

Personals Visiting With Friends

Mrs. Nonense Gibson, formerly of Omaha, who has made her home in Chicago for the past five years, is now visiting with friends and her godmother, Mrs. Roy Givens, 3008 Miami Street.

Mrs. Gibson says Chicago is a great city, but after all, there is no place like home.

After a brief illness, Miss Asilee Dotson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Dotson, 2213 Miami Street, left Monday morning, May 6, on the Zephyr, to resume her studies as Laboratory Technician at the General Hospital, No. 2, Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Brannon, Mrs. E. Julia Horton and daughter, Esirelda, spent the week end in Des Moines, Iowa, visiting Mrs. Brannon's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Braham Hyde.

Mrs. Marie Stewart, proprietor of Stewart's Art Shop, who has been ill for some time, has gone to Hot Springs, National Park, Arkansas, for a much needed rest and treatment.

Mrs. George Horton, after spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Marie Stewart, returned to her home in Decatur, Michigan.

Mrs. Sadie Cummings, 2406 N. 25th Street, spent several days in Kansas City visiting friends. She reports a delightful time.

Mrs. Dollie Fletcher, 2517 Corby, returned home from St. Joseph's hospital a few days ago, and is getting along fine. She wants to thank her many friends for their kindness during her illness, and also, Mt. Moriah Church for its prayers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Carter, 2321 N. 27th Avenue, are the proud parents of a baby girl, born May 3, 1935.

Mrs. John B. Martin, 2112 Grant Street, has been confined to her bed for the past few days. Her condition is somewhat improved now.

Mr. N. Jenkins, 2917 N. 25 Street, was ordered to the Methodist Hospital Wednesday, May 8, for the third examination after a serious operation he underwent last year.

Mrs. Grums Buried Wednesday, May 8th.

Mrs. Hattie Grums, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, died suddenly Friday, May 3, at 4 P. M. Her death followed a heart attack. Her husband was with her at the time of her death.

Her survivors are her husband, Mr. Walter Grums; two sons, Frank and Charley Brown; two brothers, Luther Perry, of Dallas, Texas, and Arthur Perry, Independence, Kansas.

The body was taken to the J. D. Lewis Mortuary and returned to Council Bluffs, Wednesday for the funeral at Beulah Baptist Church. Rev. Z. E. McGee officiated, assisted by Rev. Rhoades, and burial was in Walnut Hill Cemetery.

SHARPS AND FLATS AMONG THE MUSICIANS

Bennie Moten's Orchestra seems to be getting better and better. Earl Hines' orchestra would really have to go to town to outplay them as a whole. So we think Bennie Moten's orchestra should compare quite favorably with Earl Hines'. They must have played about fifty choruses of that blues song Monday night. We know one thing, they certainly hold the record for playing the blues longer than any other band that's been here. So what! Anyway, all the musicians think they're mellow, and they've certainly got rhythm.

Shorty Gray, of the Dixie Ramblers, says he wants to advertise for a wife through our column. Now, we don't know what we are going to do about that. So you want to get married? (again?) Well, we heard that marriage is a wonderful institution (for some people). Ask 'Goody' about that. Louie Vann seems to have it too. He told us he was in love, but it's a secret.

There has been a girls' band drifting in and out around here. Wonder if we will have the opportunity of hearing them play. That would be a novelty. Now, wouldn't it? And they say they have a nice band, too.

My, aren't the Synco Hi-Hatters getting popular? They seem to be getting all the breaks around here from all the clubs and now they are going to play for the Waiters' dance Monday.

MAXIE MILLER WRITES

(For The Literary Service Bureau)

The Old, Old Story—Girl Loved and the Boy "Had His Way"—Boy's Mother Objects To Marriage Because Girl's Family Is Not Prominent and She Is Not Educated—Refusing, Mack Will Be A "Jack"—Doubts Are Mean and Unworthy—Marry Her, Or Be A Cowardly Cur.

Maxie Miller: I am in love with a girl. She loved me enough to let me have my way. I want to marry her, but her family is not as prominent as ours, and she is not educated. My mother just performs when I talk of marrying this girl. Then, sometimes I have doubts because she let me do her that way. I am puzzled what to do. What?—Mack. Mack: If you forsake this girl after what she's done for you, you should change the first letter of your name from 'M' to 'J'; and then it would not express in word your character as traitor and ingrate. Take your mother into your confidence. Tell her of your

Club Notes

THE BROMINITES The Brominites gave a party at the home of Mrs. Gonzales, sponsored by Alfred Jackson. A lovely crowd attended. Among the guests present were members of the Silver Leaf, the Sophisticated Six, Girls' Secret Society, Black Aces, Little 'M' and Harlem Knights.

The members of this club still remain unknown, but they promise great things for this summer. John Pitts, suspected member of the club, was entertained at the Fontenelle Hotel by the Kiwanis Club on April 26th. He and Professor Waddles were the only members of our group entertained by the Kiwanis Club.

Club meetings each Wednesday. Signed, A. Suspect

THE JOYEUX BRIDGE CLUB The Joyeux Bridge Club met Monday night, April 22nd, at the home of Mr. Worthington Williams, 2911 N. 25th Street, in their regular bi-monthly meeting.

The early part of the evening was spent in reviewing the studies which had been previously taken up. All seem to enjoy the review.

Dr. W. W. Peebles substituted for Mr. John Dotson who was absent.

Promptly after business, the club began play for the coveted Club Pin, which was won by Mr. J. T. Scott, who if you will notice, will be displaying this pin very prominently.

Mr. Williams served a dutch lunch; and he noticed, after the club had adjourned, that the men had discovered the source of all utensils used for this treat, and that the host could do a speed act himself at a dutch affair.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. John Dotson, 2213 Miami Street, Monday evening, May 13th.

QUACK CHATTER Mr. and Mrs. Howard James, 2411 Lake Street, entertained the cast of the Operetta "College Days" last Friday night at their home. A delicious repast was served, after which several hands of contract bridge were played.

More than thirty-five members of the cast were present, and all heartily thanked Mr. and Mrs. James for their hospitality. "College Days" is a musical comedy in three acts to be presented by the Quack Club and their friends, early in June. Rehearsals for the operetta are being held four times weekly, and are progressing very rapidly, under the competent direction of Estella Robertson and Helen McWhorter, who assists at the piano. Miss Robertson announces that after the week of May 1st, there will be no additional persons taken into the operetta.

Members of the Quack Club transformed the interior of the Dreamland Hall into a beautiful Parisian Salon, Monday night, April 29, for their Annual Spring Style Revue and Dance. Modernistic decorations in a black, white, gray and silver color scheme were effectively carried out. More than 350 persons danced to the rhythmic music of the Synco Hi-Hatters' Orchestra.

The style show was given in the form of a playlet and was supposedly, to have taken place in the parian Salon. Models displaying such lovely apparel as lingerie, garden frocks, sport and street, afternoon and cocktail, and evening gowns passed in revue before a galaxy of interested 'buyers', who were seated on the stage, as well as the large and enthusiastic audience seated before the stage.

Immediately following the style revue a White Wedding was shown. It was beautiful in its simplicity. Dresses of all the bride's attendants were of white Dennison crepe paper, which was very effective.

Julia Williams, attired in a gorgeous white satin gown, was the bride, and Aloma Robinson, maid of honor. The models were as follows: Helen McWhorter, Julia Williams, Alyce Jones, Tressa James, Ollie Redd, Lucille Hamilton, Alma Robinson, Mildred Samuels, Della Brewer, Celestine Smith, Amanda Williams, Dorothy Fry, Lillian Pettiford, Idola Evans, Katherine Govan, Essie Porter, Clara Leonard, Zella Broadus, Josephine M. CLUBS—CONT.— Bell, Hazel T. Miller, and Anne Johnson.

These modelling coiffures from the various beauty shops were Dorothy Bell, from the Christine Althouse Beauty Salon; Dorothy Fry, from Versie Winston's Shop; Lillian Pettiford, from Annabelle's Shop; Essie Porter, from Willa's Beauty Shop; Robbie T. Davis, from the Gross Gloss Beauty Shop; Christine Brown, from Mildred Turner's Shop; and Floy Southard, from the Northside School of Beauty.

The president of the Quack Club wishes to extend to those persons working on committees, and especially those heading committees, her utmost thanks and heartfelt appreciation for the kind spirit of cooperation manifested on their parts to make the affair the success that it was. The committee chairman are as follows: Mesdames Ida Sears, Florence Branch, Essie Porter, Bernice Fowler Marshall and Miss Estella Robertson.

Lucy Mae Stamps, President Mildred Ousley, Reporter

BEAU BRUMMEL The club held election of officers at the last meeting, May 1st. The president, Virgil Shobe, was re-elected and the newly elected officers are as follows: Harold Thomas, vice-president. Al Brewer, secretary; Junior Grayson, assistant-secretary; Jimmy Jewell, treasurer; James R. Smith, reporter; Lawrence Payne, sergeant-at-arms.

The club meets bi-monthly at the community center.

THE HAPPY HOUR BRIDGE CLUB The club met last Thursday with Mr. R. A. Mills as host. We had a lovely meeting, after which we played four changes of bridge. Those winning highest scores were Miss Selctman and Mr. Jackson.

Our guest for the evening was Mrs. O. Smith.

Our host served a very palatable repast, which was enjoyed by every one. After chatting gaily with each other, we adjourned to meet with Mr. Jackson.

Mr. J. E. Dorser, President Mary Banks, Reporter

THE "Y" PLAYERS The regular meeting of the "Y" Players was held last Tuesday evening April 30, at St. Benedict's reception room, 2423 Grant Street. A phase of the drama was discussed as usual in conformity with the club's program.

And next week the meeting will be known as variety night at which time each member will perform an original bit of characterization. Also, each member will report on a play which he has read.

Plans for the Beaux Arts Ball to be given Thursday, May 16, at the Northside Y. W. C. A. were formulated, and the names of those invited were submitted. This ball is expected to be a gala affair with its original costumes, lively music, and extra-ordinary decorations. The club shall do its best, as host, to render its guests an enjoyable evening of good fun.

OCHO CLUB The Ocho Bridge Club put on a very impressive bridge tournament at St. Benedict's last Thursday night. More than 100 persons were present. It was probably the most elaborate bridge tournaments that bridge lovers have enjoyed for a long time.

Mrs. Mayme Booth, president, with able assistance and cooperation of Miss Ray Delle Green, chairman of the entertainment committee, and other officers and members of the club, spared no pains to make the event a success and were amply awarded for their efforts by the large crowd that attended.

Mrs. Bernice Golden, secretary, proved a very gracious hostess with her smiling countenance among the contestants. Other hostesses who aided in a very capable manner were Mesdames Mary Jones, who proved to be a very efficient score announcer, Sybil King, Elizabeth McMurray, Alma Whiting, Billie Hunter, and Della Mae Brewer. Mr. Archie Macey won first prize, with a score of 4,550; Mrs. Jack Scott won the second prize with a score of 3,773; and Mrs. Madeline Sterling won the consolation. Her score was 800.

After the play was completed, ice cream and cake were served to all.

The Ocho Club is very grateful to everyone who was present, for helping to make the tournament a success.

Mrs. Mayme Booth, President Mrs. Billie Hunter, Reporter

PHALANX PINOCCHLE CLUB The club met last Tuesday night at the home of Mr. Bud Green, 1916 N. 25th Street, with Mr. C. Ralph Watson, vice-president, presiding. After business of the club was transacted, the inter club play began.

Mr. Wayman Booth, club treasurer, won the first prize, and Mr. Claude Powers, club stooge, won the consolation. Mrs. Rosa Overton was a visitor at the meeting.

The club has a full membership, with many applications on file. Mrs. Billie Hunter was a very charming hostess.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday night at 1916 N. 25th Street, with Mr. Claude Powers as host.

Mrs. Alma Whiting, President Mr. C. Ralph Watson, Reporter

DAMES Miss Louise Fletcher was the charming hostess to "The Dames" Friday, May 3, at her home, 3115 Franklin Street.

This very modern social club consists of twelve members. Miss Natalie Brown is the acknowledged leader and president; Celestine Smith, vice-president; Lorraine Fletcher, secretary; Louise Fletcher, treasurer; (What could we do without the Fletcher sisters?) Maxine Owens, sergeant-at-arms (s'cuse me); June Artison; Madeline Brown; Elizabeth Cole; Waverly Isler; Frances Sims and Mary Ann Elliott, reporter.

An invitant on was extended to Mrs. Sall Henderson to join the club.

A picnic is being planned for Decoration Day for the girls and their dates.

After the business was transacted, a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

The very enjoyable game of Po-Ke-No was played until the wee hours of the morning.

Nalie Brown, President Mary A. Elliott, Reporter

THE LADIES' FRIENDSHIP CLUB A brief meeting of the Ladies' Friendship Club was held Thursday, May 2, at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Stringer, 2731 Blondo Street, to make plans for the Balloon Dance, which will be held in the very near future at the Masonic Hall.

Mrs. Katherine Woods was ill and could not attend.

Mrs. Ida Fontaine, President Mrs. Minnie Burns, Reporter

LADIES' SOCIAL CLUB Thursday afternoon the home of Mrs. Myra Kincaid, 2861 Corby, was indeed a scene of beauty when, as hostess, she entertained the Ladies' Social Club. The club colors of green and pink were carried throughout the lovely two course luncheon.

The guests were Mrs. Sarah Bradley and Mrs. Marie Calloway. Out critic, Mrs. E. Levinson, was indisposed and could not be present.

Mrs. Mattie Payton won the first prize and Mrs. Calloway, booty.

Mrs. M. Payton, President Mrs. X. Sullivan, Reporter LES-TRES-MEILLEUR

The club met at the home of Mr. Vernon Stamps, 2723 Ohio Street. This being the first meeting of the month, a business meeting was held, after which some very tough bridge games followed.

The refreshments were very delicious, and everyone had a wonderful time.

The next meeting will be at 2709 Blondo.

The club will have a contest during the month of May, and the winner at the end of the month shall wear the club badge. The member with the lowest score will wear the club's losing badge.

Thomas Stamps, President Robert Redden, Reporter

THE LITTLE 'M' CLUB The club held a meeting Sunday at the home of Douglas W. Ison. Various officers were elected and will serve a certain amount of time. Later others will be elected. Those elected are as follows: W. D. Turner, president; Leon Peoples, vice-president; Preston Love, secretary; Leroy Brice, treasurer; Frank McCants, sergeant-at-arms; and "Prof." Joe Nelson, reporter.

"Believe it or not".

THE CARTER CHARITY CLUB The Carter Charity Club met at the home of Mrs. Canty, 2409 Blondo, with Mrs. Wm. Givens and Mrs. Canty as hostesses. The attendance was very large.

There were four guests, Mrs. Geo. Cooper, Mrs. Geo. Brown and Mrs. Louis Corbin, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Mrs. J. Ervins, of Omaha.

The club is having its annual Sermon Sunday, May 16th, at Clair M. E. Church, at 2:30 P. M. We are also having a tea the following Sunday.

Mrs. W. S. Metcalf, President Mrs. Walter Seals, Reporter

THE FRIENDLY BRIDGE CLUB The club was entertained by Mr. R. Turner, 2025 Ohio Street, Monday night, May 6. The club entertained their wives by playing bridge. The first prize was won by Mrs. Smith, 3870 Harney Street, and the booty was won by Mrs. L. Adams, 2601 Grant Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis were guests of honor.

Massey Avant, President Frank Adams, Reporter

EUREKA BRIDGE CLUB Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were hosts to the Eureka Bridge Club last week.

Mr. J. Phillips, v.c.-president, presided. After the meeting, six changes of bridge were played. Mr. W. Penn and Mrs. J. Phillips won the first prizes and Mr. and Mrs. Snowden, the consolation.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Buckner and Mr. and Mrs. Snowden.

After a lovely lunch, we all went home happy, hoping that all the members will be present at the next meeting.

Mr. W. Penn, President Mrs. M. Payton, Reporter

Father Daly Dies

Father Daly died at St. Joseph hospital at 5 p. m. Thursday. He was the priest who had served faithfully at St. Benedict's Church at 24th and Grant Streets for the past four years. Father Daly was loved by all his coworkers and friends. He was held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of forming his acquaintance. The community feels they have lost a very dear friend.

Health Beauty and Charm

Keep Young and Beautiful if You Want to Be Loved. HAIR STYLES AND HATS

So often we hear women disgustingly exclaim, "I just can't wear these new hats! I have been trying all spring to find a hat, but I look horrid in these new shaped hats. I don't know what I am going to do!" The answer is simple. Just arrange the hair to suit the hat.

The face, the hat and the hair must combine to make a harmonizing whole. In most cases I find no fault with the face, and the hats are beautiful. What we need is just a simple re-arrangement of the hair style.

Bangs of all varieties are the order of the day. "Forward Moving" waves or rolls of curls, placed at the front hairline, are very welcome.

For Mother's Day, why not give your mother something personal, yet different? May we suggest a new hat with a new hair dress to match? We have some very becoming and beautiful hair styles. One that will just suit you or your mother.
