

AMONG THE Churches

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH
"The Friendly Church."
Rev. J. P. Bryant, pastor.

The first Sunday in May was a fine day at St. John's. The Sunday school attendance is still growing. There is still room for more. We are glad to see the Men's Bible Class doing so well. There is room for you. Come, men, and join now. You can make this the best class in the school if you try.

The guest singers at the morning service were Mesdames Pearl Gibson and Venus Storms. These women sang a duet from the Holy City by Gaul. It was very well rendered.

Rev. Bryant preached from I Peter, 5:7. His subject was: "Our Father's Care." From this subject he gave a splendid message. Some of the thoughts that should be remembered are as follows: "All people receive from God, even the most evil sinner. God cares and provides a place for all because He prepared a place for man before he was created. He wants all people prepared for the everlasting home."

Chris. wants to get into the heart to set up a throne of righteousness. He cares for those whom man turns aside. Every person has a place in God's Kingdom, and each one can find his or her place better than any else. God wants the principles of justice and holiness invested in the hearts and souls of men, and He wants men to make much of the things which He has put into their lives.

Rev. Bryant's subject, Sunday night, was: "A Hand full of Corn."

The church and friends are now looking forward to the big Annual Banquet and the coming of Bishop John A. Gregg on May 24th. The whole week-end will be great at St. John's, because the Bishop will preach on Sunday, 26th, and this is the day all members and friends, who can be asked to give one dollar to pay on the parsonage.

There were several visitors last Sunday. Some among them were Mrs. Thomas Mason, Nehawka, Nebraska, Mrs. Hazel Reagan; Mrs. Marie Hudgens, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Baker, Canton, Ohio, Mrs. C. C. Jewell and daughter-in-law, Carrie Jewell, Mr. Caldwell McVay, a student from Lane college, Jackson, Tenn. Mr. McVay is a nephew of Mr. L. L. McVay, of Omaha and is just in Omaha for his summer vacation.

The visitors are always welcomed at St. John's and invited to make it their summer church home.

Mr. L. L. McVay, reporter.

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH

Services at Pilgrim Sunday were attended by large audiences. A splendid sermon was delivered by the Moderator of the New Era Association, Rev. F. S. Goodlett.

There was an exchange of ministers between Pilgrim and Bethel, South Side, Sunday. Rev. Goodlett was at Pilgrim and Rev. J. F. Thomas acting pastor of Pilgrim, was at Bethel.

Sunday night, Rev. Thomas delivered a short and instructive sermon. Deacon John Robbins, who has been confined to his home for several weeks because of illness, was at his post of duty. Bertha Young, daughter of Deacon and Mr. A. B. Young, played for the choir Sunday night.

The rally will terminate Sunday night. From all indications it is going to be a great success.

PACIFIC MOVEMENT OF THE EASTERN WORLD INC.

2124 1-2 N. 24th Street.

The Pacific Movement met Sunday evening at 3:30, with the president in charge. A wonderful program was given by the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. F. Burroughs. Open remarks were given by our president, Mr. J. A. Harris. The principal speaker for the afternoon was Attorney H. J. Finkett. He spoke on the "Background of the Negro." We were much enlightened when he had finished his speech.

On last Sunday, Rev. Hall, a business man of the city was our principal speaker. Rev. S. R. Tangmore has just returned from St. Louis, Mo., where he attended the National Board Meeting. He reported a wonderful time. He said that there were 15,000 people at the mass meeting. He told us many wonderful things.

The Negroes in Omaha would be surprised to know what the officials and organizers of the Pacific Movement are suffering to emancipate their race. All the darker races of the world are behind the mighty organization.

Visitors are welcome at all times to attend the Pacific Movement of the Eastern World Inc. The forums are Monday night and Wednesday night and Sunday afternoon. Come out and take part in the discussion.

There will be an entertainment in the near future.

Mr. J. A. Harris, president.

HILLSIDE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

30th and Ohio Streets.
Rev. J. S. Williams, pastor

An interesting program for Mother's Day will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, May 12th. A play, entitled "The Gift," will be given in connection with the morning service.

In the evening St. Philip's Episcopal church and Hillside Presbyterian will have a joint service, presenting the drama, "Cleopas," a story of a blind girl who received her sight through the light of Jesus Christ. The choir of St. Philip's will furnish special music.

PARADISE BAPTIST CHURCH

1811 N. 23rd Street.
Rev. J. T. Carter, pastor.
Rev. R. Cooper, ass't pastor.

Paradise Sunday school was at its best Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. The regular church service, beginning at 11:00 a. m. was well attended. Rev. J. T. Carter preached a soul stirring sermon, both morning and night. One was added to the church. New members are being added to the church each Sunday.

The choir is taking new growth. The stand was filled to capacity with the youngers of the church, both morning and evening. A number of visitors were present at both services.

A new club, composed of the younger set of Paradise, has recently been organized and named the "Civic Club." The pastor's wife, Mrs. M. L. Carter, has been elected supervisor.

Paradise is progressing spiritually, under the leadership of Rev. Carter, assisted by Rev. R. Cooper.

The Mission Circle is planning a Mother's Day program next Sunday afternoon.

The Ever-Ready Club is giving a candle light service on Tuesday night, May 14. Sermonettes will be preached by Rev. D. Nicholson, Rev. J. Riggs, Rev. E. Green, Rev. Young and Rev.

Mosely.
The choir will give a "Barbeque" on Friday. All are cordially invited to attend.
Paradise extends a cordial invitation to everyone at all times.

Evangelist H. J. Miller

Sunday night, May 5th, Rev. H. J. Miller, of the Dawning Day Tabernacle, at 24th and Grant Streets, welcomed Mr. B. S. Sutton, circulation Manager of the Omaha Guide, to his service, and made space on the program for a short talk by Mr. Sutton.

Mr. Sutton spoke briefly on the circulation of the Omaha Guide and what the people could do to help to make this paper what they would have it be. That is, with the support of the community, the paper could make more progress.

Mr. Sutton states that Rev. Miller showed a wonderful spirit of cooperation and willingness to help, which was highly appreciated, and was very cordial in introducing him to the audience.

Rev. Miller has been conducting lectures here for the past two weeks and is drawing a large crowd each night. Sunday night there were pictures shown, illustrating the subject, "The First Lie and He Who Told It."

CLOSES SUCCESSFUL YEAR

This has been a very pleasant year in many ways for Rev. W. C. Conwell and the good people of Clair Chapel, Methodist Church, of this city.

Easter Sunday, April 21, marked the closing of a successful year. The pastor, with the support of the members and constituents of the church, paid as follows: Building fund, $1195.88; Current expense, $343.39; Pastor's salary, $849.36; District Superintendent, $120.00; Conference Benevolence, $120.00; Making a total of $2664.60.

A fine program, conducted by Mrs. C. C. Dudley, was rendered Sunday morning, by the Sunday School. The Five o'clock morning service was glorious, and the cantata Sunday night, "From Death Unto Life," by the senior choir, with Mrs. Charles Cleveland, chorister, and Miss Mary Helen Wilkes, pianist, was simply grand. It met the approval of all the listeners.

A nice suit of clothes, shoes and a hat were given to Rev. Conwell for his appearance at conference in Kansas City, Missouri, on Tuesday, April 23rd.

The congregation is hoping for his return.

REBEKAH'S UNFAIRNESS

Text: And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son.—Genesis 27:15.

It is exceedingly difficult to understand and would be more difficult to explain the treatment of Rebekah, Isaac's wife toward her own first-born child. This child was Esau and the treatment was in favor of his younger brother, Jacob.

1. It Was Unfair.—Esau was her son, as well as Jacob. A mother had no right to discriminate between her own children. It was manifestly unfair to deal thus with Esau.

2. It Was Unjust.—There was palpable injustice in taking from one and giving to the other. Esau was the elder son and entitled to priority, according to the custom of the day. It was a terrible thing for his mother to rob him.

3. The Methods Were Dishonest and Deceptive.—This mother prepared the "venison" from the home flock in a way to deceive her blind husband. She dressed Jacob so as to make him appear to be Esau. She urged him, coached him and was responsible for this dishonest dealing with his brother.

4. Retribution Came.—In Jacob's flight, his fear of the wrath of his brother, the hatred which lasted through many years, the persecution of Joseph his own favorite son by his own brother, all constituted retribution.

This is a lesson to all parents. It reminds that such unfairness will be more a curse than a blessing; that retribution will come and demonstrate there is no profit in such partiality.

THE OMAHA COMMUNITY BIBLE FORUM

The two visions John saw in the 9th chapter of Revelations indicates God's punishment upon the wicked men. The sixth trumpet sounded and John saw the great army of cavalrymen advancing on the Holy Lands. This great army of horsemen seemed to have been Turks and Arabians. It does show the cruel nature of the arch enemy of Mankind, which is the Devil, who is a murderer and an instrument which the Lord uses to avenge his enemies.

The eighteenth verse reads that the third party of men was killed by their fire, by the smoke and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths. It must have been a great consolation to the Seven Churches to be shown how God would protect them against the opposition to their religious faith, and the same protective hand is extended to the true believer of the present age. "Better that a millstone was put about his neck and he drown in the sea than to offend my little ones."

A Mother's Tears

By R. A. Adams
(For the Literary Service Bureau)

In the dispatch that carried news of the killing of the notorious Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker there was the sub-headline, "Barrow's Mother Is In Tears." No doubt at the same time Bonnie Parker's mother was "in tears," also.

A few months later, Mrs. Barrow was "in tears" for Buck Barrow, another outlaw son, killed as Clyde had been killed, and Bonnie Parker's mother was again "in tears" for her other daughter who was languishing in jail, awaiting trial as a robber and a murderer.

These are but two of the thousands of mothers who are "in tears" because of the doings of their wayward children. If the tears shed by broken-hearted mothers should all be collected they would fill all of the oceans and deluge the world. If the sighs and groans of such mothers could be heard at once the vibrations would cause the earth to quake. If the hearts of such mothers might be exposed perhaps the sight would drive all joy from the world.

When young people go into sin, commit crime, and are guilty of gross misconduct they should remember that these things will cause mothers to be "in tears"; cause mothers to sigh and sob; cause mothers to grow old, and die prematurely.

Every living mother went to the gates of death in the act of bringing a child into the world. Many departed ones, like Rachel, Jacob's favorite wife, died vicariously, that a child might live. It is inevitable that mothers should shed tears of anguish and sorrow because of anxiety for the welfare of their children. But children should not add to the burdens and multiply the tears of their mothers by their reckless deeds.

These are thoughts worth consideration in connection with Mothers' Day.
