MOTON EXPOSES DIXIE SENATOR ON LYNCH ISSUE

tee the security of every citizen by the certain functioning of the orderly processes of the law, we are justified in looking to the federal government for the protection which the Constitution declares must be given to every citizen. It must be remembered that lynchings are not confined to those charged with crimes against women, as the records will show, but are resorted to on indiscriminate provocation, and as yet there is no guarantee anywhere by mandate of the law against their occurrence. And when the governor of one of our great states goes as far as to publicly announce the pardon of lynchers in advance of their conviction, it is high time that something be done by higher authority to put an end to this evil. If governors, senators, congressmen and state legislators will pledge themselves publicly to see that the necessary legislation against lynching is enacted in each state, the occasion for national legislation will be removed. Till that is done we must look to the federal government for that protection which the states still fail to give and the federal Constitution guarantees. And I would be disloyal to my own people, who have suffered most from the neglect, and to the best white people of the south, in whom I have the utmost confidence, if I did not add my voice in support of this federal enactment. As matters now stand, every section and every race is exposed to this danger, and the application of this law will bear as heavily on one state as another. I am satisfied that outside of the politics the sober conscience of all classes in the South will support this view, Federal legislation will strengthen those elements in the South who want to see this blot removed from our country."

In the same way that Senator Black misrepresented Dr. Moton, he and other southern senators, employing the polished form of prevarication tolerated in the United States Senate in the absence of vigorous informed dispute, distorted the facts as to lynchings in the south and other conditions throughout the debate. The friends of the measure, northerners and westerners for the most part, were prepared to vote for the bill, but were not prepared to debate it. They did not have the deep personal interest in its passage which the southern solons had in its defeat.

Only a few of the advocates of the bill were prepared to show their temper or their disgust, as in the casts of Senators Clark and McCarran, but even they lacked the knowledge of the problem necessary to offensives of the sort required. Most of them were forced to sit back and swallow whole the distortions which the average informed Negro could have exposed without a second's notice. The northern senators sought to keep the racial issue out of the debate, but the southerners observed no such tactics. They fought the Civil war over again and presented an illusory picture of happy, prosperous, peaceful, protected, Uncle Tom Negroes living throughout the length and breadth of a fair and beautiful southland.

ETHIOPIAN DEFENSE PARADE HELD IN HARLEM

New York, (CNA)—Demonstrating a lively and militant interest in international affairs affecting Negroes, the Provisional Committee for the Defense of Ethiopia staged a protest parade and mass meeting on May 2nd against the invasion of Ethiopia.

Parade Four Blocks Long
The parade, led by cavalry corps and band, was four blocks long. Throngs cheered the procession as it swung up Seventh Avenue. Banners demanding "Hands off Ethiopia" and urging "Black Men Arise" were displayed throughout the body of paraders.

The march ended at Abyssinian Baptist Church where a large crowd had gathered to greet the paraders.

The mass meeting in the church was spirited and demonstrative.

Audience Stands And Cheers
One of the highlights of the meeting was a dramatic reading rendered by Madame Marion St. Bishop. Attired in Ethiopian costume, and reading with militant dignity a poem decrying the anti-Negro institutions in America, she brought the crowd of 2,000 to its feet, cheering and stamping.

Speakers at the meeting included Arthur Reid, Rev. A. Clayton Powell, Jr., A. W. Berry, J. Alleyne and James W. Ford. A. L. King acted as chairman.

Each speaker was frequently interrupted by enthusiastic applause.

Warns Against U. S. Fascists
Typical of the speeches was that of A. W. Berry, in which he said, "The Negro people must be vigilant against the direct and indirect representatives of the Italian fascists in America."

Casa Italiana on the campus of Columbia and Relief Director Corsi were named as representatives of Fascism. Berry declared the "rainy season" will not slow up the work of the committee.

"Every day is a fair day for us until the last shackle drops from the blacks the world over enslaved by imperialism", Berry declared.

Resolutions were adopted to be sent to Mussolini, the New York Italian consulate and the Italian ambassador.

Plans for organization of a league to promote better relations between American Negroes and Negroes throughout the world have been announced by the committee.

MUSSOLINI INCREASES FASCIST MOBILIZATION AGAINST ABYSSINIA

Rome, Italy, (CNA)—Mussolini, fascist Italian dictator, has ordered an increase of military preparations against Ethiopia, last independent Negro country in Africa.

Another fascist army division has been transported to Africa. There are already two divisions stationed near the border now. 150,000 Italian troops are in arms for immediate warfare against Ethiopia.

The High Commissioner of Eritrea, Italian owned territory, is mobilizing native African troops to shoot down their brothers in Ethiopia.

In Worst Crisis
Meantime, Italy is in the throes of the greatest crisis in its history. Two pay cuts have been forced on the Italian workers by the Mussolini regime, while the cost of living has jumped 30 per cent since the pay cuts.

The Italian working class is daily showing its resentment to Mussolini's plans to seize Ethiopia. Mutinies among the Italian troops in Africa are growing, and the Italian masses at home, under the leadership of the Italian Communist Party, are increasing their response to the slogan of "hands off Abyssinia".

Delegation Demands Investigation of Murder

Brooklyn, N. Y., —CNA—Declaring that he does not give a goddam for the Mayor, District Attorney McGinnis, white refused to conduct the open hearing promised by Mayor LaGuardia into the police murder of Aubrey Knight.

The promise of an open hearing came as a result of a mass campaign of protest organized by the League of Struggle for Negro Rights.

The police department informed the L. S. N. R. then that there would be a public hearing in McGinnis's office. When a delegation of white and Negroes visited the District Attorney, he sought to bulldoze and intimidate them, and McGinnis refused to hold the hearing.

Knight was shot down in cold blood by the police on the morning of March 26. He had just left the home of friends at 547 Warren Street where he had spent the evening. The police claim that Knight had robbed a store although the store owner denied there had been any attempt at burglary.

They further asserted that Knight had been shot in the back for attempting to escape. An autopsy showed four bullet wounds in the chest, stomach and groin but none in the back.

Negro Denied Visitors In Auburn Prison

Auburn Prison, N. Y., —CNA—"I am not going to let either one of you see Allen, so what? I am warden of this prison and no organization in New York City is going to tell me how to run it, was the reply of Warden Brophy to a request by two representatives of the International Labor Defense, to see Clide Allen, imprisoned worker.

Allen was sentenced to 35 years in the state penitentiary on trumped up charges of rape. He was accused by the police of being the mythical Brooklyn Hammer Man who attacks white women. The International Labor Defense is seeking a new trial.

The refusal of the warden to permit the I. L. D. representative to visit Allen will be answered by an intensified mass campaign to free Clide Allen, the I. L. D. stated.

Claimed NRA Wages Is Then Fired

Aus in, Texas—CNA—Until a few weeks ago, William B. Fields, young worker eked out a living by shining shoes in a local barber shop. His refusal to lie to an NRA code investigator has lost him even these few miserable pennies.

The white proprietor of the barber shop instructed Fields to tell the investigator that he was drawing the code wage of $14.50 per week for porters. Instead, Fields told him that he was dependent solely upon what he received from shining shoes.

The proprietor promptly fired Fields, and the code investigator has made no effort to reinstate him in his job.

8000 Cleaners and Dyers Strike

New York—CNA—More than 8000 workers in the Cleaners and Dyers industry went out on strike here last week.

Their demands are higher wages, recognition of the Cleaners and Dyers Union and better working conditions.

One of the features of the strike is the unity between the workers and the small independent shops. There is a joint effort against the large chain cleaners and dyers sores which are not only forcing down the wages of the workers but are also driving the small shops out of business.

Score of the strikers and small shopkeepers are Negroes.
