SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. E. Fort, pastor
22nd and Seward Streets

The Mother's Day spirit was commemorated throughout all the services Sunday at Salem.

Sunday school was opened at 9:30 with the superintendent in charge.

The lesson was inspiringly taught by the teachers of each class. A talk on the Mother's Day Lesson was given by the assistant-superintendent, Mr. John Rosenbaugh.

At 11 o'clock a wonderful sermon: "A Righteous Life," found in Luke, 1:6 was delivered to us by the pastor. Rev. Fort's sermons are always clear, concise and to the point; thus enjoyed by all.

B. Y. P. U. was opened at 5:30 by the president, Mr. W. M. Coomer. Later the services were in charge of the vice-president, Mr. Lorenzo Rosenbaugh. A Mother's Day program was rendered and enjoyed by all.

As a surprise, the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Bertha Patterson, presented each Mother present with a rose.

At 8 p. m. Rev. Harris delivered a soul stirring message, the subject of which was "Following Jesus," found in St. John, 1:37. The message was enjoyed by all.

The Mysterious Harmony Four quartette, of Salem, rendered a selection just before closing.

Several visiting friends were present throughout the day. Our door stands ajar at all times to you and your friends. You are always cordially invited to come to Salem.

THE TRUCLITE GOSPEL SINGERS

The Truclite Gospel Singers sponsored a program at the Metropolitan Spiritual church in behalf of the stewardship board.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

24th and Ohio Streets.

Sunday was another day long to be remembered by all who attended. The Sunday school opened at 9:30 by Superintendent L. Lewis and staff of teachers at their post. As such, the Sunday school is gaining all the time by parents who are becoming more concerned in the Bible school. At 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Preaching by the pastor at which time much tributes were paid to Mothers by the pastor and the numbers rendered by the choir. At 6 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. opened with the usual enthusiasm, Brother P. Taylor president. The True and Tried Group, rendered a Mother's day program at this period to a splendid audience, which was enjoyed by all.

The Mt. Moriah church has just closed an evangelist campaign at which time 48 persons were added to the church. Of this number 40 were candidates for baptism. The Rev. C. H. Bratton, D. D. pastor of First Baptist Church Leavenworth, Kans., conducted the meeting. Thus this meeting becomes history in the life time of the church. Sunday being Mother's day, at 3 p. m. the pastor, Rev. Jones administered the ordinance of baptism to those who gave their lives to Christ, some who were not able to be baptized will be at a later date. The right hand of fellowship was extended and the Lord's supper was given. Too much praise cannot be given to the Sunday school superintendent and her staff of teachers. All of the candidates were Sunday school pupils and two-thirds of this number were out of the primary and beginners department of which Mrs. V. O. Jones is supervisor. The

No. 1, to raise money for their part of the building fund. This program was a great success.

The president, Mrs. Varner, was in charge. She extended her appreciation to the members and friends for the way they helped to make the program a success.

Many beautiful songs were rendered by the Gospel Singers. The receipts of the evening amounted to $34.16.

Mrs. Willa Varner, president.

THE WILLING WORKERS SPONSOR MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM

The Willing Workers club, of the Metropolitan Spiritual church, sponsored a Mother's day program at the church on May 12th. It was very beautifully carried out. The program consisted of two numbers by the choir, paper by Mrs. Earl M. Roberts; Biblical Alphabet by Mrs. R. W. Johnson dedicated to her husband, Rev. R. W. Johnson; prayer song, by Katherine Reed. The guest speaker was Mrs. J. D. Lewis. Response by Mr. Fred Forrest.

Mrs. Gertrude Mayberry, president.

Mrs. Willa Varner, reporter.

ST. BENEDICT'S PARISH NEWS

The parish of St. Benedict's deeply mourned the death of Rev. Father Daly, the former pastor of this church on las. Thursday.

His kind and loving patience; his sympathetic and charitable disposition; his deep-centered interest in the Negro race and his constantly extended helping hand, made him an outstanding and lovable character among the protestants as well as catholics.

The funeral service at St. John's church was well attended by the parishoners of St. Benedict's, who, in spite of the rain came to pay their last tribute of respect to their beloved pastor.

The seventh day Mass was said at St. Benedict's church Thursday morning at 8:15 for the repose of the soul of Father Daly.

A Holy Name Society Rally, was held last Wednesday evening in the church and club room. Father James Preuss, the new pastor of St. Benedict's was the guest of honor, and gave a splendid lecture to the men. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

A "Welcome" Tea is being planned by the members of the Altar Society, in honor of the new pastor. The date of the Tea will be announced later.

A beautiful five foot statue of St. Joseph, was blessed and installed in the church of St. Benedict's last Sunday after Mass. The statue was a gift from a secret donor who chooses to be most kind to our pastor, in the noble work that he has undertaken.

Our May rummage sale is still in progress, and if you have anything to contribute, we will appreciate your calling us at an early date. WE-5223.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH "The Friendly Church"

Rev. J. P. Bryant, pastor.

The service at St. John's last Sunday was very impressive. As it was Mother's Day, all thoughts were giving praise to Mother.

The attendance at Sunday school was not up to normal, due to the rain. Those present, however, were very interested in the lesson for the day.

Rev. Bryant preached a very strong sermon on Mother. He gave some very timely and appreciated thoughts on the Relations of Mother to the Home, Nation and Country.

After this very touching sermon, I am sure all present will be more appreciative of the things Mother does for them. As one looked over the church, he could see both red and white flowers as tributes to Mother.

As Friday, May 24th, is the day of the annual banquet, honoring Bishop and Mrs. J. A. Gregg, the Sons and Daughters of Allen will be quite busy making ready for the night when all the citizens of Omaha will receive a great treat, the privilege of hearing Bishop Gregg speak.

He will preach a sermon to Sons and Daughters of Allen on Sunday morning, May 26th at 10:45 a. m. At this service it is asked that every friend and member, who can, will give one dollar to pay on the parsonage.

The sick of the church are, Mrs. Ward, one of the very faithful members of St. John's and Mrs. Willie Green, who is much better than she has been.

We were very much pleased to see so many visiting faces at the morning service, among whom were Mrs. Henderson, of Kansas City, the mother of Mrs. Minnie Wilson.

You can always find your church and social news in The Omaha Guide. Watch for the boys each Friday or give in your subscription and have it come in your Friday's mail.

OMAHA COMMUNITY BIBLE FORUM

In our lesson last Thursday the visionary scene changed from torture and slaughter of men to "Gospel of Peace and Righteousness." Christ comes as a Mighty Angel to minister the Gospel of Truth, Revelations, 10th chapter. The description of His person does show forth the manner of His coming. The rainbow repre-

Sunday school adopted a motto, the first of the year: "A Bigger and Better Sunday school and All For Christ."

We are sure that the great crowd who witnesses and worshipped at this hour left with joy in their souls. The pastor was really a his best and happy in the service of the King as he administered the ordinance of Baptism and the Lord's supper.

The Ever Loyal group and the Women's Bible Class are having a carnation tea Thursday 16th at the home of Mrs. C. Auston, 2604 N. 27th Street from 4 p. m. to 8 p. m.

Old Reliable Group serves a dinner at the dinner at the church, Sunday May 19th at 1 p. m. Baked chicken, etc.

All are urged to have their dinner at the church. A cordial welcome to all.

MORNING STAR

Rev. F. B. Banks, pastor.

The Sunday School opened at 9 a. m. with the superintendent, Mrs. A. J. Johnson in charge. At 11 a. m. the pastor, Rev. F. B. Banks delivered a wonderful Mother's Day sermon. He read from scripture 113, Psalm, "He Maketh the Barren Woman to Keep House and to be a Joyful Mother of Children." His subject was: "Behold thy Mother." John 27:9. The choir furnished music for the occasion.

At 3 p. m. the Willing Workers' Baby Contest terminated. Rev. Calhoun, of Cleaves Temple, and his choir were with us. Rev. Calhoun delivered a splendid sermon on prayer. A splendid short program was rendered. Baby Donald Anderson, the grandson of Mrs. Grace Kirtley, was awarded the first prize. Mrs. Geraldine Smith, captain; Baby Mary Ann, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George White, second prize. The contest was very successful. The spring banquet, sponsored by the Heart to Heart club was a grand success.

The Willing Workers' Club met at the home of Mrs. G. Kirtley on Thursday night. A splendid meeting was held.

Mother Hayden was the guest of Mrs. Mary Williams Sunday morning for breakfast. She was also the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lee McGee for dinner at 6 p. m.

The B. Y. P. U. was opened with the vice-president, Mrs. G. W. Stromile presiding. Viola Wilson is honored as Bible champion.

At 8 p. m. a very strong sermon was preached. The subject was "Put on the Whole Armour of God." Ephesians, 6:11.

Mr. Pat Gibson is still on the sick list. His condition is reported very serious.

Mrs. G. W. Stromile, reporter.

In Memory of our dear Bernice who passed away May 18th, 1930.

More and more each year we miss you. In the midst of joys we are blue, With our smiles we have our heartaches, Longing dear, Bernice for you.

Dear Bernice you are not forgotten, Though on earth you are no more. Still in memory you are with us. As you always were before.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Williamson, 2508 Burdette St.

sents the Lord of the Covenant. His feet, as pillows of Fire, signify the sturdiness and stability of His purpose to establish righteousness on the Earth. The open book represents the Gospel, and His dominion is over land and sea.

The third verse seems to show Christ as Administrator and example of Preaching the Gospel. It was decided that the declaration 'time shall be no more,' does not refer to the final end or Eternity. The eighth to tenth verses seem to make man instrumental in promulgating the Gospel. The gifts of the spirit create in man a zeal, which is delightful to exercise, but carries with it very heavy burdens, and at times is a very unpleasant task.

Elder W. I. Irving, teacher and supervisor.

Mrs. G. W. Gorum, reporter.

PIGGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH

The Rev. John F. Thomas filled the pulpit at Pilgrim Sunday, preaching at a special Mother's Day sermon to a very large audience.

The Sunday School Alliance met at the church in the afternoon. A splendid program was rendered, which was well received. There was the usual large and enthusiastic crowd on hand.

The evening hour was given over to a special Mother's Day program, in charge of Mrs. Dixon. This program was presented by the young people of the church.

Mrs. Richard won the honor of having the largest number of generation present, four. Mrs. Herman Smith had the largest number of daughters, four. Mother Goodlett won the honor of being the oldest mother present. She is nearing eighty years.

Visitors are always welcome at Pilgrim.

Mother's Day Program

A Mother's Day program was rendered at Pilgrim Baptist Church Sunday evening at 7:45. Mrs. Rhone, of the Woodson Center, was the principal speaker.

Miss Johnnie Gordon represented the daughters, Betty Jean Thomas, represented the grandmothers and Betty Ford represented the great grand mothers.

Musical numbers and readings were given. The mother with the most daughters was given Honorable Mention.
