A. G.—Will the wish come true that I made at a certain time this month?
Ans.—Just because you saw the NEW MOON this month doesn't necessarily mean that your wish will come true, however, I am happy to predict that it will. I see you as a sweetheart to the man you sent to the drug store for your pictures the other day. He is already in love with you but is too bashful to let you know it.

M. T.—I met a man recently and I was greatly impressed with him. I want to know what he'll mean to me?
Ans.—The man you met on the bus in February who impressed you as being such a Gentleman is a married man, and he'll never mean anything more to you than just an acquaintance. Even though he is separated from his wife, this separation will only be TEMPORARY. Next time you pick someone to fall in love with, I advise you to be sure you choose a man that is SINGLE.

E. L.—Please tell me if my husband has been cheating on me?
Ans.—Your husband has been going out some lately, but he hasn't been cheating on you nearly as much as you think. However, lately he has started taking up his time with B., the girl he used to be so crazy about. You'd better watch your step—She's trying ever, way possible to win him away from you.

J. H. N.—Do you think it would be wise to take the trip I have been planning on?
Ans.—It certainly would be wise. Mother has been terribly upset lately over the property she lost, and you could do a lot to console her. I advise you to go ahead and visit her during your vacation for you'd be "killing two birds with one stone" by taking this trip. You'd have a good chance to talk business with the man who used to be your business PARTNER.

E. T. R.—Did my father leave any money and will I get it if he did?
Ans.—Yes, your father did leave some money, but it will be several weeks before his estate will be settled. Your share of this money will be quite a large sum. I advise you to invest this money in something that will benefit you in your old age, and see to it that it is in a safe place where you won't waste any of it. The girl you have been going with recently is just waiting for a good chance to "gold dig" you.

Conservation Work
 By Edgar G. Brown.

The latest reports in the office of Robert Fechner, Director of the Emergency Conservation Work, commonly known as the CCC, show 18,762 Negro enrollees, with from one to two hundred colored boys in 427 camps throughout the country. Puerto Rico has 2,500; Virgin Islands, 160 and Hawaii close to a 1,000, composed chiefly of colored enrollees. These figures of February 27, 1935, show a drop from the January total of 21,135, of about twenty-five thousand, which indicates that approximately that number of boys secured more gainful employment during the early spring cotton planting season, especially in the southern states, and therefore, left the camps to go back home. Replacement quotas have been authorized by Director Fechner, and the United States Labor Department is again selecting men for enrollment in every state in the Union, in order to bring the CCC up to its full strength.

A BABY FOR YOU?

If you want a baby all your own and yearn for a baby's arms and a baby's smile do not give up hope. Just write in confidence to Mrs. Mildred Owens, 2509—Coates House, Kansas City, Mo., and she will tell you about a simple home method that helped her after being denied 15 years. Many others say this has helped bless their lives. Write now and try for this wonderful happiness.—Adv.

J. H. J.—Please tell me if this miser I have is natural or not?
Ans.—It is quite natural that you should be sore through your hips and back after the tumble you had off the porch the other day. You are taking a great risk by not having a doctor X-ray you—this fall can cause a lot of serious trouble if it isn't looked after immediately.

A. S. L.—Will I receive what I have prayed for so hard? When?
Ans.—Your prayers will be answered for I get the impression that you will receive the blessing of a CHILD. However, I am afraid you'll just have to be patient for about another year until you are stronger, for you know as well as your doctor that you're in no condition now to give birth to a child.

H. R.—How did the party I have in mind get that piece of jewelry back?
Ans.—The Party you have in mind lost this piece of jewelry at your home during the Christmas holidays and has been searching for it since that time. One of your guests during the holidays stole this jewelry not realizing the sentiment that was attached to it. As soon as they found out about it, their conscience hurt them so badly they felt that they just had to return it.

N. B. Y.—I have a girl friend that I think a lot of and I want to know if she loves me enough to marry me?
Ans.—Your girl friend thinks a lot of you, but she won't marry you for several reasons which are very embarrassing—I suggest that you see note attached to this column and write to me for a private reply.

G. J. K.—I want to know if I will be able to get a job any time soon so that I can better my condition?
Ans.—I get the impression that the Civil Service examination you took last week will turn out very satisfactory, for it appears that you will secure a government job during the month of MAY. You'll make enough money on this position to enable you and your baby to move into a much nicer neighborhood.

RACA
 Text: And whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council.—Matthew 5:22.

By interpretation, "Raca" means "you trifling, foolish, no-account fellow." The expression was used to discredit and to malign one's fellow man. Today it is a common thing for individuals to denounce, traduce, disparage, malign, condemn and seek to discredit others, and the practice is as deserving of criticisms as in other days.

1. It is a Wicked Thing To deprive one of his good name and discredit him in the eyes of others is a terrible sin against him and against human progress. And it is a certain and serious deterrent.

2. It is Foolish. This practice is foolish in that it brings no profit to the who engages in such a nefarious practice while it does incur ill-will and make enemies.

3. It Will Bring Retribution. "Your chickens will come home to roost," "You will reap what you sow," and other such sayings connote retribution; and the truth is obvious. If we sow "Raca" we will reap the same.

ing the past month have been placed in Post-Exchanges, the camp stores operated for the convenience of the boys wishing to purchase cigarettes, candy and like. The profits go into the company fund, for the athletic and educational supplies desired and thus returns indirectly to the enrollee himself.

Director Fechner, head of the CCC has taken the lead in this matter of larger recognition of merit shown by the CCC boys, regardless of race or color.

The Director has been strongly backed in this stand by the President and in the past month has again stressed the advisability of elevating from the ranks and promoting competent, and worthy enrollees to the more responsible posts.

New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Illinois, New Jersey, California, Alabama, Missouri, Michigan, Texas, District of Columbia, North Carolina, Maryland, and Georgia with the largest metropolitan cities furnish the greatest number of enrollees of both races based entirely upon the economic need of the boy's family, as well as his willingness to go to camp and sign up to send back home an average of twenty-five dollars a month to the folks. In both these respects, reports from all over the country indicated conclusively, that the colored youth of the land have been quick to respond to the call.

Pennsylvania, with Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, two of the hardest hit industrial cities, where large number of Negro families had mos. recently migrated, top the list of states with nearly 2,000 colored enrollees. Ohio, New York, Illinois, Virginia, and New Jersey in the order named with their big cities, including New York, Cleveland (Cincinnati), Columbus, Chicago, East St. Louis, Newark, Atlantic City, Camden, Norfolk and Richmond, as well as many of lesser cities in these states with a large Negro population account for this order and number of enrollees.

Maryland, with Baltimore and Annapolis; Washington, D. C. the nation's capital are among the others with quotas above 500 which have always been filled to capacity since the program was initiated in 1933.

 A GIRL'S PROBLEMS
 By Videtta Ish
 (For The Literary Service Bureau)

To Alta Vesta from her Father—No. 6

Dear Alta Vesta:
 I was somewhat amused when I read that you said—all your problems seem to be about children. What you state is true of everybody and of all classes. All human progress has to do with children. If there were no children there would be no problems and after while there would be no world—I mean no people in the world.

In this connection my child, I do not hesitate to say that the period of childhood is the most seriously important period of life. The children of one generation are the men and women of the next. The kind of a world we will have a generation from now will depend on the training of children of this generation. Showing kindness to children, encouraging and helping them, influencing them to be good and true and we are helping to make the whole world better. Remember, Dear, that this is true of you and your life too, and try to make your own life the best possible. Bushels of love to you.

Your Father.

SHARPS AND FLATS AMONG THE MUSICIANS

Wedding bells have been ringing quite frequently in the musicians' circle. This time they tolled for Hazel Gray and Greg Williams. They both say two can live as cheaply as one; so why not? Well, we know one thing, at least, they won't have any difficulty in knowing the whereabouts of each other, since they play together at Jessie's Tavern, nightly. Now isn't that nice!

Bill Owens is no longer playing at the J. B. Tavern. It seems as though he quit because of some personal misunderstanding.

The Synco Hi-Hatters swung out in their usual way at the Easter Sunday Matinee.

Moten's Orchestra played at the Chermot Saturday night. They seem to be the only colored orchestra to play the Chermot for their regular Saturday night dances.

Say, "Lightning," when are you going to Montana, huh?

"Skeets" Morgan said he lost nine dollars out of his wallet the other night, and it brought him down awful low. Now, just between us, which one of you Kats took "Skeets" money?

Dave Alexander has been going around looking awful glad about something. Now, Dave, you mustn't keep secrets from us. By the way, you should have seen the motion picture of Dave taken at Fontenelle Park. We thought it was Duke Ellington when we first saw it. Dave was certainly flashing all his personality plus—

Irving Mills plans an all colored revue, with Lucky Millinder and the Mills' Blue Rhythm Band as a nucleus. . . . Cab Calloway breaks box-office records again, this time at Loew's Fox theatre in Washington, D. C. . . . Toronto liked Ina Ray Hutton so well they named everything from sundae to Easter millinery in her honor. It was the first trip of the blonde dynamo to Canada.

SHARPS AND FLATS AMONG THE MUSICIANS

Having created a sensation in theatrical circles with his introduction of Ina Ray Hutton and her now famous all-girl band, Irving Mills is expected to make additional show history with his latest production, Mills' Cavalcade of Music.

Rehearsals of the new unit are in final stages and it will open on April 26, with a long theatre route to follow. It consists of a large mixed orchestra of girls and boys, all of them playing two or three different instruments, and several specialty dancing and singing acts.

As a result of the versatility of the young musicians in the band, startling instrumental combinations such as ten trumpets, half a dozen trombones, an entire section of violins and other similar groups are possible.

The arrangements played by the orchestra are filled with tonal colorings and unique musical patterns not even heard in the largest symphonies.

The entire history of American music, from the aboriginal tom-tom rhythms of the Indians down to the latest, hot, swing melodies of modern Harlem, is outlined in the Cavalcade with picturesque tableaux and musicianship.

Special scenery and costumes, with many effective lighting schemes, make the new unit one of the most elaborate and gorgeous shows ever produced, with a character of novelty even eclipsing Broadway musical productions.

Girl of 17 Goes With Boy Who "Says Bad Things"—Thinks She Can Take Care of Herself—Better Not Take Chances—Playing With Fire and Gambling With Destiny!

Maxie Miller:—I'm 17 and I'm going with a boy. This boy says things to me but he never tries to make me do what he says. Some say I oughtn't to go with such a boy, but I say it's up to me to refuse him, and take care of myself. He makes money and he's a good spender and hate to give him up. Do you think there's any great danger?—M. J.

M. J.—You are playing with fire. A boy who says such things as you intimate has but little respect for you. I think it is up to you to keep such a boy away from you. You may be able to resist "and take care of yourself" and you may not. You are playing with fire and gambling with destiny. Don't let the money spending influence you and ruin you. Better end such association before it is too late.—Maxie Miller.

Thinking Children
 By R. A. Adams
 (For The Literary Service Bureau)

No doubt children always have been curious and given to asking questions which puzzled their elders and baffled their attempt to answer. But perhaps never before have children been so irrepressibly curious as now and never before have they propounded such unanswerable questions as do the youngsters of today.

A little boy asked a minister "Who made God?" That is a question children have always asked. But not long ago a child of three years went him "one the better". He was looking up at the stars, and asked, "Grandpa, who made the stars?" "God" was the answer. The next question was, "How did he get them up there? Did he climb up on a ladder and stick them up there?" Then before the puzzled grandpa could "gather his wits" came the crushing blow, "Well, how does he keep them up there so they can't fall down?"

After the questions concerning God and the creation come those concerning life and death. Common are the questions, "Where did the baby come from?" "Where did God keep him before he sent him to us?" "How did God get him down here without him catching cold?" In regard to death they ask, "What happened to him?" "Why did they put him in the ground for him to go to heaven?" "What do people do in heaven?" And the same child that asked about the stars asked, "What is Jesus doing in heaven—eating dinner?"

These questions tell that children are thinkers and it emphasizes the necessity of finding the best way to deal with the problem of making replies to their questions.

Health Beauty and Charm

Keep Young and Beautiful if You Want to Be Loved. WHAT PRICE BEAUTY

No woman can afford not to be beautiful when it costs so little to keep her personal appearance in tip top condition. Every woman may not have beautiful and Grecian-like features, but she can have a clear and beautiful complexion.

Every woman who has any contact with other people at all should be ashamed to be seen with a muddy complexion or a skin marred by black heads, pimples or enlarged pores. It reflects upon her character as people know at a glance that it is because she is too lazy to take care of her skin properly.

Your skin is something that should be taken care of daily. If you have a good complexion, guard it carefully.

It is easier to select attractive clothes when your complexion is flawless, as ainos. all colors are becoming to a person with a clear complexion. People with muddy or sallow complexions look ghastly in some colors, and after, all there is really no excuse for that condition of the skin. Of course you are planning to attend the Annual Spring Style Revue and Dance to be given by the Quack Club of the Y. W. C. A., Mouday, April 29 h, at Draumlund Hall. Be sure to see that your hair is arranged in the most fashionable and becoming style. Look yourself over in the mirror. If your skin needs special attention give us a ring or take time off and, "Come up and see us Sometimes." Remember we are still giving free skin analysis.
