

MT NEBO BAPTIST CHURCH

Or Sunday school, which is under the guidance of Mrs. Ula Billingsley is growing day by day. Mrs. Billingsley invites each and everyone to come out some time and visit with her and her Sunday school.

In our Sunday morning service we had with us Rev. Musley. We only wish more could have been out and heard this wonderful message coming from this wonderful young preacher. We're sure that this message would have stirred down deep in your soul.

We also invite each and everyone to visit our Mission Circle, which is headed by Mrs. Billingsley. We meet every Thursday afternoon.

Our B. Y. P. U. with Mr. L. Crawford, is doing fine. Last Sunday, which was children's day, a wonderful program was rendered by our young folks. Come out and see what our little ones are doing in carrying on this wonderful program of the Master.

A drive which has been going on for sometime ended last Sunday. Everyone did fine. The pastor of the church extends a special invitation to everybody to come out and help us.

Rev. F. K. Union, pastor.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH
"The Friendly Church."
Rev. L. P. Bryant, pastor

Last Sunday at St. John's was another banner day. The Sunday school started the day with a very good attendance. The Men's Bible class is still doing fine. Men, why not come and join? You will not regret your step. We are expecting the attendance of the children to grow as the public schools are out, and the children have other mornings to get their sleep and rest. We hope the parents will see to it that they get there.

Those not present Sunday to hear Rev. John Adams, Sr., missed a great message. Rev. Adams is one of the most forceful speakers we have in our group. He was very pleased to be in Omaha again and to see and meet so many of his old friends. Rev. and Mrs. Adams are very pleased to be here to see their youngest son, Ralph Adams, receive his degree from the department of law at the University of Nebraska.

We regret to know Mrs. Willie Green had to be taken to the hospital last Monday afternoon. We wish for her much success.

Other sick of the church are Medames S. M. C. Baker and Ward.

ST. JOHN'S BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. E. D. Johnson.

Sunday school was opened at the usual time with the superintendent presiding and the classes all well attended. Morning service was one grand rejoicing and our pastor delivered a wonderful sermon.

The Loving Three and the Central Trio, two groups of youthful singers, one of boys and the other of girls, sang at Pilgrim Baptist Church Sunday afternoon.

Sunday evening the young people had a nice time in the union, and the day's services were terminated by a very inspiring message, delivered by our assistant pastor, Rev. A. Young.

June 4th was our pastor's birthday and he was given a surprise birthday party at the home of Mrs. Roberta Edmonds. The party was well attended. We, the members of the church and residents of the vicinity and friends wish for him many more happy birthdays.

The Truelite Gospel Singers rendered a beautiful program Friday night, and Mrs. Sue Johnson won the prize.

OMAHA COMMUNITY BIBLE FORUM

Last Thursday night we returned to our regular line of study, which covered Revelations, 13th chapter. The visionary scene extended the organized powers and rulers against the church to the Roman Empire. "This beast that John saw rise up out of the sea, seems to be a symbol of Pagan Roman powers, as it was then represented in the persecuting Nero. Note that the beast was given his power by the dragon, who is represented by the Jewish rulers. He was given power to make war on the Saints and to overcome them. For their encouragement the old law of reaping what you sow was mentioned. "He that sheds a man's blood by man shall his own be shed." The scene continues and another beast came up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and he speaks as a dragon. This beast seems to mean some religious power created by man Things of man's production are not above the level of the earth.

Any religious power created by man is not God. This beast looked like a lamb, but seemed to flirt with the first beast to force his selfish purposes. He would bring economic pressure to bear and cause the true believers to be killed. It seems a religious power working through a political power.

We meet Thursday at 2012 N. 27th Street, at 8 p. m. Elder W. I. Irving, teacher and supervisor.

THE WILLING WORKERS' CLUB

The Willing Workers' Club of the Metropolitan Spiritual Church held its regular meeting on Wednesday night, June 5th, in the president's home. A large crowd attended. Some beautiful thoughts were brought before the club by our president. Some of the ideas expressed will be carried out in the near future.

The club members greatly miss our faithful secretary, Mrs. R. W. Johnson, who is out of the city. Our pastor, Rev. R. W. Johnson, has just returned to the city, after an eleven day stay in Kansas City, Missouri, visiting other spiritual churches. He reports a wonderful vacation. He also reports that when it comes

Great Social and Civic Leader

Mrs. Robbie Davis, 2514 Corby Street, Omaha, Neb.

By Frank J. McDonald

Was born at Oklahoma City, on June 7th, 1905, the first child and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Turner. When she was 1 year of age her parents moved to Omaha, Nebraska, the second largest live stock city in the world. Her home life was pleasant, and she enjoyed her youth tremendously.

September 9th, 1911 she entered Lake School. Miss Torey was her first teacher, and Miss Fitch her first principal. In February, 1920, at the age of thirteen, she completed the grammar school. Robbie accepted Christ in the St. John's A. M. E. church, which Rev. Williams was pastoring at the time.

While in grade school, she became interested in music, and was later placed under the tutelage of two great musicians, Mrs. Carrol Marhoff Pitts and Mrs. Florentine Cassells Pinkston, of Omaha. As a result of her musical training, she became an outstanding scholar.

During her first year at Central High school, Misses Belle and Jo Von Mansfield were her favorite instructors, and their friendship lasted through her school career and inspired her to further study. She was a good scholar in high school and a member of the Y. W. C. A., Camp Fire Girls and many other social clubs. After her graduation in February 17th, she studied harmony under Stanley Jan Letovsky.

On September 4th, 1924 she entered Howard University at Washington, D. C., in college work, she was very active serving as vice-president of her class and a member of the student council from 1926-28. She became a member of Alpha Kappa Sorority in her senior year and was granted fellowship in 1928. On June 7, 1928, she received her A. B. degree in Ed., Cum Laude.

In 1929 she was elected Public Instructor of music and history at Lincoln Vocational School at Cheasha, Oklahoma. In June, 1930, she was married to Mr. W. M. B. Davis, of Washington, D. C., and she became a Social Welof the air corps. These two men struggled side by side ten years ago when everything they did along aeronautical lines had to be kept secret, because of opposition from local white flyers. They made untold sacrifices to further themselves and to encourage other Negroes to take air interest in aviation. It was these at the Aeronautical University, 1338 South Michigan Avenue; the only accredited university in the United States that will accept members of our race. These are only a few of the things that they have done. At the conclusion of Miss Brown's talk the planes could be seen coming only a short distance away. They circled over at High Noon, dropped the wreaths in honor of 'Brave Bessie' and then headed back to the airport. The ships were piloted by the following men: Commander Lieut. Col. Cornelius R. Coffey, a Great Lakes biplane with a Cirrus engine; Lieut. Dale L. White, a Commandaire biplane with an OX-5 engine; William P. McFarland, an International biplane with a Hispano-Suiza type engine; Major Earl Renfro, who owns a Mercury Chic monoplane, and Lieut. Grover C. Nash, a mid-wing Buhl Pup. Everyday Negroes are becoming more and more air-minded and as public interest grows and they may be seen in increasing numbers can be seen at the Harlem Airport at 97th and Harlem Avenue.

fare Workers in that city, the profession which she has followed since. At present she is Supervisor of the Government employment Survey, a general Survey of the employment statistics of Negroes in Nebraska.

Mrs. Davis has proven herself one of Omaha's outstanding leaders and we are proud that we can call her one of our own.

A Mother's Jewels

By R. A. Adams
(For the Literary Service Bureau)

Familiar is the story of the ancient mother who, after looking at the costly jewels of a neighbor said, "Mine will be here in a little while." After a while, in romped a boy and girl of tender years. Calling the children to her and putting her arms around them the mother smiling, said, "These are my jewels."

So, every woman should covet motherhood and place the proper value on childhood—as much as this is possible. Considering them precious jewels, she should guard them against whatever would injure them, devalue them, or, in any way unfit them for the greatest possible service to the world.

And it is only, "meet, right," and their "bounden duty," that children should always conduct themselves so that their mothers may always consider them jewels, and so that the world may be persuaded to accept their mother's evaluation as true.

MAN CAN TALK WITH GOD,
SAYS NOTED PSYCHOLOGIST

A new and revolutionary religious teaching based entirely on the misunderstood sayings of the Galilean Carpenter, and designed to show how we may find, understand and use the same identical power which Jesus used in performing His so-called Miracles, is attracting world wide attention to its founder, Dr. Frank B. Robinson, noted psychologist, author and lecturer.

"Psychiana," this new psychological religion, believes and teaches that it is today possible for every normal human being, understanding spiritual law as Christ understood it, to duplicate every work that the Carpenter of Galilee ever did—it believes and teaches that when HE said, "the things that I do shall ye do also." He meant what He said and meant it literally to all mankind, through all the ages.
Dr. Robinson has prepared a 6000 word treatise on "Psychiana," in which he tells about his long search for the Truth, how he finally came to the full realization of an Unseen Power or force so dynamic in itself that all other powers and forces fade into insignificance beside it—how he learned to commune directly with the Living God, using this mighty, never-failing power to demonstrate health, happiness and financial success, and how any normal being may find and use it as Jesus did. He is now offering this treatise free to every reader of this paper who writes him.

If you want to read this highly interesting, revolutionary and fascinating story of the discovery of a great Truth, just send your name and address to Dr. Frank B. Robinson, 257 sixth Street, Moscow, Idaho. It will be sent free and post-paid without cost or obligation. Write the Doctor today.—Copyright 1933, Dr. Frank B. Robinson.—Advertisement.
