

GIRL FARMER

Miss Carolyn A. Walcott, who has just received a bachelor of science degree from Tuskegee Institute in agriculture, the first woman graduate in that division. Miss Walcott is the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Wm. H. Walcott.

CAMPUS SCENES AT TUSKEGEE

In the picture at upper left is shown the Nurse-Training Graduating Class on way to Chapel for baccalaureate sermon. In lower left is a view of Senior High School girls wearing graduation dresses of their own making. In the center are pictured Dr. Lavens M. Thomas, second, who delivered the baccalaureate sermon May 19, with President R. R. Moton on the left and President-elect F. D. Patterson on the right. In the upper right photo are Tuskegee Cadets in line of march Commencement Sunday. At lower right are shown members of College Graduating class marching to Chapel on Commencement Sunday.

SCOUT LEADER

Miss Ruth Cooper of New Haven, Conn., Tuskegee student recently honored with a certificate of honorable mention by the National Girl Scouts movement because of her skill in first aid.

READY FOR BUSINESS

1935 GRADUATES OF THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS, A COLLEGE COURSE AT TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE.

ENVIABLE RECORD

THE GIRL'S BASKETBALL TEAM AT TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE.

NEW PRINCIPAL AT WORK

DR. FOREST D. PATTERSON, TUSKEGEE'S NEW PRESIDENT AT HIS DESK

BASKETEERS

THE BASKET BALL TEAM OF THE HIGH SCHOOL AT TUSKEGEE.

NEGRO TENOR IN FESTIVAL FINALE

Santa Ana, Calif., June 7, (ANP) —Lynwood Young, a student of Saata Ana Junior college, and a voice pupil of Miss Martin will compete in the final contest for promising operatic voices in the Festival of Arts.

From hundreds of contestants, five singers have been chosen to compete for the grand first prize of one thousand dollars.

Mr. Young will sing a selection from Aida.

TEACHER AND PUPIL

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace visits Tuskegee Institute and is shown with Prof. Carver, who he gives credit for instilling within him a love of botany. Both Secretary Wallace and Prof Carver were at Ames college together.

AID NEGRO EDUCATION

Dr. William J. Schieffelin of New York, chairman of the board of trustees of Tuskegee Institute; center, and George Foster Peabody, famous public figure and Dr. R. R. Moton during a recent exercise at Tuskegee. They are waiting to lead the student's parade to the chapel.

One Woman Show

LUE SWARZ

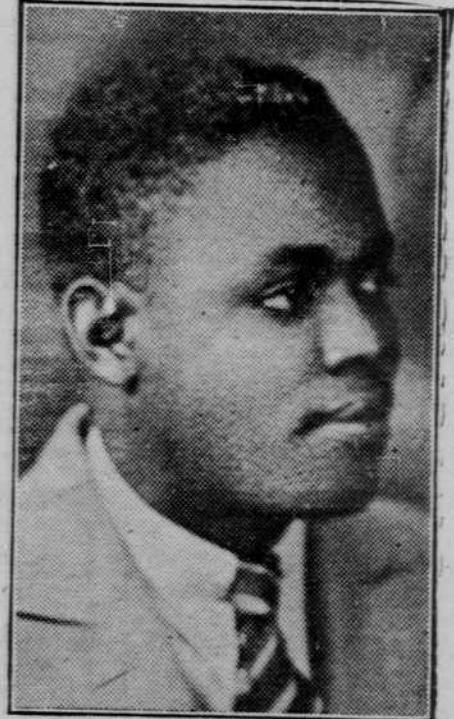

Poet, Playwright, Actress and Creator.

Miss Swarz who is beginning a tour of a number of cities this month, has been acclaimed the "dramatic genius" of St. Louis. She does a series of character portrayals in "solo-dramas," in costume in her recitals presenting a program of wide variety.

COLLEGE ACTORS

MEMBERS OF THE COLLEGE DRAMATIC CIRCLE AT TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE. MISS GRACE WALKER OF BOSTON IS DIRECTOR OF THE GROUP.

West Indian Agricultural Devotee

James Kidney expects to translate the lessons he learned in Tuskegee into improved farming in British Guiana, his home, to which he is returning, after finishing college and the course in agriculture at Tuskegee Institute