverence (v. 9). It is to produce holiness (v. 10). It is to develop fruits of righteousness (v. 11).

5. He cares for his children (Matt. 6:11, 25). The child of God who has come to know his heavenly Father as the almighty Creator, and Preserver, whose very essential being is love, will trust the Father for daily bread without anxiety or fear.

III. The Heavenly Father revealed in Jesus Christ (John 14:8, 9).

The supreme purpose of the coming of the Son of God was to reveal God (John 1:8). Only a being of God's essential nature could reveal him. Jesus Christ, became man in order that he might reveal God to man. Only the one who knows Jesus Christ knows God.

IV. How Men Come to Know God as the Father (John 3:3-6).

It is through regeneration. The new birth is absolutely essential to a knowledge of God as the Father. We are children of God by faith in Jesus Christ (Gal. 3:26).

V. Our Responsibility to the Heavenly Father (Matt. 6:24-34).

The true child who has come to know his Father.

1. Will give him undivided affection (v. 24). The child of God makes the unequivocal choice between the heavenly Father and the world.

2. He will not be anxious about food and clothing, as stated above.

3. He will diligently seek the kingdom of God and his righteousness (vv. 33, 34). He will subordinate temporal things to the things of the Spirit. This is not a warning against legitimate forethought, but against anxious worry.
