

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH

22nd and Paul Sts.
Rev. P. J. Price, pastor.

With Palms and Lilies for decoration, Sunday was a gala day for the children. On their arrival at 9:30 a. m. Sunday school hour, they found a large table decorated with green grass and white trimmings, laden with beautifully dyed eggs, bunny carts and baskets.

There was a large attendance of smiling pupils, eager to hear the story of Jesus and to get their Easter gifts. The committee spared no pains in selecting the gifts to make them happy. The lesson was reviewed by the different departments.

Adult department, Mr. Milton the characters in the lesson; Junior Boys, Walter Winston, subject and Golden Text; Seniors, Miss Rogers, Historical and Geographical survey; Beginners, Mrs. Warrick, Black Board Talk; Synopsis, Mr. Green. Miss Hallie Johnson had charge of the review. Twelve new scholars were enrolled.

The distribution of eggs marked the closing of the Sunday school.

At 11:00 a. m. the pastor, Rev. P. J. Price, delivered a very interesting sermon on the Resurrection of Christ. His subject was, "He is Risen." The text was found in the 16th chapter of St. Mark's. A large number of visitors were present. Visitors are always welcome and are invited to make their church home while in the city.

The 3:00 o'clock program was recitations, drills, duets and dialogues. The closing was a dialogue recited, assisted by the Superintendent, Mrs. Irene Faulkner Oliver.

The program consisted of songs, recitations, drills, duets and dialogues. The closing was a dialogue played by Mr. Wm. Taylor, Miss Helen Hytche and Little Gale Warrick, "He Hides Within the Lilies."

The evening service began at 8:00 p. m. This was a musical program by the Senior Choir and Junior Chorus. The closing of this program was a patomine, "The Old Rugged Cross" by 6 girls. Two were added to the church. Revival meeting will begin Monday evening. Sick members of the church are improving. Mr. King, the husband of the church clerk, passed away Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Grace Jackson, of Chanute, Kans., daughter of Mrs. Viola Wilhite, was among the visitors at the evening service.

The Automobile contest, which was sponsored by the superintendent of the Sunday school, Mrs. Irene Faulkner Oliver, was a decided success. The winners were Master James Sullivan and Katherine Wheat. The contest closed March 27th, 1935.

A contest is now on between the boys and girls which will close on the 4th Sunday in June.

CHRIST TEMPLE CHURCH

26th and Burdette
Rev. S. J. McIntyre, pastor.

Easter Sunday turned out to be a beautiful day, and a busy day at Christ Temple. Sunday school opened at 9:30 with a good attendance and lots of happy boys and girls, full of enthusiasm, over what the day was to bring forth. We had a most interesting and timely message, brought to us by our Pastor, Rev. McIntyre, from St. John's the 19th chapter; 5th verse. The subject was, "Behold the Man," the choir assisted by Mrs. McIntyre, the director, rendered many beautiful songs.

At the evening hour, the children had a splendid program, after which Easter eggs were distributed. Group No. 6 has had a penny rally on for the last month, which ended Easter Sunday night. They were to give a prize to the boy and girl bringing in the most pennies. Little Master S. J. McIntyre, Jr., brought in 32 cards which was a tie with Miss Louise Panky; so they both were presented with a nice box of chocolate candy.

Many visitors were present, and I am sure they enjoyed the program. We had the pleasure of having in our midst, in the morning service, Rev. O. J. Burkhardt, former pastor of Christ Temple Church. We are always glad to have him with us. Visitors are always welcome at Christ Temple Church.

Linda Panky, reporter.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH

"The Friendly Church."
Rev. L. B. Bryant, pastor.

Easter was a very beautiful day and a great success in every way. The Sunday school had its Easter program during the regular Sunday school time.

The attendance was very good and the collection fine. How nice it would be if the attendance every Sunday was as good as it was last Sunday.

The children's program, under the direction of Mrs. E. Turner, was very good. In fact some feel it was the best they have had in a long time.

Rev. Bryant preached a wonderful Easter sermon for the morning service. The guest soloist was Mrs. Getrude Rafferty.

We were very pleased to see the young people of the church, under the direction of Mr. H. L. Preston and Mrs. L. P. Bryant, giving their service in the junior choir. They did very nicely and showed just what they could do if given a chance.

There were several to be baptized, both infants and adolescents. In the afternoon the pastor and choir went to Zion Baptist church to help out in their afternoon service.

At 7:30 the Senior Choir presented a Cantata, "The Holy City" and portions of "Life Everlasting." The program was very much enjoyed by those who were present.

There were many visitors, present, far too many to try to name, but we are always glad to see them and invite them to make St. John's their church home while in the city.

The St. John's Booster Club is giving a play, "The Bungalow of Dreams," on Friday April 26th, which promises to be very interesting. This play will be at the Church at 8:00 p. m.

The Church and choir have missed Mrs. Willie Green, who has been ill. We wish for her a speedy recovery. We were very glad to see Mrs. Winter at church Sunday. Mrs. White has been ill for some time. We are always glad to see any members back after their illness.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

22nd and Seward Streets
Rev. W. C. Fort, pastor.

The happy Easter spirit prevailed throughout the entire service Sunday at Salem. The Sunday school began the day with high spirits and a good attendance. Assistant Superintendent, Mrs. L. Harris presided. Two new members were added to our enrollment, namely, Barbara Harrison and Samuel Harrison, and ten visitors were present. After Sunday school, gay colored eggs were given to all the children.

At 11 a. m. our pastor, Rev. Fort, delivered a very inspiring sermon to his audience. His text was, "The Fact of the Resurrection," found in I Corinthians, 15:20. Rev. Fort delivered his message in such a plain way that it was understood by all. A large audience was present, and also several visitors. The True Light Gospel Singers rendered two selections for us. Everyone enjoyed them.

The B. Y. P. U. opened at its regular time, 5:30, with the president in charge. The routine was beautifully conducted, and a wonderful program was given. At 8 p. m. our chorister, Mr. E. L. Young, with the help of the choir, rendered a very wonderful musical program. Mrs. Pettis was Mistress of Ceremonies. Special part were taken by the following: Mrs. Holloway, solo; Mrs. M. Fort and Mrs. L. Harris, duet; Mr. F. L. Wesley, bass solo; Mrs. V. M. Thomas and Mrs. E. Porter duet. Two numbers were sung by a ladies chorus. A nice audience witnessed and enjoyed the program.

Visitors are always welcome. A cordial invitation is extended to you and your friends. Come to Salem when you wish to enjoy good service. Again, you are welcome.

MORNING STAR BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. F. B. Banks, pastor

The Sunday school opened at 9 a. m. with the superintendent, Mrs. A. J. Johnson, in charge. A very lively school was held. The contest between Master Andrew Johnson and Miss Selma Pruitt was closed Sunday, Andrew Johnson raising the highest amount. He will be rewarded with a wrist watch. The total amount was $24.75.

The hearts of the beginners were made happy, when Mrs. A. M. Johnson their teacher, presented each of them with a lovely basket of candy eggs.

At 11 a. m. brief service was conducted. Then the pastor was in charge of the pulpit. He chose for his subject, "The Evidence of His Resurrection." The choir was in full bloom. Songs, especially for the occasion were sung.

At 6 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. was opened with president, Raymond Johnson, in charge.

At 8:15 the Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. presented their Easter program, which was a huge success.

Mrs. G. W. Stromile, Mrs. Lee McGee, Mrs. W. C. Morris were directors of the program.

The Heart to Heart Club met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Lee McGee. A delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. V. B. Lewis is the president.

The Willing Workers Club met at the home of Mrs. Frederick on Thursday night. Mrs. Mary Williams is president.

The Mission met at 2 p. m. Thursday. A splendid lesson was taught by the pastor, "Putting First Things First."

Mrs. W. M. Tucker, president. Mrs. G. W. Stromile, reporter.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

24th and Ohio Streets.
Rev. F. P. Jones, pastor.

Sunday closed one of the greatest Easter services for years. A week's prayer was held leading to Easter morning sun rise thanksgiving service at 7 a. m. A fellowship breakfast was served to more than 153 persons at 9:30. Sunday school Easter program was enjoyed by many who came for this special effort, 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. were largely attended and many pledged themselves for greater usefulness in the service of the Lord.

Monday night opened with the Evangelist in charge. All present enjoyed his first night and pledged to be on hand to the end. This revival is promised to benefit our city. All churches were well represented by members and friends who came and joined in this great battle.

If you follow the crowd, you will be lead to the place where your soul will be quickened and your consciousness will be aroused to the need of your being about your master's business. Come, hear the man with the message for the present day's ills. Dr. Bratton spares no pain in offering the remedy that will work a perfect cure. Our prayer is that some one will accept it. You will have to come early. Devotional 7:30 p. m. Preaching 8 p. m.

Anti-Kidnaping Law is Vetoed by Governor

Augusta, Ga.—(CNA)—An anti-kidnaping bill was vetoed last week by Governor Eugene Talmadge. The bill provided the death penalty for kidnapping.

The move of the governor is interpreted in many quarters as an implied approval of lynching, since most of the recent lynchings could also be classed as kidnappings.

The sponsors of the bill, however, for wealthy whites.

'Y' NEWS

THE MEMBERSHIP DRIVE GETS UNDERWAY

Members of the Committee of Management and the Membership Committee enjoyed a lovely tea on Wednesday afternoon. A most encouraging meeting was held in conjunction with the tea. A discussion of Y. W. C. A. policies and practices and the distribution of the membership cards completed the final arrangements. Plans for a covered dish party to be held on Wednesday afternoon of this week were also completed. Mrs. Vera Graham, an active worker in the drive will speak. Remember, the goal is $60.00 (sixty dollars) in memberships. We hope every woman will feel it her responsibility and privilege to pay her membership fee. Call Captain Z. E. Snowden or Captain C. B. Wilkes for any information.

Miss Mildred Gierhardt reviewed the book, "Green Light" by Lloyd Douglas at the regular meeting of the Booklover's Club on Thursday evening. The meeting was held at the Mid-City Community Center.

Y W MAKES SUMMER PLANS

One of the interesting summer classes has begun at the Y. W. C. A. through the cooperation of Dr. A. L. Hawkins and Miss Helen Frichtel, Health Education Director, Central 'Y'. A diet and reducing class began last Wednesday morning at 11:00 o'clock. There was a fine attendance. Miss Frichtel is giving a course of reducing exercises which guarantee results. Dr. A. L. Hawkins, one of our foremost progressive physicians of the city, is working with each individual in conjunction with the instructor. If you have not registered and are interested, you may do so by phoning the Y. W. C. A., Webster 1539.

BENEFIT SHOW RITZ THEATRE

In an effort to raise funds to send delegates to the summer conferences of the Y. W. C. A., a benefit show will be held at the Ritz Theatre on Saturday morning, May 11 at 10:00 o'clock. The committee in charge is: Mrs. H. L. Anderson, Chairman; Mrs. Percy Baugh and Mrs. Jamie Norman. "Lone Cowboy" starring Jackie Cooper will be featured. Mrs. Percy Baugh is arranging a children's program which will precede the show. Some of Omaha's most talented youngsters will appear on that program. Tickets are on sale at the Y. W. C. A.

Plans are on foot for the third annual "Stay At Home Camp" to be held under the direction of the Girls' Work Department of the North Side Y. W. C. A. The Stay at Home Camp was begun in 1932 to meet the needs of summer recreation. Since that time, similar activities have been promoted in other organizations of the city, and the North Side Y. W. C. A. again takes the precedent in promoting such projects. Crafts, creative writing, music, dramatics, swimming, and other features will be included in the program. The camp will be open from nine until twelve o'clock daily on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday mornings. Plan now to send your girls. There is no fee.

Y W C A ANNOUNCES SUMMER CAMP AND CONFERENCES

Wilberforce University, Wilberforce, Ohio, has been selected for the annual institute for the Negro Branches of the Y. W. C. A. The dates are June 19 to 26th. The North Side Y. W. C. A. is desirous of sending to that conference leaders and workers in the local Branch. Dates for Camp Brewster are: for high school girls camp June 5 to 11th and Grade School Camp June 11 to 15th. Phone WE-1593 for further information.
